COOPER SHOP VOLUNTEER RE-FRESHMENT GALOON MONDAY EXFINE, JABNARY 1 1361 A special meeting of the Cooper Shop Volunteer Re-freshment Committee was held this evening to take some action in relation to the death of Mrs. MARY ANN HAINES, one of the oldest and most active of the Lady Committee of the Refreshment Saloon. Messres W. R. Mellen, W. Sprole, and E. S. Cooper were appointed to draft a preamble and resolutions, in respect to the decessed. The following report was submitted and unanimously approved.

The following report was submitted and unanimously approved: In the death of Mrs. MARY ANN H AINES, one of the original of the Lady Committee of the Cooper-Shor Vol-unteer Refreatment Saloon, we are free to say that we have lost an efficient co-laborer in the cames we have voluntarily espoused, and the soldiers have lost another frienc. who had devoted much of her time in allega-sons and at all hours, in assisting to feed them while passing through the city, either to or from the war. The services rendered by this lady cannot be computed. She was ever active and cheerful, and engaged in the work with a will, under the impulses of a heart full of patri-otism. When death removes from our committee one so universally esteemed for her many excellent qualities, it is due to the deceased to take such action as might be suggested by the sad event. Therefore, while be how with due submission to the will of the Ainghtly Ruler, yet we think it proper to submit the following resolu-

yet we think it proper to submit the following resolu-tions: Resolved, That in the demise of Mrs. Mary Ann Haines, we have lost the services of one of the oldest members of this Committee; society has lost an estimable member, and the soldier a true friend. Resolved, That this Committee condole with the family of deceased in the lost they have sustained and that, in a brdy we will attend the funeral. Resolved, That the Committee of ladies and genilemen of the Union Votunteer Refreshment Saloon be invited to the deceased. Resolved, That these proceedings be published, and that an engrossed copy of the same be presented to the family of the deceased. N. M. MILEN, W. SPROLE, S. COOPEE W. M. COOPER, President.
