Of this, a second edition (Svo, pp. 556), carefully revised, with extensive additions, has just been published by Little, Brown, & Co., Boston. The subject is of very great importance, where property is concerned. In all countries where law prevails froud invalidates obligations. Thus, A is induced by the misrepresentations or by the concealments of B to enter into a contract or sgreement, to vubich he would not otherwise have consented. Fraud is considered to have been employed, so as to render the contract or a studied concealment. This blinches off into Contract, Sale-Warranty, &c. In the year 1678, during the reign of Charles II, the English Parliament passed a law (29 Ca. II., cbap. 3) entitled "The Statute for the prevention of Frauds. It originated in the desire of eminent factors to prevent and punch the numerous facuds which were perpetrated by means of sufrauds which were perpetrated by means of su-borned and perjured witnesses. [From the Texas Papers.] THE REVIEW ON TUESDAY-SPEECH OF GENERAL MAGRUDER-IMPORTANT DISCLOSURES.

AGENDER-INFORTANT DISCLOSURES. On Tuesday there was a review of the State troops at Camp Lubbock, which passed off with unusual spirit. The troops made a most splendid appearance and gave, promise of valiant service in the field.

The Late Canadian Plot. The Late Canadian Plot. The setimated that there are in the neighboring provinces of Canada not less than 100,000 able-bodied men, refugees from the Southern States and desert-ers from the Union armies, who are well drilled, and may in a short time be organized into an army of thoroughly-disciplined soldiers. It is known that they are already pinched with want, and it is calculated that; as the season advances, they will be driven by desittution to any desperate adventure that necessary part of this scheme is a naval force. A Constitutional Union Man.

A Constitutional Union Man. [From the N. O. Times] We give place to the following, as conveying a good idea of a Constitutional Union man in some lo-calities more than a thousand miles from New Or-leans. A countryman was recently brought before Captain —, in one of the rural-districts of Mis-souri, When the following dialogue took place: Captain. What were you arrested for? Countryman. I don't know, sir. Captain. Are you a loyal man? Countryman. I am, sir, a Constitutional Union man<sup>1</sup>.

Countryman. I am, arr, a Constitutional Union man! Captain. Constitutional Union man; what do you mean by that? Countryman. I mean that I am in favor of the Constitution as it is, and the Union as it was, and that I sever enlisted in the Southern army? Captain. Never enlisted in the Southern army? I chould have expected a loyal man; living in-your neighborhood, to enlist in the United States army. Countryman. I couldn't think of it, sir. The fact course) would be very serious. Respectfully, PHILA., Nov. 17. A PARENT.
