We will place one of a stillable furnace, with one of Liblie's Safes to be selected by him out of any sold for that price in Thillsdelplas within seven years: and sub- iect them to the action of a fire made out of oak, plae, or hickory wood, until the contents of them shall be de- stroyed: the patty the contents of them shall be pre- sence of a committee of fire, two to be chosen by each and the fifth by the other four. We will go still further. Mr. Fadler sold in June, 1860. to Weaver, Filler. & Co. a Safe of the $400 size, warrated to stal any fire that could occur in their building, which would be one of the stize, all disputes as to the fairness of the trial of the size, all disputes as to the fairness of the trial state saginst two, as no Safe can pass through a fire in the first by the sole of an past fire box from the size, all output be made and the fairness of the trial of the without some damage.
