Henry Brocks vs. Jabez S. Campbell. An action of damages for an alleged lander. Before reported. Verdict for defendant.

Washington Hyland vs. Wm. Millward, garnisnee of Jacob Hyland, defendant. This was an attachment execution, to recover a box and its contents—money—which was alleged to be in the custody of Marshal Millward. It will be remembered that the defendant, Hyland, was arrested last summer, in New York, by Special Detective Sherman, acting by order of the War Department, charged, together with Captain Benedict and Dr. O'Neill, with treascatable practices—such as shipping goods to, and alding in carrying on a correspondence with various parties in the rebellicus States. A box, which Hyland, stated belonged to him, was also seized at the business place of Fisher & Reigart, Wall street, New York, which was brought to this city with Hyland, and delivered into the custody of the U. S. Marshal. The box was subsequently opened, in the presence of U. S. District Attorney Coffey and James U. Vandyke, and was ascertained to contain some $5.000 in Southern States money—bank notes. The plaintiff, who claims to be a judgment creditor of defendant, and having attached the box, sought in this action to obtain a verdict by which the box and contents would be surrendered to him in payment of his judgment.

The defence was that the box was held as evidence against Jacob Hyland, who is still in prison, and is, therefore, in official custody, and not liable to attachment; and further, that it had passed from the custody of Mr. Millward into that of the court. Verdict for defendant. Junkin for plaintiff; Knox and Webster for the garnishee.

Court of Quarter Sessions—Judge Allison.

THE CITY.

RECRUITING.—The presence of so many veterans in the city is highly beneficial to resruiting. There is a certain martial appearance about the streets which attracts many men; and their intercourse with the returned volunteers tends to a very great extent to increase the number of those who would like to experience the routine of military lite. The ward committees on the raising of resruits, to prevent a draft, are working with commendable categy, and procuring new soldiers quite plentifully. If there should be no draft in this city—and it is not likely that there will be—thanks will be due not so much because of the high bounties that are offered, as on account of the perseverance of the ward committees.

that, with such united energy on the part of the public authorities and the citizen in their private sapacity, that our quots will be more than filled. A general order was issued yesterday by General Ferry, commanding this post, soliciting the cooperation of the people generally, with General Harcock, in his endeavor to fill up the 24 army Qorps to 50,000 men. General Harcock has already been sanctioned by the Legislature of the State, by Utty Councils, the Union Leagues, and other public spitifed bodies.

The people hardly needed this appeal, for they will undoubtedly second the efforts of this distinguished and patriotic soldier. The delay in the payment of the bounties to the returning volunteers causes some little dissatification, though we learn that cause of complaint will soon be entirely removed. The bounty to which the re-enlisting men are entitled cannot be procured, unless certain necessary forms are observed. The muster rolls must be properly certified by the adjutant generals at Washington and Harrisburg, stating that the men have been credited to the quota of our city. Those who have been properly credited will receive their bounty in due time.

DEATH OF A WELL KNOWN CITIZEN.—Mr. Charles V. Williams, a well-known and highly-resiceted citizen of this city, died on the 17th instant, at his late residence, in the district of Southwark. He was, at the time of his death, one of the cidest ship-builders in the city, and carried on a very extensive business. Straightforward and upright in all his transacture, during his long life of usefulness, he had $20cml many friends, while his numerous acts of benevolence endeared him to the hearts of many.

SERIOUS FALL.—A woman, named Rosanna O'Neil, fell from the third story window of her residence in Tenth street below Thompson, yesterday morning, and crushed her arm and shoulder, and received other serious injuries. She was partly deranged at the time, and was watched by a little girl, who became exhausted and fell asleep, and, while so, the woman jumped out. She was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital.

THE CITY ICE BOAT.—The City ICE BOAT, Capt. Kelly, left Mead-alley wharf at 9½ o'clock yesterday morning, taking in tow the following vessels: Bark Fanny, for Clenfuegos; brigs Lapwing, for Pernambuco; Frontier, for Cardenas, and Lizzie Lea, for Gibraltar.

CALL TO PROFESSOR HITCHCOCK NOT ACCEPTED.

—We announced in this column on Saturday last that a unanimous call had been extended by the congregation of Calvary Presbyterian Church, Fifteenth and Locust streets, to Professor Hitchcock, D. D., of New York, to become their pastor, and that he was expected to occupy their pulpit on Sunday last, morning and evening. The church was crowded on both these occasions, and the impression made by the learned divine was most favorable, though much to the regret of the Calvary congregation, they have received no encouragement that their

The bark A No. 1, that cleared from our port for California a day or two since, was seized yesterday by Deputy United States Marshal Jenkins, by order of United States District Attorney George A. Coffey. There are some circumstances connected with this vessel well calculated to excite great suspicion. She has a considerable number of elevenicth guns and fixed ammunition on board, and also a large quantity of drugs, and any amount of small arms. It is a well-known fact that some time since there were suspicious parties in Philadelphia, acting as is supposed in conjunction with certain other parties is under the Chesapeake. It leaked out since that time, that the Philadelphia parties having completed their arrangements, were to take passage in a steamer bound from Now York to Panama. Spurgeon's Connece—Mr. Spurgeon's seminary for pleachers, which was founded in 1856, with one student, now has 68 young men, who are boarded and educated free clexyenese, and 182 who receive cleanical and business instruction on week-day evenings. No expense is incurred for collecting agencies, and the spiritual tone of the institution is elevated and satisfactory. The annual expense is $15,000, and there have already been 38 pastors trained and sent forth. The way the institution got started is thus related in The Examiner:

"At first the money expended was mostly from Mr. Spurgeon's private purse, but, as the work enlarged, this became insufficient. At this juncture, happily, an edition of his sermons was published by Messra. Sheldon, of New York, which commanded a large sale, and, the publishers very honorably remuserating him, the turds needed were furnished. He retained not one farthing for himself, but gave all cheerfully to his much-loved 'school of the projects.'"

John Wilson, alias Williams, was arraignedlyesterday morning on the charge of stealing a hunting case gold watch, from the store of Mr. H. W. Stelwagen, on Market atreet, above Sixth. It seems, from the evidence, that on Thursday evening the accused and another young man went into the store and priced several watches, but purchased none. As they were about going out, one of the watches was missed from the case. The alarm was given, and the defendant was arrested after a chase for several squares. He was committed to answer.

The defendant is properly named John Canhon, and has been in custody for counterfeiting and forgery. Some time since he was arraigned at the Central Station on the charge of obtaining $600 on a forged check from a Third street broker; but the sum was made up, and the case was never prosecuted. It was ascertained that the defendant and the excaped young man, had recently taken board at the Montgomery House, at Sixth and Willow streets.

The police proceeded to this place, expecting the excaped thief would finally appear there. Their expectations were fully realized. The young man arrived at the hotel, and was arrested at once. The stolen watch was found in his possession.

He was arraigned at the Central Station yesterday afternoon, when the following proceedings took RECONSTRUCTION IN THE SOUTH.—The "M. E. Church South," which seceded in 1844, "in advance of all others," is doubtless entirely disorganized, Bishop Scott has gone to South Carolina, Bishop Simpson to Tennessee, and Bishop Ames farther South, to see what can be done for reconstruction. The prospects are not bright, particularly on account of the Methodist custom of having their church property deeded away from the people who pay for it, and vested in the Conference or some other ecclesiastical body. The Southern Conference were entirely involved in the rebellion, and must be entirely broken up. CATHOLICITY IN ENGLAND.—The English CathoRic Directory says: "A comparison of the statistical
