Governor Curtin's Message.

To say that Governor Curtin's message should be read by the Legislature is to give it very high praise. It is not dissipated in the message; it is practical and business-like; it exhibits the condition of the State, and abounds in excellent suggestions, upon which the Legislature is to give its high praise. But we are not dissipated in the message; it is practical and business-like; it exhibits the condition of the State, and abounds in excellent suggestions, upon which the Legislature is to give its high praise.

Delinquent Officers.

The extreme leniency of the Government in regard to delinquent officers is without a parallel. And yet the leniency has not been from lack of firmness or discipline. The point, however, has been periodically reached when the Government has been obliged to issue orders to delinquent officers in a parallel. And yet the leniency has not been from lack of firmness or discipline.

More Mining Difficulties.

Apart from the war and all its embarrassments and complications, coal seems to be the predominant social difficulty. The enormous quantities of coal which are being mined in this State, and which are being transported to other States, is a source of great difficulty.

Decision of a California Land Claim.

An important decision was made by the General Land Office, involving the title of the city of Red Bluff, in California. The decision was in favor of the city, and the title was confirmed to the city.

General Schenck.

General Schenck, who has not yet made his appearance in the field, is at Dayton. The Federalists are from over the morning, and the steamers at the wharf were compelled to cut their way into the channel.
