delivered by the Rev. Enhand weaver, who is well known as one of the most eloquent of the colored advocates in the cause of Christianity. A VETERAN REGIMENT.—In June, 1861, the 29th Regiment P. V., full one thousand strong, under the command of Colonel John K. Murphy, started from Philadelphia to the scene of rebellion. The regiment numbers now less than three hundred and fifty men. They are expected to arrive in Phila-delphia to-morrow, under a furlough for thirty days, having re enlisted for the war. The reception to be awarded to the regiment promises to cellpse anything ever witnessed in Philadelphia, and it is well deserved. The regiment which has carried the glorious old flag through the Shenandosh Valley, at Frederickaburg, Antietam, Chancellorville, Get-tyaburg, Lookout Mountain, and Ringgold, is en-titled to such a reception as will eclipse anything ever witnessed in Philadelphia, and it is gromised that such a reception shall be awarded. This eve-ming a meeting of the friends of the regiment will be held at the Wetherill House, in order to prepare for the great cocasion. Application has also been made to Mr. Miller, chairman of the Gray and Bine Reserves, the Henry Guards, &c., and there pro-mises to be a magnificent reception. This is as it should be. The regiment which, after two years and six months of hardship, is willing to re-enlist for an-other three years, should be welcomed by such an outpouring of the epople as has never been wit-nessed in Philadelphia. And by the exertions of the friends of the Unon the reception promises to be of such a caracter. Berfeld's Band has been sourd to proceed to Harrisburg, or some other place on the route to receive the regiment, and do who the proper before the men reach Philadelphia. Those who have friends, or phans, or fathers in the regiment will be on hand to receive the mention at do who they friends. There enging should be well attended. There might be a civic display, as well as mither the reception will be for Mercantile Safes When leavy ny Ghilled Iron Safe is burglar proof, I do not say they cannot be not into in any manner; but, on the contrary, I say they can be sledged, and broken. I also say they are generally and uvually drill-proof, sad impervious to any cutting instruments, as has been proved in any number of tests. I say, further, that any safe not drill-proof is not, nor can it be, burglar, proof, as it is practical for the bargiar to use the drill or chisel, but not the sledge. The next declaration is that there is not one of Lillie's Bank or Mercantile Safes that cannot be drilled and blown onen in the same manner as the one at Wilkes-barne. This is a broad declaration, without a shadow of fact to sustain it; and that its truth or falsity may be at once uncerstood and appreciated. I now request any Of hiled Iron Safes, to select the best mechanic of their ac-quaintance, and have the Safe thorong hily tested with the best and most perfect drill or outling restrament that can be promide is and more resistance.
