SOLDIER FOUND DEAD -Coroner Taylor

GENERAL MEADE. - General Meade has so far recovered from his recent severe illness that he will receive his friends and the public at Inde-pendence Hall at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning. The City Councils recently tendered the use of the Hall to Gen. Meade for this purpose. The most am-ple police arrangements will be made by Chief Rug-gles to accommodate the people.

ARRIVAL OF SOLDIERS.—On Saturday and Sunday five regiments of infantry and three bat-teries of artillery, besides a number of scattering squads, from the Eastern and Middle States, passed through this city on their way to the seat of war. The majority of them were veterans, whose time of through had expired. Most of them were fed at the Union Volunteer Refreshment Saloon, and the rest at the Cooper-Shop Salooa. These patriotic institutions are worthy of the public support, and our etilizens should subscribe more liberally of their means for the maintenance of them. INHUMANITY.—A crowd of persons were attracted on Saturday to a market stall near Eighth and Spring Garden street. A gentleman passing by asked what was the reply of some boys. The gentleman, not satisfied with the reply, touched the object of attraction with his cane, and discovered it to be an infant. The descrict one was taken in charge by a lady resident of the neighborhood, who intends to raise it is possible.

The defendants were committed to answer at court. (Before Mr. Alderman Moore.) Till Robbed. A lad, giving the name of Long, was arraigned on Saturday, on the charge of robbing the money drawer of a liquor store in the vicinity of Eleventh and South streets. He was committed. [Before Mr. Alderman Devlin.] Alleged Picktrocket.

Alleged Pickspocket. A young fellow, calling himself A. Herring, was drawn into the meshes of the law on Friday night by a police officer, at the corner of Race and Twenty-third streets. The defendant stands charged with picking pockets. He was required to enter bail in the sum of $600 to answer.

LEGAL INTELLIGENOE. United States District Court-Judge Cad walader. The United States vs. The Island Belle. In this case an order was made that additional proof be of-lered on behalf of claimants, or that in default there-of the vessel and cargo be condenned. The Island Belle is a schooner captured by a vessel of our block-ading equadron, at Bull's Bay, off the coast of South Carolina, under the belief that she was attempting to violate the blockade by running into Charleston. Supreme Court - Before Woodward, C. J., and Agnew. The Southwark Railroad Company vs. The City of Philadelphia-In Equity. This was an application for a special injunction to restrain the respondents or their agents from removing the city railroad on Broad street. On behalf of complainants if was alleged that the railroad in question was established by virtue of a contract between the State and the city, whereby the latter bound themaelves to con-struct and perpetuate a railway on Broad street, be-tween Vine and Cedar, now South street, a fiter the first of Ogober then new South street, after the first of Ogober then new form antigeneous in the respondents of a contract. THE MONBY MARKET.

AT THE MERCHANTS' EXCHANCE, PHILADELPHIA. Ship Sullote, Small.

THE MONEY MARKET. PRILADELPHIA, FOR 6, 1864. The unfavorable news from Charleston, Newbern, East Tancesce and Virginia, had some effect on gold to day, which strengthened up to 185%, with a lively demand, closing at the same figure. Money continues to accumulate rapidly at the centres of business, and rates are cheapening. This, although favorable to speculation, is necessary to prevent mone-tary confusions and satastrophies. Government securities are firm, with an advancing tendency. The fact that a new popular loan is antici-pated, operaties unfavorably on the past loans, because many would prefer to wait and subscribe at par, to pay-ing 107 for their investment. Were it not for this, Government loans would scon take a much higher position.
