RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE. NEW PASTOR OF THE NORTH PRESEYTERIAN CHURCH.—The call recently tendered to the Rev. Robert Taylor, of the Second Presbyterian Church, Germantown, from the North Presbyterian of this city, Sixth street, above Green, has been accepted, and we have good reason to congratulate the membors of the latter on their selection. Mr. T. possesses, in a high degree, the elements of a popular preacher ill be appreciated. This congregation it will be borne in mind, was long the charge of Dr. Janeway, and more recently of the Rev. L. H. Christian; it is thoroughly united in its aims and objects, has a ionrishing Sunday School, music of proverbial excellence, and all the other requisites of an attractive church. Mr. Taylor, we are informed, will enter upon this new scene of his labors to-morrow. His mitiation will, no doubt, be signalized by a large at-CERIST AND PILATE; OR, TRUTH AND THE CHRIST AND PILATE; OR, TRUTH AND THE SWORD—The following is the conclusion of the sixth sermon of the series on the Mediation of Christ, and the Inspiration of the Scriptures, deli-vered last Lord's Day afternoon, by Dr. T. H. Stock-100, paster of the Church of the New Testament, four parter of Eleventh and Wood streets:
"What is truth?" Ay, indeed, what is truth? Piate, probably, said this in scorn ; but how did Jesu pity him, and how should we pity all who are like m. There it is, the same old question: the Sword or the Truth-which is the mightier? There stoo the two chosen representatives of the two powers, side by side; the haughty Roman and the humble Naza-rene. There they stood, with the people before them. There they stood, with the world before them. There they stood, with the ages before them. There they stood, the Roman, methinks, with a princely lobe of spotless splendor, and a jewelled crown of cushioned gold; but the Nazarene, in mockery, with a wreath of thorns, and faded folds of east off pur-ple! There they stood; the Roman reflecting the glery of the loftiest and must illustrious throne on earth; but the Nazarene, with the shadow of the cross failing upon his pale face, and clasped hands, and naked feet! There they stood; and the people and the world, and the ages all scowled upon the Nazarene, and cried: "Away with him! away with him! crucify him!" And the same mm: cities and world, and eggs bowed low before the Roman, and roze again with the shout: "We have no king but Casar!" There they stood; and still the Nazarene had only this to say: "Every one that is of the Truth, heareth my voice;" and the Roman haply thought, even if too proud to declare it: "And every one that is of the Sword, heareth ine!" So, Jesus died on the cross, and Pilate surwived on the throne. At that moment it might have been raid: "The Romac, with the sword in his hand, helds and rules the world The whole Mediterranean is his, with all its coasts, from Mauritania, Numidia. Lybia, and Egypt, round about to Palestine, Syria, Asia Minor, Greece, Italy, Gaul, and Spain." At the same moment, it might have een said of the Nazarene, with only the truth on his tongue: "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man hath not where to lav his head !" And what now? Eighteen centuries have gone What is the result? Which is the stronger-Sword or the Truth! S, eak, Pilate! Speak, Jerusalem! Speak, Rome! Let the people speak et the world speak. Let the ages speak. What! s there no answer? Behold the face of Jesus! ike the sun, shining in its strength. And hark, the voice of Jeaus! samidar as the voice of man, but searching and subduing as the spirit of God: Did I not say—"And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me?" Did I not say: "All power is given unto me, in Heaven and in earth?" "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away!" And the graves of Kings, and the sepulchres of Empires thrill with the challenge, but cannot deny it. And the Church claps her hands, and responds, from earth to Heaven, and from Heaven to earth, Amen! And Heaven and earth themselves respond, Amen! Even so, O Lord our Lord! Let us perish: but only at the altar of Thy truth, and for the glory of Thy name-Thy e. O Thou in whom is our hope of renewal, for the everificating habitation of the saints; in whose hands the sword shall glisten no more, but on whose eyes, and minds, and hearts, the iruth, even Thy ruth, shall shine forever and ever! LECTURE BY THE REV. WM. CATHCART,-The Rev. Wm. Cathoart, paster of the Second Baptist Church of this city, is to deliver a lecture in his church, New Market street, on Tuesday evening, March 1st, on "What Europe feels, fears, and opes, in connection with the great American Rebellion." Mr. Cathcart has taken a deep and intelicent interest in this subject from the beginning of war, and what he has now to say will be worth hearing. The proceeds of the lecture will be for the benefit of the Sunday schools connected with his GANIZING A LETHERAN CITY MISSIONARY SO-CRETY.—At a meeting recently held in St. John's (Lutheran) Church, Race street, for the purpose of Organizing a Lutheran City Missionary Society, the Rev. E. W. Hutter, pastor of St. Matthew's Luthe-ran Church, New street, delivered a characteristic ran Church, New street, delivered a characteristic and forcible address, in which he embraced a number of interesting church statistics, which we will take the liberty of republishing in the following extract:

"The necessity for the organization of a society such as is here contemplated becomes fully apparent when we turn to the well-authenticated church statistics of our consolidated city. From these it appears that there were within its limits, in the year 1811, forty-four houses of worsnip. The number now is three hundred and forty. The Lutherans then had four churches; we now number fifteen. The German Reformed had two, since increased to eleven; the Episcopalians five, now sixty-six; the Presbyterians and, now seventy; the Baptists sax, now thirty-nine; the Roman Catholics four, now thirty; the Quakers four, now twelve. These results, it must be confessed are in no wise complimentary to us Lutherans; for, had we progressed in the same ratio with the Methodists, instead of fifteen houses of worship, we would have Stead of fifteen houses of worship, we would have zwenty-six; If with the Presbyterians, we would number fifty-two; if with the Episcopalians, thirty-nine; if with the Koman Catholies, thirty; if with the Bapists, twenty-six. On the basis asned, we are slightly behind the German Reformed. But, to our oredit be it spoken, we have run a little shead of the Quakers; for, while in 1811 we were even in the number of our houses of worship, they now have but twelve, whereas we, as stated, number fifteen, I could not command the statistics of church membership, but doubt not the general aspect is the same. It is a note worthy fact, that we have not a solitary preaching station in this city west of Broad street, although nearly half the resident population is there. We have no church, or mission of any kind, in West Philadelphia, none in Bridesburg, none in Richmond, one in Holmesburg; no English organization in Frankford, none in Manayunk. If we except the enterprising church of the Rev. Mr. Sheeleigh, in Passyunk, and the comparatively unknown Missouri Synod Church, on Carpenter street, we have no church in this city south of Arch street, though we have a Mission Sunday-school on Christian street, above Sixth. Some one has said: "Figures don't lie." In this case, without controversy, they convict us Luntherans, resident in this city, of a manifest want of the spirit of progress; and, however uncomplimentary the exhibit, it would be folly not to look it squarely in the face, make confession of our sins, and endeavor, by God's help, to 'do better hereafter.'" ad of fifteen houses of worship, we would have RECEPTION OF A FASTOR.—A needing was sent in the Chapel, at Eleventh and Wood streets, on Monky night last, for the public reception of Rev. lexander Clark as junior paster of the Church of se New Testament. Appropriate addresses were elivered by Rev. Dr. Krauth and Dr. Cornell; a satement was made by Lieux. Pittenger, one of Mr. layers are received triends; and the concluding exercises. statement was made by Lieut. Pittenger, one of Mr. Clark's special friends; and the concluding exercises were conducted by Rev. Mr. Porter, of Phænixville, and the newly-received pastor, after which there was a pleasant congregational greeting. Mr. Clark is to preach to morrow (Sunday) morning, at 10% o'clock, on the subject of "Mores Crossing the Red Sea," In the afternoon, at 3% o'clock, Dr. Stockton is to continue his series on the "Mediation of Christ," the seventh sermon being then in course. Special topics: "Exceptions to the Rule of Non-identification," and then, as the principal part of the sermon, "The Reminiscences of Christ, illustrating His Pre-existence." INTENDED RESIGNATION OF REV. S. S. SCHMUCK-ER, D. D.—The President of the Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg has for-mally announced the intended resignation of the Rev. S. S. Schmucker, D. D., from the Professor-ship of Didactic Theology in that institution. The following is Dr. Schmucker's letter of notification: Rev F W. Conrad, President Board of Theological Seminany:

DHAR BROTHER IN CHRIST: After nearly fortyfour years spent in the active duties of the ministerial office, thirty-eight of which were in connection with the Theological Seminary. I have resolved, after long and prayerful deliberation, to resign my profeasorable at the next meeting of the Board, in August. For that purpose, I now give you the constitutional notice of six months in advance. Whilst I reserve to a future communication to the Board such remarks as I may feel desirous of making, I will, in general, state that my chief reasons for this step are increasing infimities of age, and a desire to devote the remaining years of my life more particularly to literary labors, for the cause of God and religion. sentiments of the warmest fraternal regard, I remain yours in Christ, S. S. SCHMUCKER. THE "ESSAYS AND REVIEW" CASES.—The Lord Chancellor of England pronounced judgment, on the 3th inst., in the case of appeal by the Rev. Dr. R. Williams and the Rev. H. R. Wilson, two of the writers of "Essays and Reviews," who had been entenced to a year's suspension. These sentences yere reversed, and costs were allowed for the pre-ent appeal. On the effect or aim of the two essays é Lord Chancellor said it was not necessary press an opinion. THE BOARD OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS, 19TH
SECTION.—It seems that for some two months past a difficulty has existed between the majority and minority members of this Board, which consists of two Union members and ten Opposition. The difficulty originated in the following manuer: At the last meeting of the old Board, held in December, 1883, the resignation of a Union member, who had sone into the army, was accepted, whereupon it was moved and seconded that the Board proceed to nominate and elect some person to fill the vacancy forthwith; but one high-minded member protested against electing the same evening, citing a rule in the by-laws which requires the nomination to lay over for one month. But, as this did not sut the purpose of the majority, the president declared the rule auspended without a vote, when the favoritie of the Opposition majority was declared by acclamation. Three of the Opposition members took exception to this prodeeding, and accordingly entered their protest at the next meeting of the Board against the member who had been proclaimed elected at the former meeting. It was at this meeting (the first in the new year) that the two Union members came into office, having been elected by the people last fall. One of these is a member of the Society of Friends, or Quakers, and the other a well known local preacher in the M. E. Church. These two, as might be expected, could not coincide with the radical views and erroneous action of the Opposition mejority, by which they declared a very unpopular man elected in an Illegal manner, and consequently they joined in the debate against the majority. Our local-preacher member, being in the habit of saying things picty plainly, seems to have touched some of the majority in a tender place, whereupon he encountered a tirade of personal abuses and vindictives from the opposite side. Finally, our preacher becoming fully disgusted with the proceedings, under the socitemon of the moment offered his resignation, which have a said on th WHITE UNION REFUGEES AT THE SOUTHWEST.—Rev. E. Folsom, hospital chaplsin at Cairo, Ill., travelling under special order of General Reid, commanding that post, for the purpose of raising money and clothing for the relief of suffering thousands of white Union refugees being brought by military authority to Cairo, from Tennessee, Arkansas, Mississippi, and Louisiana, in large numbers, almost daily, nearly all of them in a state of entire destitution, having been robbed of all means of support by the barbarity of rebel soldiers or guerilla bands, and often the husbands and fathers murdered in the presence of the wives and children, and their houses burned. These families are compelled to fee to the lines of the Union army for protection from such terrible destitution and suffering.

Mr. Folsom is now in this city on this humane in the control of the surface of the union army for protection from such terrible destitution and suffering.

Mr. Folsom is now in this city on this humane in the control of the surface of the lines of the Union army for protection from such terrible destitution and suffering.

Mr. Folsom is now in this city on this humane in the control of the surface of the lines of the Union army for protection, and will not those in our quiet and prosperous community who have abut dence be touched by the cry and want that is brought to us from these homelesa, exiles? They are hungry and poor, and shelterless, and say find work to earn their bread.

These poor wanderers are received with open arms to the care and protection of the Federal armies, and are transported at the Government terminate to look to, must be carried to such localities as will give them shelter and work, that they may support themselves until the war is over, and they permitted to return to their homes. Money is used solely to meet expenses of transportation—the reilroads take them at half fare. Government turnishes temporary shelter and food, while they are compelled to remain at Oairo. Hundreds of families arrive without a single WHITE UNION REFUGEES AT THE SOUTHren. Over $8,000 of the above amount was contri-outed during Mr. Folsom's stay in the city of New ren. Over 5,000 of the above amount was contributed during Mr. Folsom's stay in the city of New York.

The estimate of Gen. Reid, recently communicated by letter to Mr. F., of the probable wants, required him to raise, if possible, the alditional amount of at least $6,000, for immediate use, before he is allowed to return to his duties as chaplain in the post hospital at Cairo.

Money and clothing may be sent to H. N. Thissell, American Tract Society rooms, 329 Chestnut street. Clothing for women and children mainly needed. From latest advices, refugees are arriving at Cairo in largely increasing numbers—recently over 400 on one transport and 250 on another—not a boat arriving from below on the Mississippi river that has not more or less of these destitute refugees.

Miss. Smith and Mis. Safford, the wives of the president and cashier of the City Bank of Cairo, have devoted a portion of their residences, and are giving their personal attention, to receiving clothing and distributing the same.

The treasurer has already received a generous response to circulars sent out, as will be seen by acknowledgments in another column. COLORED PERSONS AND THE PASSENGER COLORED PERSONS AND THE PASSENGER RAILROAD CARS.—A mass meeting of colored persons was held on Thursday evening, to take into consideration their exclusion from the use of the cars on the passenger railroads in this city. Wm. S. Catts, James Hamilton, and John Oliver were appointed a committee on resolutions, who reported the following:

Whereas, The disabilities which we, ascolored Americans, labor under in this city of Philadelphia. by being deprived of the free use of the city passonger railway street cars, demand from us an expression of our views and thoughts upon this outrage towards us; therefore, bett and thoughts upon this outrage towards us; therefore, be it

Resolved. That we regard our exclusion from the cars by those whose prerogative it is to admit all sober and respectable persons to share allike a seat within the cars, as not only lacking the spirit of true manhood and a disposition to facilitate and accommodate impartially the travelling public. But also pandering to the uninst prejudices of such people as are led by false pride, founded in ignorance, as to demand the exclusion of colored persons from the city cars.

Whereas, We have respectfully appealed to the presidents of the various companies comprising the city lines to adopt some measure or mode by which colored persons should have access within the cars as other travellers; and, whereas, up to this late period we have received no notice whatever that our petitions and appeals have been considered by said corporations; be it, therefore. caived no notice whatever that our petitions and appeals have been considered by said corporations; be it, therefore, Rev Olved. That we will continue to protest against our exclusion from the street care, and will use every effort within our power to have every obstruction or restriction removed from our enjoying the same privileges as other passenger.

Revolved. That, as tax-payers owning property in the city and county of Philadelphia, paying our just proportion of taxes as other persons, for public improvements, to the amount of thousands of dollars annually some of us owning stock in these street lines, convinces us, and should all right-minded persons, that our exclusion from the care is unjust, illegar, and a glaring outrage against right, justice, and law Whereas. The street-passenger railway car companies obtain their charters from the Legislature of Pennsylvanies of the public, they have no legal right to exclude any person who may, in a respectful manner, ask a passage on the care: Therefore, be it Resolved. That the colored people of Philadelphia do petition the Legislature of Fennsylvania that "they provide by law the right of all respectable colored persons the free use of every city passenger railway car, and, by law, provide against their ejection or exclusion from equal enjoyment of all railroad privileges in the city and county of Philadelphia.

Resolved. That we hall with pleasure and gratitude the report from Washington, D. C. of the resolution of Senator Summer, and sustained by Senators, representatives, editors, and civilians, protesting against them from the cars.

The above resolutions were unanimously adopted, after which the meeting adjourned.

COOL IMPUDENCE.—In consequence of the State of Delaware not giving a bounty to colored men callsting there, a number of slaves have GOOL IMFUDENCE.—In consequence of more than ordinary interest. The managers have favored us with a programme of exercises in advance, from which we are safe in promising a real treat to all who attend them. The singing and recitations will be a prominent feature, and the addresses promised by Rev. Dr. Maleom and Rene Guilloup. Eaq., will be worth hearing. Let all attend who can.

Sentence of Bishof Colenso.—We find in the Observer the following account of the trial and sentences.

In our English papers we have full reports of the trial of Bishop Colenso, at Capetown, by the Bishops of Colenso, at Capetown, by the Bishops of Colenso, at Capetown, by the Bishops of Colenso, at Capetown as Metropolitan. The presenting clergy accused Bishop Colenso of heresy on lane counts, as follows:

1. His disbeller in the Atonement;
2. His belief in Justification without any knowledge of Christ;
3. His belief in Install regeneration;
4. His disbeller in the endlessness of future punishments;
5. His denial that the Holy Scriptures are the control of the award of contracts at the office of the Atonement;

COOL IMFUDENCE.—In consequence of the ching is certain, and that is, the state of Delaware not giving a bounty to colorate value to this city, where the state of belaware not giving a bounty to colorate value to this city, where the state of belaware not giving a bounty to colorate the color of values have become in the count of money given to give the first masters amount of money given to give the first masters amount of money given to give the countril the action of any man remet to the countrily be permitted by violence, or feat of violence to this city, where they could enlist on the starts have the product of mone given to more given to a portion of their state they and carefully, and in order that his interest that they have become income the countril the action of any man remet to more given to a portion of their state they are entitled to a portion of the supervisory Committee, where they did not meet with the state of THE AWARD OF CONTRACTS.—The further publication of the award of contracts at the office of the Army Clothing and Equipage Office in this city, has been stopped, in deference, less we were told by an officer of the Government, to the request of the contractors. The successful applicants for contracts have alleged, as a reason for the non-publication of their names, that they are run down by ward bounty fund committees and collectors for patriotic and charitable objects generally, who presume, and very naturally, too, that men who make so largely out of their sales to the Government could easily afford to give material aid to the filling up of our armies, and the comfortable maintenance of our sick and wounded soldiers. In other cities, contracts are regularly published, and the information thus given goes far to establish the market prices of the articles contracted for. It is to be regretted that in Philadelphia it has been found convenient to yield to the wishes of the contractors in this important particular. Robbery and Attempted Murder.

A man named Charles Sims was arraigned yesterday on the charge of committing an assault and battery with intent to kill, and robbing Henry Bunks. The facts of the case, developed at the hearing, are: that Mr. Bunks is a recruiting officer of the United States, and has his headquarters located in the vicinity of Chestnut and Eleventh streets. On Thursday the defendant stopped at the headquarters, and remaining there some time, apparently having nothing to do, he was asked if he desired to enlist. He replied that if he could only obtain the consent of his wife, that he would have no objection to entering the service. Mr. Bunks and another attache of the recruiting office, named Collins, then proceeded with Sims to his residence, on St. Mary street, between Sixth and Seventh.

At this place Collins had a private interview with Mrs. Sims, and while endeavoring to get her consent to having her husband enlisted, Sims and Bunks ments;
5. His denial that the Holy Scriptures are the word of God;
6. His denial of the inspiration of the Holy Scriptures. 7. His cenial that the Bible is a true history of the 7. His cenial that the Bible is a true history of the facts which it professes to describe;
8. His denial of the divinity of our Blessed Lord;
9. His depraving, impugning, and bringing into dispute the Book of Common Prayer.
The trial was concluded on the 16th of December. The suffragan bishops found him gullty on all the nine charges. The Metropolitan agreed in that opinion, and sentenced Bishop Colema to be deprived of his see, and all his rights of office therein. The defendant not being present to hear the judgment pronounced against him, the Metropolitan gave him until the 4th of March next to file in London a full, unconditional, and absolute retractation, in writing, of all the heretical extracts referred to in the counts, COMMENCEMENT OF THE DENTAL COLLEGE.—Last evening the commencement of the Dental College was held at the Musical Fund Hall. Dr. C. N. Pierce presided. Dr. Furness introduced the exercises with prayer. The list of graduates was read as follows: R. H. Shoemaker, Pennsylvania; Alexander O'Uallaghan, Cuba; George J. Underwood, New York; Edwin C. Baxter, Maine; Abram S. Reber, Pennsylvania; Henry Cowle, Michigan; Frederico Comas, Cuba: Manuel Trujillo, Cuba; W. T. Shannon, New Jersey; J. G. Camp, Pennsylvania; J. W. Vanosten, Pennsylvania; G. W. Dr. Bleek, on behalf of the Bishop, protested against the proceedings and the validity of the judgment, and gave notice of appeal. proceedings and the validity of the judgment, and gave notice of appeal.

SOURTY FOR THE PROTECTION OF DESTITUTE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHILDREN IN NEW YORK—At all the Catholic churches in New York, on Sunday, the 14th, a circular from the Very Rev. William Starrs, Administrator of the Diocese, was read, calling upon the pasions to make a collection, Sunday, glat., for the benefit of the Society for the Protection of Destitute Roman Catholic Children. This association was incolporated about a year ago, and suitable buildings were hired for the purpose of carrying out the objects of the act. The management of three institutions was entrusted to the Christian Brothers and Staters of Mercy, who have been most successful in their labors up to the present time. About three hundred and fifty children have been cared for, instructed, and saved from a life of infamy by means of these institutions.

WE FIND IN A NEWARK (N. J.) paper a notice of the celebration of Washington's birth-day, which reads: In the evening there will be a patriotic address by Rev. A. A. Willets, in the First Baptist Church, and the annual ball of Company A, tat Regiment National Guard." The reader will perceive a somewhat uppleasant ambiguity in the wording of the sentence.

The specialty of dentistry can never be placed in the position where it belongs unless the practitioners are men of high-toned honor and integrity. They must obtain its position and retain it. Patience and perseverance are necessary to the true dentist. He must wait until his work is appreciated, and then society will award him the position his merit entitles him to fill. Then an artist dentist must love his profession. The artist loves the imagery which his fingers trace in response to the promptings of his imagination; and so a dentist must love his work. When he has a case of diseased dental organism presented to him, he first removes the dead parts, and probeeds carefully to replace those dead parts, and probeeds carefully to replace the dead parts are positions.

As the age edvances the demands upon the dental profession also advance. The times are favorable for the preferment of truth and manhood, and while everything bears the mark of the age, of progress, and of action, the dental surgeons cannot be excepted, but must advance with the spirit of the age. The profession can contribute to the progress of science by teaching the principles of their specialty as well as practicing it. The American people value natural teeth and appreciate the benefits of dentistry. But, with all this, we are not what we should be. We are careless concening our feeth, and ignorant, to a great degree, of the proper rules for preserving their healthful condition. Physicians, in their practice, continually meet diseases invited by disorders of the dental organism. We all are addicted to the national vice of eating too rapidly. Instead of mastitating our food we "oolt" it, and by living falsely, predispose curselv The specialty of dentistry can never be placed in FEBRUARY 26, 1863.

On behalf of my colleguus and myself, I bid you God speed and an affectionate farewell. PUNISHED FOR SMUGGLING WHISKY .-PUNISHED FOR SMUGGLING WHISKY.—
On Thursdey last, a citizen was caught smuggling whisky to the colored soldiers stationed at Camp William Penn. This mode of doing business is directly the reverse of military rules; he was accordingly put under arrest by Colonel Wagner, commander of that post, who punished him in the following manner: One end of a barrel was knocked out, and a hole made in the other sufficiently large to admit the culprit's head. It was labelled, "I smuggled whisky into camp." This new style of surfout was placed on him, and he was compelled to march up and down the camp all day long, exposed to the sight and jeers of the soldiers and visitors. Let this be a warning to others, as Colonel Wagner, who is a sirict military man, will inflict a punishment worse than the above on the next individual ment worse than the above on the next individual caught in a similar act. ACCIDENTAL. -The dummy ACCIDENTAL.—The dummy engine that was pretty well smashed by the collision, as mentioned yesterday, belonged to the Fifth and Sixthstreet, and not to the Second and Third-street Railroad Company. The affair, we have since learned, cannot be attributed to any want of proper care on the part of the attaches of the North Pennsylvania Railroad, because the dummy engine ran into the locomotive. Since the deplorable accident that happened on the Second and Third-streetroad, by which one poor woman lost an arm, and several others were more or less injured, the greatest care has been taken by all persons having charge of locomotives and trains on the North Pennsylvania track. There is no better conducted road in the State than the North Pennsylvania. RECRUITING OF COLORED MEN.—Seven-ty-one colored men were recruited by the Supervisory Committee on Thursday, and a sufficient number yesterday to fill the lith company of the 321 Regi-ment. It is expected that this regiment will be com-pleted before two weeks are passed. If such is the case, it will be formed in less time than any previous one. MEETING OF SOLDIERS.—The convalesent soldiers attached to the Citizens' Volunteer Hospital, Broad and Prime streets, will hold a meeting this evening, in the main room. Speacha will be made and resolutions passed endorsing Abra-ham Lincoln as a candidate for the next Presidential SYMPATHY FOR SCHLESWIG HOLSTEIN.— The Germans of this city are making arrangements for holding agrand mass meeting to express sympa-thy in behalf of Schleswig-Holstein in its war against Denmark. The meeting will be held at Me-phanics, Hall next week. DEATH OF A SOLDIER.—The following death was reported at the Medical Director's office, yesterday, from the Islington-lane Hospital—Wm, H. Ramey, Company H, 5th Regiment Pennsylvania Cavalry. BURNED TO DEATH,—A colored woman named Ann Spencer, aged sixty-eight years, residing at 245 Quince afreet, below Walnut, was burned to leath between twelve and one o'clock yesterday norning. FALL OF A HOUSE.—Yesterday afternoon a brick dwelling, at the corner of Broad and Oxford streets, was blown down by the wind. It was unoccupied, and not yet completed. The building is an entire wreek. THE COURTS. Supreme Court—Before Justices Thompson Strong, Read, and Agnew. PHILADELPHIA LIST.

Court of Quarter Sessions—Judge Ludlow.

Commonwealth vs. Wm. A. McEwen and Michael F. Costello. The defendants were charged with having committed an assault and battery on John R. Eeke. The affair occurred about two months ago in Flith street near Chestnut, and was—caused, as was alleged, by feeling growing out of a "strike" by the printers, etc., of the Age newspaper office, both defendants having been employees there, and members of the Typographical Union. The prosecutor was one of the men who accepted employment in the place of those who had struck. He testified that on a night soon after, when he had finished his work, and had left the office to go home, he was assaulted in Fifth street by McEwen, whom he positively identified, and he believed by Costello also, though of the latter he was not so sure, and beaten. There were several men in the party thus assailing him, but only these two struck him.

For the defence, one witness, Mr. Devine, testified that on the night in question McEwen and himself were standing and conversing at the corner of Fifth and Obeatnut, when they heard a scuffie down Fifth, near Library street. The two walked in that direction, and he saw four or five men atriking another who broke away and ran up Fifth street. Before reaching Chestnut the man, whom he then recognized as Ecke, was met by another, whom witness did not know, and received a blow from him. The witness stated that during the whole of this time he and McEwen were together, and that the latter could not have committed to the jury under the instructions of the court as to the law, leaving them to judge of the facts. Jatter a few minutes' deliburation they came in with a verdict of guitty.

Judge Ludlowasid he had scarcely determined what disposition to make of the case. He was in doubt whether, in a case like this, imprisonment should not be imposed. One thing is certain, and that is, that no society, or combination of men, can I this commun efendant. This case finished the list, and the court adjourned or the term.

The alarm of the outrage was given; the whole neighborhood was stouced; the people rushed into the house of Sims. The first and most intelligent of them was a respectable colored man named Oharles Brown, who testified that when he entered he found the recruiting efficer insensible and lying on the floor, his head in a pool of blood.
