RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Voluminous New Commentary on the Holy Scriptures.

A plan has lately originated in the established Ohdreh of England to secure an entirely new commentary on the whole Scriptures. The honor of starting this movement is swarded to the Speaker of the House of Commons, who consulted several of the Bishops on the subject, and the Archbishop of York, at his instance, has undertaken to organize a plan for producing a commentary which shall " put started the reader in full possession of whatever information may be requisite to enable him to understand the Word of God, and supply him with satisfactory answers to objections resting upon misrepresenta-tion of its contents." The plan has already received the sanction of the Primate, and a committee, con-sisting of the Archbishop of York, the Bishops of London, Lichfield, Lisndaff, Gloucester, and Bris-tol; Lord Lyttleton, the Speaker, Mr. Walpole; Drs. Jacobson, and Jeremis, is to take the general supervision of the work. The latter is to be dirided into eight distinct sections, consisting re-ppectively of the Pentateuch, the historical books of the Hebrew Scriptures, the poetical books, the four great prophets, the twelve minor prophets, the Gospels and Acts, Paul's Epistles, and the remain-der of the Sacred Canon. That a vast amount of valuable Biblical information will be eliminated and concentrated in this proposed commentary cannot be doubted; still, the fact of its being denominational in its origin, and necessarily sectarian in its complexion, will deprive it of much of the usefulness which a work of a broader and more catholic character-such as could only emanate from the combined labors of honest and able theologians of all partieswould naturally possess,

GIVE THEM A HELPING HAND,-The Lutheran Church at Gettysburg having been greatly injured during its recent use as a hospital for the wounded soldiers, needs to be thoroughly refitted, and three very estimable ladies, Mrs. Dr. Huber, Mrs. Dr. Buchler, and Miss Caroline Fahnestock, a sommittee appointed by the congregation for that purpose. are now visiting this city for the purpose of receiving such pecuniary assistance in the matter as may be generously tendered them by the Lutheran rehes of our city. It will be borne in mind that the ladies of the congregation referred to were mong the foremost in their self sacrificing efforts to scothe the suffering patriots on that memorable field in July last. By this act they have entitled themselves, not only to the lasting gratitude of the loyal Lutherans of this city, but to the thanks of all who feel an interest in the Union soldier, or the mighty, and we may say holy, cause he represents. Let this debt of gratitude, then, be acknowledged by furthering the object of the above-named ladies with promptness and liberality, remembering that the most generous donations that can be made will be but an inadequate compensation for the patriotic ervices rendered by the ladies of the Gettysburg Lutheran Church.

COLLECTIONS FOR THE SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS ON THANSGIVING-DAY .-- We are gratified in being able to announce that the collections in the churches of this city on Thanksgiving day, for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers, amounted to the handsome sum of $15,000-to be applied through the Christian Commission.

THE REV. DR. GILLETTE, of New York, formerly pastor of the Eleventh Baptist Church, in this city, soon to take charge of the First Baptist Church. in the city of Washington, situated on Thirteenth street, between Pennsylvania and New York avenues. A handsome new edifice is now in course of rection by this congregation, and will be ready by the first of the year, when Dr. Gillette will assume his pastoral duties.

BLIGHTING EFFECTS OF SECESH UPON THE CHURCH.-A clergyman, writing from Missouri, gives a sad picture of the state of the churches there. He says: I am doing comparatively nothing in the ministry. Secesh won't let me. I am standing still waiting to see what God intends to do with my country and me. I induced our church last Sabbath to agree to observe the 26th as a day of thankagiving and prayer, and got our young preacher on Sabbath to read the President's proclamation, and oh'l what a buzz it has produced. As a general thing our churches languish. I am the only minister in our association who is not "secesh."

THE REV. DR. E. DORSEY, for many years pastor of the English Evangelical Lutheran Church at Waynesboro, this State, recently died, after a lingering illness, his remains being interred in the Bal-

to do, and which goes a great way towards forming public opinion on matters of great interest and intimore Cemetery. ORDINATION AND INSTALLATION .- Mr. Charles E. Hart is to be ordained and installed pastor of the newly organized Fortieth street Presbyterian Church, New York, on to-morrow (Sunday) eve-

REV. COLONEL CLARK'S LECTURE -REV. COLONEL CLARK'S LECTURE.— Rev. John B. Clark, colonel of the 123d Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteërs, and a distinguisbed divine of Allegheny City, will-lecture on The American War, its Present Influences and Results, in the Uni-ted Presbylerian Church, Front street, above Jeffer-son, on Thursday evening next. From what we have heard of Colonel Clark we believe this lecture will prove highly interesting as well as instructive. The Colonel dig good service in the late campaign in this State, and he is not only a warm supporter of the Government, in the struggle now going on, with his voice and pen, but he has wielded the sword and led his men in the thick of the conflict at Frede-ricksburg and Chancellorville.

HEBREW MONUMENTS AND THE JEWS .-- Certain discussions, says a Parisian letter-writer, at the In-stitut, relative to the age of Hebrew monuments, have suggested a new exploration of Jerusalem and other cities in Palestine. M. de Sauley, Abbé Michon, and M. Saltzmann, start this month on this coon, and m. Sairzmann, start this month on this interesting expedition. received $1817.15. THE CONGREGATION OF Rev. Matthew Hale Smith, New York, have raised $1,500, intending to make it $2,500, for his yearly support. The late re-jection of him by the council called to ordain him, has induced a movement to sustain his ministry, and to establish an independent church. The church is not organized yet, but will be in a few weeks, and zeveral are awaiting that event to make a public profession. A cotemoorary was it earnot

A cotemporary says it cannot object to this movement if, as it is reported, many who never before gave to the support of the Gospel ministry, now open their purses freely. BISHOP COLENSO.—A London letter says: "Al-most seven feet high, slender, but well formedi remarkably erect and handsome, with clear cut fea-tures, and full of light, there walked the present Banquo of the English Church—Bishop Colenso."

He had al-ready been admitted into the church about a year. In one of the New York churches, recently, the obrygman concluded his discourse as follows: "But I hear the rustling of silts in the pews, as if some ladies were impatient to leave; I will therefore say, God bless you."

The Starving Seamstresses. To the Editor of The Press :

SIR: In your editorial of yesterday I see an arti-ble headed "A Word for our Starving Seamtresses," full of misrepresentations, which, allow me to correct.

It is true that only five cents are paid to make one haversack (straps excepted, which are furnished, made), but it is not true that two women, working from 7 o'elock in the morning till 10 o'elock at night, can make only five, together. A woman that understands a little about sewing, can easily make one each hour. It is true that this is little enough, but nobody else is to blame for it but the Government. They give a contract to the lowest bidder. The prices are generally so low that the contractor, to get a middling fair per centage of his capital is unable to pay more than six cents for each haversack. The sub-contractors take quantities at this price, and pay to the women five cents, leaving them one cent gross profit. Deducting from this cartage and losses, this leaves them a net profit of about three quarters of a cent for their trouble, which is really hard-earned money. After all, somebody thinks it nice to call them a "heartless set of socundrels." I leave it to the public to judge for themselves. The writer of your article is aware that they pay at the Schuylki'l Arsenal 12% cents for each haversack. Then why do not these women go there and get work instead of taking it from the sub-contractors at five cents? The Schuylkill Arienal does not employ sub-contractors; only Go-vernment contractors do so; and as the Government accepts the lowest bid for work, nobody else but the Government is to blame for "starving wages." If

ternal improvements, is well represented at the lower end of the table. If you had not been so well entertained inside the cars, and had looked more upon the outside, you would have noticed measures of improvement which would have challenged your admiration. The public want to see the absolute autor particular, (a)placed plus, hardly the least i of these four great cities, Washington deserves our regards. The events of this war, if nothing else, make it absolutely certain that, for generations hence, Washington will be the great political capital. In-deed, Washington now assumes a place as one of the great metropolitan cities of the world. Such being the case, New York at one end, and the many intermediate eities on the line, what highway can demand more respect? I give you, gentlemen, "The City of Washington ; great for its architeco-tural structures, great for its historical and political associations, and particularly great for its native inhabitants." This toast was responded to in a neat and appropriate apeech by Mayor Walket. Mr. Smith then arcse and stated the fact that there was one item omitted, and that was the toast. "The Press," I mean not only The Press of Phila-delphia, which is a great paper, but the Press in G general. I call upon Colonel Fitzgerald to respond. Col. Thomas Fitzgeraid responded in a neat and appropriate maner, and, in his allusion to Major J. P. Jackson, S. M. Felton, William H. Gatzmer, Thos. A. Scott, and J. Edgar Thomaon, paid a handsome compliment to Mr. Felton for the energy he displayed when the rebellion commenced, in ar-ranging to send President Lincoln to Washington, and also troops to defend the capital. He also paid a well-merited tribute to all the rest of the gentee-man named, particularly to Mr. Gatzmer. Oolonel Fitzgeraid spoke for nearly half an hour, and was the function and Ono Road, and he being absent, Mr. Smith again took the floor, and responded in a brief and felicitous manner. Major Ben Ferley Poore also responded to a 'sen-timent in a witty style, and the excursionists soon after separated, and retired for the night beneasth the hospitable roof of Messrs. Sykes, Chadwick, is. O. After breakfast, yesterday morning, about two-thrids of the party returned. The train started from Washington at twenty-one minutes past 9 o'clock, raifroad ti CLEARED. time from Washington to Philādelphia, 4 hours 23 minutes. The prettiest part of the route is between the "switch-off," at the Trenton and Reading road, to the turn-out, from the Pennsylvania to the Phila-delphia, Wilmington, and Baltimore road. The train passes, between these points, three times over the Schuylkill-first at the Falls, then over the new bridge of the Pennsylvanis' road, then over the Gray's Ferry Bridge. The main points of general interest may be summed up Sciollows: 32 miles of double track have been laid, 18 miles more will be finished in six weeks; the road is graded nearly all the way to the Susquehanna river; the cross ties are-all ready; the iron is on its way from England; it is expected to have it laid by next summer; the Susquehanna bridge will be finished in about one year; the boat which crosses the Susquehanna at present, has a double track, capable of carrying eleven first-class passenger cars, or twenty freight ears; time of boat crossing the river aforesaid, eight minutes.-ARRIVAL OF A UNITED STATES STEADER
