Mr. Miller (U.) said that if the Chamber adjourn it will prevent the passage of the bill from Common Council, extending the city bounty, and, therefore, it would stop recruiting. The effect of it would be that New Jersey would obtain all these men. Let us pass this bill first.

Mr. Usilmi (U.) said we should wait till they do come before we adjourn. He had been on committees when he was required to wait several hours after the supposed time of arrival. Why should this Council be present at the reception of this particular regiment, when those who arrived previously were not attended to? One is as good as another. He felt it was his duty to do honor to those who are going out, by passing this bounty bill.

No action was taken at this time on the motion li. No action was taken at this time on the motion No action was taken at this time on the motion to adjourn.

Mr. King (O.) presented a protest, signed by the minority members of the Select Branch, against the action of that Chamber, in meeting Common Clouncil in joint convention on Monday last, to elect the directors of the Philadelphia and Erie and North Pennsylvania Raliroads. The protest states that it was not held at the regular stated meeting, according to law, or within the time prescribed by law. It was done by the President contrary to all former presedents, and without the consent of a quorum of members. It was done by a minority of this Chamber, without law and order. It was a violation of rights and privileges, and subversive of law and order. The protest was signed by nine of the Opposition members.

The President said he would not refuse to enter order. The protest was signed by nine of the Opposition members.

The PRESIDENT said he would not refuse to enter the protest upon the journal, although in his opinion it was very disrespectful.

Mr. Briestly (0.) moved that it be entered on the journal. He then spoke for some time against the action of Select Council at the special meeting last Monday, maintaining that it was all contrary to law. Total, 2596 men.

Twentieth, 55: Total, 2596 men. Action of Scient Council at the special measure as Monday, maintaining that it was all contrary to law.

Mr. Wetherill (U.) said it was evidently an error, as set forth in the protest. A special meeting it would have been too late. A quorume of meeting it would have been too late. A quorume of members answered to their names when called; they went into that convention with a clear quorum, and returned with the same. If all who went in did not vote that was not breaking the law, Mr. King. (O.) said the protest was offered in the spirit of right and justice. He was not present at the special meeting on Monday. The journal states that but twelve members answered to their names, and there should have been thirteen, in order to constitute a quorum. Why the gentieman from the Ninth (Mr. Wetherill) can initiat that the protest against the meeting, held on the ist, is wrong he could see no reason. The Select Council is not competent to do business with a minority of members.

Mr. Wetherill (II) said if the gentleman from the competent to do business with a minority of members.

Mr. Wetherill (U.) said if the gentleman from the Eleventh (Mr. King) would look at the journal he would find that fourteen members answered to their names, thereby manifesting a desire to meet in joint convention for the purpose of electing these directors. He nor say other member can deny this. It makes no difference if there were but twelve members voting in joint convention, so that a quorum were present. The vote of thirty-five, which was taken in the joint convention, is a legal one.

Mr. Uhler (U.) said the moment we met here, and the clerk announced that a quorum of members was present, we were perfectly right in meeting Common Council in joint convention, for the purpose for which we were called. There was a THE HIGH SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS.—The following are the questions which were asked yesteidsy morning at the examination now progressing at the Boys' Central High School:

In addition to the above, the following exercise was given to be properly punctuated:

Luther outstripped in elevation the highest of the sexon Alps. The stern purity of John Calvin awes me more than Mont Blanc clothed in ice and snow. Or oner towers higher than the Derby Peak. John Knox impresses me more than Ben Nevis eyer did. The stalwart men of the days of the Puritans comport themselves with a loftier mien than the stateliet of cur stately caks. Mr. Miller (U.) moved that the orders of the day be postponed and the Chamber take up the bill from Common Council, making an additional appropriation of $2,000,000 for the purpose of paying a bounty of $250 to each volunteer who will be credited to the quota of this city, required by the last call of the President, which was agreed to.

Mr. Wetherell (U.) said we have credited to this city about 3,900 men. He wanted to know whether each ward will get its full proportion of this number. How are the wards to receive their share! Int. Wetherical C.) said we have credited to this city about 3,900 men. He wanted to know whether each ward will get its full proportion of this number. How are the wards to receive their share?

Mr. Miller (U.) said, as far as volunteering in this city is concerned, it all arises out of the activity shown by every person in the ward.

Mr. Nicholson (O.) said there is a law which cannot be altered. It gives a person the right to enlist in whatever place he desired. It some wards are negligent in collecting money to secure recruits, it is their own lookout, and Councils had nothing to do with it. The wards should pay a high premium. After considerable debate the bill was concurred in without a dissenting voice.

Mr. Wetherll (U.), on leave, offered a resolution of instruction to the Committee on Defence and Protection, to inform Select Council what method should be adopted whereby the distribution of men and money would be equally divided.

Mr. Miller (U.) offered a resolution to encourage volunteering. It pledges the faith of the city to continue the payment of such bounties as may be proper from time to time so long as a draft can be prevented in that way, believing that it is proper and right that those who do not themselves enlist should be generous to those who peril their lives for their country. Agreed to.

Mr. ZANE (U.), on leave, offered a resolution of instruction to the Committee on Protection and Defence to present, at the next stated meeting, an ordinance fixing a heavy penalty on any person or persons who are found selling the warrants or certificates of payments to soldiers at a dissount. Referred to that committee.

The election of trustees of gas works was postponed till four o'clock next Thurday.

Mr. Davis (U.), chairman of the Committee on water Works, presented an ordinance making an appropriating the sum of $15,000 to the drawtees of the Philadelphia Gas Works, as a reimbursement for supplying certain unpaid bills for the year 1853. Agreed to.

Mr. Riller (U.), chairman of the Committee on RETURN OF ANOTHER REGIMENT.—The S8th Pennsylvania HRegiment, Col. Ballier, returned yte-terday, having re-enlisted for the war. They were received by a Committee of Councils (of which Mr. Frank f. Wolbert is chairman), with Birg-feld's Band, the Henry Guards, Captain Spear, with the Liberty Cornet Band, convalescent soldiers from the Nicetown Hospital, with Hospital Band, the committees of reception appointed by the citizens of the Eleventh and Twelfth wards, and a large concourse of frien's and citizens generally.

The route of procession was as follows: From the dépôt to Prime street, down Prime street to Passyunk road, down Passyunk road to Federal, down Frideral to Fifth, up Fifth to Prime, down Prime to the Union Citizens' Refreshment Saloon. From there to Third street, up third to Pine, up Pine to Eighth, up Eighth to Chestaut, down Chestaut to Third, up Third to Vine, up Vine to Fifth, up Fifth to Collowhil, down Coslowhil to Third, up Third to Vine, up Vine to Fifth, up Fifth to Callowhil, down Coslowhil to Third, up Third to their headquarters, Northern Military Hall, Third street, below Green.

The men presented a very fine appearance, and created much enthusiasm along the route of the procession. RETURN OF ANOTHER REGIMENT.-The A PLEASANT OCCASION. - Yesterday A PLEASANT OCCASION. — Yesterday a very pleasing scene occurred at Sansom-street Hall. The occasion was a supper to the men of Co. 3, 183d Regiment, P. V., who presented each of their officers with a handsome sword. That to Capt. Smith was a magnificent specimen of workmanship. The golden scabbard was elaborately ornamented in relief, and the grip ivory richly carved and surmounted by a golden eagle, holding in his beak a gold star, from which sparkled a single diamond. The blade, igured with gold, bore the motto, "We never surrender," particularly appropriate to this young hero of so many hard-fought battles of the Army of the Potomae. This sword, with sash, belt, and gloves, all of the finest quality, were enclosed in a rich resewood lox. the mest quality, were enclosed in a rich rosewood box.

The swords for Lieutenants De Gour and Keyser were also very beautiful, the scabbards being of silver, the grips ivory, all richly mounted, and the blades handsomely embossed, with the names of the recipients in old English, each sword having a suitable inscription. The whole affair was highly creditable to all parties interested, no less than to the well-known manufacturers, Messrs. G. W. Simons & Brother, of Sansom street, to whom the presentation committee confided the getting up of these testimonials. GOOD MOVEMENT.-We understand A GOOD MOVEMENT.—We understand that the Third Reformed Dutch 'Church, corner of Tenth and Filbert atreets, (Rev. Dr. Wolfman, pastor,) have made arrangements for paying off their debt, consisting of a ground rent of about $16,000, a large amount of which is already in the treasury. The people have taken hold of the matter most energetically and liberally, determined to see it successfully through. The work will probably be consummated in a few days. One lady of the congregation, well known for her liberality, has subscribed $3,500, and many others have given with an equal generousmess according to their ability. This is as it should be. Reletied to the Committee on Frinting and Supplies.

Mr. Davis (U.) offered an ordinance authorizing the opening of North and Carlisle streets, which was referred to the Committee on Highways.

Mr. UHLER (U.) offered an ordinance appropriating the sum of $1,000 to supply the police station-houses in this city with surgical instruments and atretchers for wounded persons, the same to be under the supervision of the Committee on Health. Agreed to. stretchers for wounded persons, the same to be under the supervision of the Committee on Health. Agreed to Mr. Miller (U.) presented a resolution of instruction to the Committee on Finance to take into consideration the report of the committee appointed to verify the cash accounts of the City Treasurer on the 10th of December, 1863, and report whether any or what action could be taken in the matter. He said that there was $4,000 interest on this money, which had not been accounted for. The City Treasurer denied that it was not the city money, but he thought he did not deny that it was not the public money.

The resolution was agreed to.

Mr. ZANE (U.) called up the resolution locating certain steam fire engine companies, which was postponed from the last meeting.

The Washington Engines, of Frankford and Germantown, and the Western Engine Company, of this city, were added; and, on motion, the resolution was indefinitely postponed.

The resolution from Common Council ingreasing the salaries of the clerks in the office of the Receiver of Taxes, was concurred in, and also the one increasing the salaries of the Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent of the Police and Fire Alarm Telegraph, and the assistant clerk of the Mayor.

Mr. Wetherlle (U.) presented an ordinance authorizing the papment of certain warrants issued by the Board of Health. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

The resolution from Common Council granting to Mi. W. Baldwin & Co. the right to lay a track for their own use on Broad street, from Hamilton to Willow, fronting their premises, was concurred in. A motion was then made to ingrease the League Island Committee from five to eight, which, after a journed.

COMMON BRANCH. WILL ARRIVE.—The 88th Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers is expected to arrive in this city shortly, from Culpeper, Va., where it is now stationed. They belong to the 1st Army Corps, and have participated in ten battles—commencing with Cedar Mountain and ending with Mine Run. They left the city 550 strong, and now number about 250 men. Nearly all of this number have re-enlisted. Lieutenant Colonel Wagner is the highest officer in the regiment, but was detached and ordered to command the post near Chelten Hill, where the colored recruits are sent to. The regiment is at present under the charge of Captain Steeples. A meeting of the friends of this regiment will be held in this city when the time of their arrival is positively known.

FRED'K A. VAN CLERE East FRED'K A. VAN CLEYE, Esq., chairman of the Exemption Committee of the Fourteenth ward, informs us that the committee will continue its sessions, at Spring Garden Hall, every evening this week, from 7 to 3 o'clock. Any person desirous of escaping the draft in this ward, by the payment of twenty dollars, had better call immediately. Several thousand dollars are yet wanted to effect this desirable result. MARINE DISASTER.—The brig John Barnard, Capt. Jamieson, from Cardenas via Turk's Island, loaded with sugar and salt, before reported ashore near Cape Henlopen, where she filled, has been taken off and towed up to this city by the steaming Maj. Brewerton, where she arrived yesterday morning. She will be immediately repaired. COMMON BRANCH.

More of the Policy Raid.

At the Central Station yesterday, eleven persons were arraigned on the charge of dealing in lottery policies. The action of the constituted authorities in thus attempting to break up the business of selling lottery policy and lottery tickets, will meet with the greatest commendation on the part of the public. The task is herculean, but it may be performed. It requires energy and legal asgacity, both of which are happly identified in the person of the present able District Attorney, William B. Mann. The defendants have in the person of the parties will be warmly contested, and the result will be looked forward to with more than usual interest. Of the eleven arraigned yesterday at the Central Station, six of them were discharged; the other five were held to bail to answer at court. We present below the evidence elicited, from which the reader may form a correct dica of the case.

Caspar Witman, the principal witness, was called to the stand. He selected from the eleven, five men whom he alleges have been, or are engaged in the policy business.

A. No, sir; lasked him if he had got through with his business,
"Well, sir," said Mr. Mann, "you spoke in a general sort of a way; you alluded to the business of policies, without mentioning the word?"
Yes, sir, something like that, I meant the policy
business when I asked him,"
"Well, never mind what you meant, we want facts," said fir. Cassidy.
"Now, sir," continued Mr. Cassidy, "when did Mr. Whithehal return a book?"
A. Within two years, can't say when.
Q. Did you see him with a book?
A. Yes, sir, a sheet of paper wrapped up.
Q. Do you know what was in it?
A. I saw Charley Catteral take and open it, and the book and money rolled out.
Q. Did you ever see him on any other occasion?
At this stage of the proceedings the prisoner arose,
and advancing, asked the privilege of propounding
a few questions.
Q. Sir, did you ever see me before?
A. Yes,
Q. Whereabouts?
A. In front of a tea atore, near Third and Chestnut streets.
Q. Did you ever see me engaged in the lottery or A. Hards of a top store, and interpretation of policy business?

A. Have seen a carrier bring to you—

Q. Did you ever see me sell a lottery-ticket or policy. the same month.
