DARING AND SUFFERING. U. S. 5-20. 5-20. Since the publication of the first edition of this work over five hundred judicial decisions upon subjects treated by it have been reported; a number which bears so large A History of the Great Railroad Adventure.
By Lieutenant WILLIAM PITTENGER:
One of the Adventurers, ANCIENT WARFARE. A History of the Grest Railroad Adventure.

By Lieutenant WILLIAM PITENCER.

One of the Adventurers,

With an introduction by

Rev. ALEXANDER CHARK.

Editor of the School Pisitor.

The whole nation was excited last spring by the revealations made before the President and the Cabinet at Washington by the survivors of General Mitchel's Scoret Railroad Expedition sent into the heart of the Courederacy almost year before. Of the twenty-two daring adventurers who penetrated the enemy's country, eight perished on the reaffold, and the others, after suffiring untold hardships, flually succeeded in recreasing the lines and reaching the Union Army. The survivors each received a medal of hopor and other munificent rewards from the hands of the President of the worst disorders that afflict mankind, arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It cleanses and renovates the blood, instils the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood. Such a remedy, that could be relied on, has long been sought for, and now, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit certificates to show its effect; but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken.

The manyellous adventures of this band are recorded by one of their number, who is fully competent to the trisk. Their history, as narrated by him, possesses the connected interest of an epic poem. The scene is gradually developed, and the interest deepens from first to last. The reader will follow the daring adventurers from their perilous journey, and will scarcely breathed during the progress of the terrible obase, the most excuting over recorded in the sanals of any country. The death scene will draw tears from the eye of the sympalhizing reader, while his obeek will hurn with indignation at the crualities practised by heartless rebels. The style is as implemented one, rising with the occasion to the lottiest eloquence, and abounding in the tenderset station.

Nothing in history is more startling than this adventure, or more heart touching than its portraitare by the pen of the sites author.

The book is illustrated by a fine steel portrait of the author, and several exquisite wood engravings, and printed in the highest style of typographical beauty.
