Mr. Peiroe called attention to the flithy condition of the barracks at Twentieth and Hamilton streets. It is represented that over 1,000 men are kept in this place where there is not room for 300, that the floor is flithy with accumulated dirt in which the men are compelled to lie down and sleep; that on account of this state of affairs a mutiny arose last Sunday night, which was only quelled by force of arms. Such a state of affairs was discreditable to the odincers in command at the barracks.

On motion of Mr. Peirce, a committee was appointed to investigate the state of affairs at the barracks at Twentieth and Hamilton streets, and to report to the military commandant at this point. Messes, Peirce, Struthers, Valentine, Thompson, and Riley. Adjourned.

THE CITY TREASURY.—The clerks in the office of the City Treasurer are having a rush of business such as they have not experienced for many months. The paying out of matured loans, and the warrants of volunteers who receive the city bounty, occupy the whole force, requiring their unseasing attention. Yesterday there was no little difficulty experienced in the scarcity of small currency, and at times the business came to a dead halt. A requisition was made on the Mint for a surply, and there was a much given as sould be spared. When it is remembered that the office pays out about one hundred thousand dollars per day in notes of the smaller denominations, it will be easily seen how difficult it is to keep a full supply of the small notes on hand. This temporary embarrassment was seized upon by professional sharpers, who hang about the soldier's skirts to watch every opportunity of relieving him of his funds, and was turned to good account. Rather than wait an hour or two, the soldiers sold their warrants to the speculators at a shave of twenty or thirty dollars. The prudent volunteer should shun these leveless, and rather bear, for a short while, whatever inconveniences may attend the payment of his bounty, than greedly accept the terms which his professed friends submit to him. Since the commencement of the year, the city treasury has paid out in soldiers' warrants over $2,500,000.

On motion of Sheriff Thompson, it was agreed that at the next meeting a statement in writing be handed in by the different delegates from each ward of the state of recruiting in their respective wards.

Professor Saunders offered the following resolution, which was adopted: That a committee of five be appointed to devise means to pay to veterans regulated in the field, and accredited to the city at large, a bounty at least as large as the present ward bounty. The committee appointed consists of Professor Saunders, Chairman, and Messrs. Tatham, Wm. D Lewis, C. B. Andress, and J. W. Frazer.

Mr. Tatham effered a resolution that the practice of paying more than $25 to recruiting offisers by the different wards is injurious and wrong, and should be stopped.
