ATTENTION, DIVISION .- The officers and ATTENTION, DIVISION.—The officers and men of General Birney's division, now in the front of the Army of the Potomac, are shout to become the happy iccipients of a pair of the woolen mittens each, through the friendship of the Messre, Bullock, manufactorers of woolen goods. These gentlemen, by a straightforward policy, have furnished the Government with enough fabria to clothe the samy, and not a single yard of goods nor a single blanket has been rejected. They are, perhaps, the heaviest manufactorers in the world, having had twelve or fourteen first-class mills running day and night for nearly two years past. Their contracts are, of course, proportionately heavy, but the profits light, com-paratively speaking. Many thousands of dollars have been given by these gentlemen to sid the Go-vernment by contributing to the support of the army. The Messre. Bullock, with a few friends, will start to day for the purpose of presenting the mittens to Gen. Birty's division.

THE RIVER.—The Delaware river was completely choked-un opposite the city, yesterday, with large pieces of floating ice, which prevented the steambosts plying between this city and Cam-den from making but iew trips. If it continues a day or two longer navigation will be at a standstill for some time, but this is not likely to be so, as the weather is rapidly growing warmer. The Kright's Point boat was sinch in the middle of the river yes-terday aftern on over three hours, unable to gain the shore, on account of the ice. The vessels in the docks were sho ice-bound, and the boys were en-joying themselves highly, ghating and sliding all the day long, the ice being of sufficient thickness to bear any number that might venture on it.

IMPROVEMENT .- All the old buildings IMI'ROVEMENT.—All the old buildings which occupy the ground extending from the Farm-ers' Market House, on Market street, to Tweith street, thence northwardly to Filtert street, are ba-ing pulled down to make room for a new Market House. This improvement is considered necessary because the Franklin Narket House, on Teath street, above Chestaut, has been purchased by the Pennsylvania Esilroad Company to be used as a dépôt.

depot. HOSPITAL ITEMS.—A lad named Hugh Magee, ared ten years, was admitted into the Penn-sylvania Hospital yesterday, with his left leg frac-tured, caured by falling on the pavement, at Twenty-fourth and Pine streets. A man named McLaughlin was also admitted lateon Saturday evening. He had his leg broken by a cart running over it, on Washington avenue.

WE LEARN that the Fourth and Eighth

WE LEASEN USE the Fourth and Eighth Germantown Passenger Railway Company increase the pay of their conductors and drivers from to-day; the former to receive $2, and the latter $1.65 per day. Herefore the conductors had to bear the ex-pense of cleansing the case and harness, which the Company will do under the new arrangement. This example of the Fourth and Eighth is worthy of imi-tation.

to control the husband, and yet opërate upon him in the very act of devising, but some evidence ought to be submitted, tending to prove the existence of this very state of affairs, and it ought not to be left to mere conjecture. To establish such a principle would be to destroy the power itself, and to render it not only possible, but highly probable, that in every case in which the children of a citizen by a first wile become cisastiafied with a second marriage, they may defy their father's authority, treat with contempt the wile whom he had sworn to maintain, protect, cherish, and honor; and if he asserts his authority, and requires them to obey his just com-mande, prove these very acts against him to esta-blish his insality, or the existence of the "undue" influence of the wife. With the adjudged cases be-fore us, we would deliberately fail to do our duty did we sustain this verdict. Third. If is a fact that at the trial no eridence was preduced, extending over a period of more than a year before the execution of this will, which had any bearing at all upon the question of undue in-fluence. Supposing, for the purpose of an argument, that an undue influence did exist more than a year pre-vious to the date of the will, can a verdict stand in the total absence offail evidence upon the subject for the period of time above specified? By the law of Pennsylvania, alteredy referred to, the influence must operate upon the very act of de-vising. In Eckert vs. Flowers, the court say: "There is nothing which tends to prove that is p protised upon her any fraud, that he made any mis-furpresentations, or in any manner constrained her in June. 1858, when the will was made." It is true that in that case the evidence admitted improperly had reference to a period of time subse-quent to the execution of the will; but if the lan-properiod of the site here of a southed with the that useful Dean vs. Hughes and MC danou vs. Ryan, it must be understood to establish the broad princi-ple that evidence must the produced tend

THE FOLICE. [Before Mr. U. S. Commissioner A H. Smith.]

PORT OF PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 10, 1864,

[Before Mr. U. S. Commissioner A H. Smith.] Receiving Government Clothing: A Mrs. Brown, residing at Ninth and Maple streets, was arraigned at the U. S. Commissioner's office, on Saturday afternoon, on the charge of re-ceiving a pair of U. S. military pantaloons from a soldier. The defendant is, perhaps, the largest wo-man in the city of Philadelphis, weighing between three hundred and four hundred pounds. When Deputy Marshals Jenkins and Sharkey proceeded to arrest her she took a seat on a sola and said, "Well, gentlemen, take me." The officers found themselves in a quandary ; and not desiring to run in violent opposition to the will of such a person, and being unable to carry the sofa with such a load of humanity upon it, had a parley, which finally resulted in the lady sgreeing to pro-ceed to the office at her pleasure. She appeared on Saturday, and, after a hearing, was discharged from custody,

Oven-shine a short time since, had a fual hearling at the Central Station, on Saturday, on the charge of lar-ceny offurs and jewelry, the property of Mis. Oven-shine. The articles alleged to have been stolen by the defendant, were recovered by Detective Hender-non at pawnshops, where they had been pawned by defendant. The accused was fully committed for trial.

A number of soldiers visited Fox's Casino on Saturday night, and after being in there some time became involved in a quartel. A scene was enacted not announced in the bills. Three were arrested, and yesterday morning were bound over to answer.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET.

Riotous Conduct

Sili inst. Schr S E Parker, Filzgerald, cleared at Providence 7th THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, JANARY 9, 1664. There was more life in all the branches of the money business to-day. Gold fluctuated somewhat excitedly for the first time in several weeks, opening at 162 fall-ing %, and rising to 1524 frequently during the day. Money was easy, but securities are closely sortilized, and strong rates put on. We heard of large balances in bank at the close, that had to lie over unemployed. The five per-cent. legal tenders have made their appearance nearly simultaneously with the national-bank carrency. Both classes are well executed and present a handsome appearance, while the lovers of an easy money marks: hailed their appearance with delight. Government secu-rities are strong, as usual, and the demand about the same. inst. for this port. Schr Sarah J Hoyt, Gramer, J Inst. The bark John L Philbrick.
