LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE. Supreme Court at Risi Prins-Judge The President and Managers of the Schuylkill Navigation Company vs. James B. Winpenny and Edward Preston. This was an action of ejectment, to recover possession of a certain property on the Schuylkill, at Managunk. The defecce pleaded the statute of limitations, and endeavored to show that the defendants and John Winpenny, deceased, from whom they claim title, have had adverse and undis-puted possession of the property in dispute for more than twenty-one years. The rebuttal, the plaintiff gave in evidence a letter of the defendants, who was then in possession, doi: 1988ed to the managers of the company, faian-tifs, projucting to reat or purchase the property. They alter proved the admission of Mr. Winpenny, state as 1854, that he occupied the premises by the sufferance and permission of the plaintiffs, to whom it belonged.
