THE PRESS.—PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 8, 1864

AUCTION SALES. Mr. LORGHLAR, in a further reply, said it was cowardly to pass this remointisendanting the sheates of the member. Mr. Eccentry said he would huri this back to the gentiema, and beginser to force a party while, that was for half an hour to force a party while, that was only defeated by want of a quorum. Such men should be the last to call anybody oowards. Mr. Bindces (U) now gave his reason at some bers to the fact that this subject is simply the same bers to the fact that this subject is simply the same position to this measure? Do the gentiemen of the opposition to this measure? Do the gentiemen for the Twenty-fourth ward an opportunity to object in prostor to a nivestigation? Do they desite stre to grope in the dark? Do they desite in the commissioner, said ther the dark? Do the members wish to oped the motion would not prevail. The yeas and mays were called anyse in condusion, he rever, had voted, and the motion was lost. On the question to adopt the resolution, Mr. Bindces spoke at great length, and taking a revo-proventy the fact while for the solution to this the set and set in the to be prevented any attack upon us. As we was ufficient was and the motion was lost. The yeas and nays were called anyse it, nays 22-the Opposition refusing to vote. A quorum, how-ever, had voted, and the motion was lost. Mr. LOYGUILT, in a further reply, said is was owardly to pass this resolution during the sheared of the member. Mr. Excertrary said he would hart this back to the gentleman, and beg leave to remind hum that during the past year advantage was taken of his absent; for hair an hour to force a party whim, that was only defeated by want of a quorum. Such men should be the last to call anybody cowards. Mr. Buidee (U.) now gave his reason at some hength. He desired to call the atteation of the mem-bers to the fact that this subject is simply the ap-pointing of a committee to investigate a fraud, and report to this Ohamber. Why should there be op-position to this measured 10 the gentleman of the Opposition fear an investigation? Do they desire a positionement, in order to allow the gentleman from the Twenty-fourth ward an opportunity to object in person to an investigation? Does this Council de-sire to grope in the dark? Do the members wish to close their eyes against truth 1 in conclusion, he hoped the motion would not prevail. The yeas and nays were called—ayes 1, nays 22-the Opposition fear the motion was lost. On the question to adopt the resord of the last Council the fact that Mir. Duffield was expelled without nothe; not even was there desenge enough marifested by the gentlemen of the Oppointion the spoint a committee of inquiry. Now, even in this rate to voke with any one who holds a seat here to voke with any one who holds a seat here by fraud. Justice is certainly due that man. If the charges are untrue, let them bes opport, and the name and character of the man will come out brightly burnished, and be as pure gold. If the oharge are true, then why should appear that the name and character of the man will some out brightly burnished, and be as pure gold. If the oharge are true, then why should appear that the name and character of the man will some out orightly burnished, as the as the out on thing? They talk about law. Shame! FIFTY - ONE A CRES Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and Privates of the 28th Regiment: On behalf of the Lady Hanagers of the Soldiers' Paading Room, I bid you a hearty and cordial wel-come to these rooms. This is an unusual spechale here. We have been long accustomed to receive here your sick and wounded comrades, and to extend to them such graceful hospitality as woman's warm heart alone knows how to offer to these who have been sticken down by disease and wounds in the service of our souldity. But our eyes are gladdened to-day by the sight of a band of orave haves, who have paased unasthed through the tarrible ordeal of fire to which they have been subjected, and seem to us now robed only in the panoply of glory, who, faithful to the badge which distinguishes them, have borns in triumph the white starried and seem try on the bloodest battle-fields of this great war. Officers, Kon-Commissioned Officers, and Privales of the 29th Regiment: Councils should not think this proper, a distinct municipal department should be created for that purpose. Mr. GINNODO (U.) hoped there would be no action on the bill at the present time. He thought it should be postponed for at least one week. He wanted to have some time to reflect upon the re-commendations of the Mayor. He was in the dark about this matter. He saw good features in the bill that was passed and some bad ones. Mr. Kirse (D.), said he was opposed to the post-poning of an action that would remove the ashes and dirt that have accumulated in the streets. He in was favor of giving contracts to the lowest bidder. The motion to pass the bill, notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor, the bill fell. Mr. WETRERLL (U.), moved that the veto be re-ferred to a special committee of three of the Select Chamber. Agreed to. The PARSIDENT appointed the following commit-tee for that purpose: Measts. It has been my lot to witness many magnificent military spectacles, the most brillant, pethaps, being that of the entry into the eity of Paris of that grand army which fought and couq-ered at Solferino. But no military display has ever awakened in me half as much enthusiasm as your welcome home on Wedneady weak, as I saw you borne along in trimmph by your proud countrymen—escorted lovingly by your wives sad your sweethearts. I thought of you at Winchester, where you received your baptism of fire; of the many battlefields in Yirginia which your valor has helped to render il-lustrious; of that perilous hillside at Gettysburg where you stood between us and destruction, and when on that fearful Thur.day night and Friday morning, you hurled back in confusion the rebel hordes of Johnston, and Rhodes, and Early; of that last fitting scene of the grand drama when, scaling the heights of Lookout Monn-tain with a desperate gallanty that has few parallels in history, you planked, first among the foremost, the glorious banner of our coun-ty upo its sum met. When I thought of all these things I thanked God that I had a country which was the mother of a race of heroes. And when I saw that dear flag, at once the inspirer and the witness of your gallant deeds, its glorious tatters all emblazoned with the story of your bril-liant achevements, I felt as I had never felts before, and I felt it was impossible to honor its herois de-fenders too highly, or to cherich them too tenderly. Insuch as hour I locked around for those who have told us that we have no longer any flag or any country, but the brilliant sunlight of your glorious presence had driven these wretched reptiles into congenial darkness and obscurity. As I thought of these degenerate sons of our dear common mother twaring her bleeding heart while you had glady riveled your lives lest the breath of pollution should come nig heven as much as the hem of her gar WILLIAM C. And, doubly gying, 'shal go down To the vile dust, from wheace he sprang, Unwest, unhomored, and unanng." But we cannot forget that when we have spoken of your past deeds we have acknowledged only a small portion of the obligation we owe you. We understand that you return to your homes for a brief period only, to ill up in your ranks the places of those martyrs who have fallen at your side in the holy cause of our country, and that you are soon to go forth again, like giants refreshed, never to rest until you have planted your white-starred hanner in the very citadel of the rehellion. For this noble self-devotion and self-sacrifice, for this glorious example, we have no words to thank you. As there can be but one highest motive for such de-votion- 'love of country "-so there can be but one adequate reward-the approval of your own consciences. But we cannot be restrain-ed from teiling you of our admiration and gratitude, nor from expressiog our most ardent wishes that you may soon return to your homes, your brows crowned with garlands in which the olive branch of Pease may be lavingly twined with the laurel of Victory, hapoy in the conscious-ness of great duties fity performed, held in perpetual horor and reverence by those in whose stead you have suffered, and last, but not least, welcomed by the sproving amiles of those dear none written in loving light in the bright eyes and warm hearts of those who surround you, "none but the brave de-serve the fair." We cannod doubt that with such a florious past, and such am² multiperiod the server those of our country salling for succor in its hour of need ranks will bespeedily filed with noble youth each surver yet failed to find its responsive ech, so now, in answer to this last appeal to achieve the ruin of the hideous monster tottering to the fail, let a rand consentient, universal shout of devotion, in emulation of your noble example, come up from the great heart of her chidren, the surve harbinger of a glorious trimph a

FOREIGN EXPORTS AND IMPORTS .- The following are some of the principal articles exported from this port to foreign ports for the week ending January 7, 1864:

MI. MARCER (U.) offered a resolution relative to the drainage of the city, and to report a more proper system. Efferred to the Committee on Surveys. Mr. HAYES (U.) offered a resolution of instruction to the Commissioner of Highways to report an ordi-nance providing for the opening of Elisworth street to the river Schuylkill. Adopted. Mr. BUMM (U.) offered a resolution providing for the change of the name of Columbia avenue, from Frankford road to Delaware river, to be called Han-over street. MI. BUMM said there are duplicate numbers of houses on Columbia avenue east and Columbia ave-nue west; in fact, there are two Columbia avenues. Letters, packages, and other things are often taken to the vrong avenue. Mr. KEER (O.) said the difficulty was in the num-bering of the houses, and not the name of the street. Mr. WILLIAMSON (O.) said this is important to business people, and the resolution ought to pass, and thus remove the difficulty. Pending the consideration of the above, Council adjourned. SOLDIERS MUSTERED IN .- The number of Soldiers MUGTERED IN. — The number of soldiers mustered into the United States service and credited to this city, from October 17th to Ja-nuary 5th, inclusive, was eight hundred and sixty men. The above are credited as follows: First ward, 15: Second, 15: Third, 1: Fourth, 17: Fifth, 5: Sixth, 24: Seventh, 4: Eighth, 7N inth, 3: Tenth, 7: Eleventh, 4: Twelfth, 3: Thirteeath, 50: Four-teenth, 37: Filteenth, 169: Sixteenth, 4: Seven-teenth, 10: Twenty-second, 5: Twenty, third, 8: Twen-tieth, 10: Twenty-second, 5: Twenty, third, 8: Twen-tieth, 10: Twenty-second, 5: Twenty, third, 8: Twen-tieth, 10: Twenty-second, 5: Socond, 21: Third, 46: Fifth, 50: Sixth, 18-making a total in all of S60. This number is far below what is required to all the quota of the city, which has been estimated at about 5,000 men.

HOSPITAL ITEMS.—The following persons vere admitted to the Pennsylvania Hospital yes-erday : Henry McGinness, aged fifteen years, left arm adily injured by the premature discharge of a platol an Shippen street, near the Sahuylkill. Ella Toney, aged fourteen years, right arm frac-ured by falling on the pavement in Eleventh street, below Carpenter. Bridget Maloney, aged forty years, right leg in-jured by falling on pavement in Queen street, below seond. Abram Marbrie, aged thirty years, lost a portion [the fore finger of his right hand by an iron casting lling on it at Sellers & Co's foundry, Sixteenth ad Willow streets. He subsequently went kome.

A GRAND BANQUET.—The patriotic citi-zens of Hestonville, in the Twenty-fourth ward, have excred themselves strenuously during the past week to prepare a grand banquet for the gallant 29th P. V., veterans of the White Star Division. The spacious hall over the depot of the Hestonville entertainment. A large number of people took pas-sage in the cars yesterday afternoon for the purpose of attending the festivities.

GOUGH AT CONCERT HALL .--- This eve-GOUGH AT CONCERT HALL. — Inis eve-ning, our readers will remember, Mr. Gough delivers his great lecture. "Here and There in Britain," at Concert Hall. There will, no doubt, be a large au-dience present. A number of a rat may yet be se-cured by prompt application at Martien's, 606 Chest-nut street. Trokets can also be had at the door of the hall, in the evening. We advise those who have not progured tlokets to do so as soon as possible.

FIRE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON. — Between four and five o'clock yesterday atternoon, the fire-brick manufactory of Messra, F. J. Sheeton & Uo., First ward, was partly destroyed by fire. The flames burst out in the upper part of the building, origi-nating from the kilo. The loss in moulds, and other material, is estimated at $3,000, on which there was reneed. The loss on it is fully covered by insurance.

Mr. ZAWE (U) jeald, if there is a manifest desire on the part of the Democratic side to prevent the drawing of a committee, they can do so by refusing to vote. Mr. KAMERLY (D.) said, that in the appointment of a committee there is a choice of men. There are some he may object to and again there are some he may not object to and again there are some he may object to and again there are some he may object to an aswered to a should be added to be added the suggested the delay. The roll of members was then called, and the name of Mr. Riche (U.) was not answered to, although he was present. This was done in order to give an equal number of votes to both parties. The names were then placed in a box, and the following gentlemen were drawn: Micass. Baird, Davis, Hodgdon, King, Manuel, Marcus, Miller, Nicholson, Omerly, O'Rourke, Pauling, Spering, and Weaver, from which the following committee of six were selected to decide upon the contested election case : Measrs. Baird, Davis, Miller, Nicholson, Omerly, O'Rourke, Pauling, Spering, and Weaver, form the duty devolving upon them faithfully. These gentlemen were then sworn by the President to perform the duty devolving upon them faithfully. This committee then left, and returned shortly, when Mr. MILLER (U.) said that the committee head organized, and appointed Mr. E. Spencer Miller (U.) chairman, Benjamin Haines clerk, and Henry Fougeray messenger, and would meet to-morrow (Friday) at 12 o'clock, in the Select Chamber. Mr. Nicencison (D.) presented a resolution instructing the City Bounty Fund Commissioners to continue the payment of the eivy bounty of $250 to all recruits who will be credited to the draft ordered by the last proclamation of the President, calling for volunteers, which was agreed to.
