The Atlantic Monthly says:

RECEPTION OF THE 29TH PENNSYLVANIA VOL-THE RES.—The reception of the gallant 29th yes-terday was one of the finest military displays that we have had in this city for some time. The procession was participated in by all the home military, and the many hundreds of friends of those in the segiment. The firemen also turned out in force with their ambulances, and formed quite a feature in the display. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed, and as the line marched on they were at every turn greeted with wild applause. The procession passed own Chestnut street, and when opposite Granville Stokes' Mammoth Clothing Emporium, No. 609 they came to a halt. Flags were waved, and great delight was manifested over the beautiful stock of winter garments now in store at that establishment. WILLOOK & GIBBS' SEWING MACHINES, For Holiday Presents. In Germany, several hundred years ago, when there was conten-tion in a house and both man and wife were quar-reling for auperiority, it was the custom to invite The neighbors in, and a pair of breeches having been thrown down, the disputants contended for them, the victor being proclaimed "boss." In our own land and times the unmentionables are generally accorded without dispute to the member of the matrimonial firm who is of the male persuasion, and where the latter is a gentleman of taste and discriminating judgment, he procures the garment at the Brown Stone Clething Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth. Is an inflammation of the bronchia or passages which convey air to the lungs. In its earliest stages this discase is commonly called a cold, or a cold in the breast.
It numbly comes on with a little hourseness, followed by a moderate cough, with slight feelings of heat or soremess about the threat and chest. If not arrested, the cough becomes one of the most prominent symptoms, as well as the most painful and distressing; the inflammadion increases in intensity until it finally interferes with the access of air to the lung cells, when the vital powers scongive way. FRISHMENT SALOON—A meeting of the Cooper Shop Volunteer Refreshment Committee was held this (Wednesday) evaning, December 23d, at their Saloon. The unexpected death of Miss ANNA M. ROS-, the principal of the Hospital, was announced, and a Committee was appointed to prepare resolutions in relation to the snd bereavement. The Committee reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

In the death of Miss Anna M. Ross, the principal of the Cooper Shop Hospital, we have lost an ardent, efficient, and devoted colaborer in the cause of humanity; society has lost a valued member, and the sick and wounded a clast as a valued member, and the sick and wounded at lost a valued member, and the sick and wounded at lars valued member, and the sick and wounded as littles that sammated the heart of the Gereas which made ber name Illustions, and endeared her to slarge circle of friends in Philadelphia. In her position as the principal of the hospital connected with this institution, from its earliest date, she was evertue in her self-sacrificing devotion to the cause of the sick and wounded soldiers of the Union with all the anxiety and tender solicitude kcown only to the heart of a true woman, nursing them with almost material affection, and imparting to the dying the consociety has indeed lost a most valuable member. In respect to the deceased the committee beg leave to submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we have heard with feelings of profound regret of the death of Miss Anna M. Ross, the principal of the Cooper-Shop Hospital.

Resolved, That the hospital be draped in the emblems of mourning for the space of their days, in respect to the memory of the deceased was a true friend of the country, and to the ecoimittee of ladies and gastlemen of the Union Volunteer Hospital to join with us in attending the funceal.

Resolved, That we condole with the relatives of the family of the deceased in their breavement, and that Volunteer Hospital to join with us in attending the fineral.

Resolved, That we condole with the relatives of the family of the deceased in their bereavement, and that these resolutions be published; and that an engraved copy be sent to them.

EVANS & WATSON WOULD respectfully call the attention of the public to the following certificate, proving that their Safe was more than ficelve hours in the great fire at Lock Haven, more than ticelve hours in the great fire at Lock Haven, Panarylvania.

Lock Haven, Pa, Dec. 10. 1822.

Mesars, Evans & Warson, I'hilkaelphia; Gentifient, My Salamanaer Safe, made at your establishment. has passed through the great fire which nearly destroyed this town on the 6th inst. and preserved its outents to my entire satisfaction. The safe was exposed to an intense neat, so much so as to melt the outer plates and knobs; yet, after being opened, having lain twelve hours in the ruines, not a paper was found to be injured.

Respectfully yours, ORIN T NOBLS.

Autorney at Law.

We would respectfully call the attention of Sankers and others, shout starting operations mader the New National Banking system, to our stock of National Bank Safes; they are especially fitted up for Banking purposes. These Safes are warranted equally as fire and burglar-proof as any other make in the United States. They have our alphabetical or changeable lock attached. A large number of Banks have these Safes into at the present time. We would call sade safes are free from dampares. Persons having United States Coupons, and other valuable papers, should have one.

Merchants are invited to call and examine our large stock of Fire-proof Safes, of which we have a large assortment on hand, for safe a 'reas mable prica'.

"Seeing your notice of the blowing up of Lillie's Safe "Seaing your notice of the blowing up of Little's case at Wilkesbarre, reminds me of the fact that about four weeks previous to that transaction, one of 'Lillie's Anti-Drill and Burglar-Proof Bank Safes' was robbed in the office of Benson & West, Bankers, Waterford, Eric county, Pa. A hole was drilled opposite the look, being was drilled on the safe of in which powder was placed, which, on being writed, blew the safe almost to pleces, breaking off one of the heavy hinges, and tearing all the inside filling out of the frame, breaking the outer covering of the door entirely in two. The wreck was most complete. The robbers secured about $200, and some valuable papers. "

The striple compared with those of other makers. The control of will refer to a few in tances that have come to our knowledge in other puaces, and the notice of a certificate of a Safe in the store of McManus & Croft, published by Mr. Sadler

HANNIBAL (Mo.)—Messrs. Ha wes & Armstrong purchased one of Lillie's Safes, guaranteed fire and burgiarproof Their store was burned, and the entire contents of the Safe utterly destroyed. Mr. Lillie offered to replace the Safe with another of higher price, but they decined, as the trial they had had satisfied them.

St. Johns (Michigan).—One of Lillie's Safes, owned by John Hicks, was situated in a frame building which was burned down. In about three hours the whole contents of the Safe were destroyed.

PAINESTILLE (Ohit).—Two-story brick store of J. S. Matthews was destroyed by fre, and the contents of one of Lillie's Safes entirely consumed.

Cape May.—Hile's Safe in the Mount Vernon Hotel was, with its contents, destroyed by the fire.

CRYSTAL PAIACR.—Lillie's Safe, made for the test, seven inches thich, was tested in the fire, and the whole contents destroyed.

DANYILLE—In one of Lillie's Safes, in the store of Messrs. Warner, was destroyed by the fire. The contents had been fortunately removed.

We might poblish a large number of certificates as to the burning of his Safe, but we think the above are smilient. After saying a word as to the Safe that preserved the books in teonod arteet, in the store of Manus & Croft, we shall cease. The building was a small frame building, and the fisor on which the Safe stode dill remains, scarcely scorched, so that the papers would have been fasted the books in a stode, fron art. Eight stove.

Now, to bring this matter to a practical test, we make the following offer:

We will place one of our Safes, which we sold to 1856 for two hundred dollars, to Kdward Gaskill, book olader, and which we now have on head, having replaced it by a large one, in a sultable furnace, with one of Lillie's Safes, to be calceted by him out of any sold dorthat price in Falled one of the store of the store of the store o NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA.
