The following is from the Matron of the Union Home School for the Unidren of volunteers: School for the Unlidren of volunteers:

. HAVEMETER MARGON, FIFT-SEVERTH ST., BEVERTH ST., BEV OSE, August 2, 1863.

"Dr. Drake: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in the head, loss of appetite, and daily westing consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite increased; strength and health followed.
