United States Sanitary Commission.

PHILADELPHIA AGENOY, 1307 Obestnut street, Dco. 14, 1863. To the Editor of The Press: SIE: As the rebel Government has prohibited (temporarily, it is to be hoped) the forwarding of supplies for the benefit of the prisoners at Richmond, it may be well to present a statement of the number and kind of supplies sent by the Sanitary Commission since October 23, for that purpose. It will be observed that, although it may not be true that our brave sufferers, in the language of the rebel agent, "will be able to set a table equal to any in the United States," still, there can be no doubt that the contributions of the Sanitary Commission have proved an immediate relief to those for whom they were intended. The cash value of the articles in the annexed table is more than twenty-seven thousand dollars. Very respectfully, R. M. LEWIS, General Superintendent

THE CITY.

FOR YEARS OUR Sister cities New York and FOR YEARS OUR sister cities New York and Boston have had the advantage of us in a very im-portant matter-namely, a provision for the even-ing's entertainment of church-going, music-loving, Ohriatian people, on that great anniversary, the 25th of December. In view of and to rectify this want in our community the board of directors of the Handel and Haydn acciety have, at great peounlary expense and the devotion of much valuable time and labor, determined to bring forth in a manner never heretofore attempted on Christmas night, as being peculiarly appropriate, Handel's great master-plece, The Mession.

being peculiarly appropriate, Handel's great master-piece, The Messich. We earnestly hope that a generous public will promptly and adequately support the society in their endeavor to supply so great a public want. We also understand that the society intend pro-cuoing during the season Mendelssohn's Hymn of Preise and Noronho's Columbus. This last was pro-duced sixteen years ago by the Philadelphia Sacred Music Society, when it was so highly appreciated that it had to be repeated. It may be proper to add that the society numbers over two hundred of the best amateur singers of the city, and will be ably supported by the Germania Orchestra, the society being conducted by the well-known leader of the latter, Frof. Carl Sentz. We refer our readers to the society's advertise-We refer our readers to the society's advertisement, in another column.

SENTENCE FOR BURGLARY. William Keating pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary. Keating is a man wellkinown to the dispensors of oriminal justice. Previous to 1858 he had frequently been tried before the oriminal court, for various offences, from burglary down to larceny, but had so far escaped conviction. In that year he was tried before Judge Allison for burglary, and was convicted. The evidence, however, upon which he was convicted, not being entirely satis-factory to the Judge, no sentence was imposed, and arcested on two separate charges of burglary and ar-gon, Upon these he was tried at different times be-fore Judges Allison and Ludlow, and convicted upon both, the double gentence imposed amounting to ten years. Of this period Keating served about three years and nine months, having been pardoned by the Governor. He had not, it seems, forgotten his old tricks, and was but a short time after his released detected in the attempt to commit the burglary of which he now stands convicted by his own plea. After a recapituation of the facts above stated by Judge Allison, Keating was sentenced to an impri-gonment of six years and six months in the Eastern Penitentiary. The latter was then placed on trial, when the fol-lowing facts were developed : On the last night of vernon Hotel, in this city, registering their names as from New York.
