THE POLICE. (Before Mr. Aldorman Dougherty.) Larcemy of a Watch. A young man, giving the name of George Thomp-son, halling from the northwestern part of the dity. was arraigned, yesterday morning, on the charge of the larceny of a watch, the property of Samuel Babb. The evidence developed the following inte-reating state of facts: On Sunday evening, as Nr. Babb was walking along Sixth street, near Cherry, he observed detendant in conversation with a couple of females; just as he was about to pass the party, the coffendant pushed one of the girls against him; about the same moment Mr. Babb felt his guard-chain give a sort of jerk, and at once caught hold of the defendant, who had the watch in his hand, having broken it from the chain. The defendant duritted that he took the watch, but only did it as a joke, as he intended to ask the joke, and, therefore, bound defendant over in the sum of $600 to answer.
