Scene of Excitement among the Detectives. A rich scene in the life of a detective occurred resterday afternoon, in the gallery room, at the Central Station. Mr. Lamon came in hashin, and inquired for Sam Henderson. Excitement was pio-tured in the facial expression of the detective. Where's Callanan, Smith, Taggart, Carlin 1 "What's the matter" said Unief Franklin, com-ing from his studio. "A big thief gone away from the First National Bark with a million dollars in gold." "That can't be," replied the Cnief; "the base of operations of that back is in United States stock." Struct the Board of Brokers are orazy," replied Lamon.

At this moment in rushed Bartholomaw, followed Lamon. At this moment in rushed Bartholomaw, followed by Alderman Beitler and Fire Marshal Blackburn, and a corps of "ye knights of the goose quill." His Honor Mayor Henry Also came in, as is usual with him, about two o'elock every day, but his at-tention was not attracted by the excitement. Pro-sently the familiar face of Ohief Ruzgles was seen in the erowd of spectators, as he was eloowing his way through to the detective? room. Mr. Blackburn advised with Chief Franklin. The official excitement increased. "Go to the dépote," said the obief, "ateamboat landings, telegraph to all points guard the to adways a roward of one hundred houtag used the to adways. a roward of one hundred the thicf." At this moment the detectives started off ar quick as Meditation on the wings of thought. Devery place was earefully guarded. Everybody carrying a box or keg, or bundie was run into the way do goored, fairly galvanized the entief force; very one of Chief Ruzgles' men wanted to be a de-tective. The the midt of all this, Mr. Ruzgles maintained terive. In the midst of all this, Mr. Ruggles maintained the philosophy for which he is so justly celebrated. The Mayor himself, having attended to some little huminess of a pressing character, conferred with the Ohief, and with him essue to the conclusion that the Chief, and with him came to the conclusion that the whole affair was a hoax. Now, in all this confusion, there was still a de-tective asleep on a sofa, beneath the photographs of rebel traifors and horse thieves. Presently he started up, grasped convulsively at the firs-proof safe, rubbed his eres, and recognizing a number of his brother efficers, and two or three police offlasrs, exclaimed that he had been dreaming. He then related the story, of which the above is a hasty sketch.

COMMITTEE ABOUT TO DEPART FOR EAST TENNESSEE.—At a meeting of the Escentive Com-mittee of the Philadelphia Relief Association for East Tennessee, held last Monday, a sub committee was appointed, consisting of Fred. Collins, Eco., Col. N. G. Taylor, of East Tennessee, and Lloyd P. Smith, Esq., to proceed thither, in order to ar-range plans for the purchase and transfer of sup-plies. The committee leave here to-morrow. The War Department, and Governor Johnson, of Ten-nessee, promise to grant them every facility. Col. Taylor's mission there, with Col. Peyton, of Had-donfield, has been successful. Philadelphis has been the prime mover in this affair, although neither Boston nor New York have refused co operation.

THE MARKET HOUSES.—The following appointments of clerks of market houses have just been made: South Second street, Mahlon Webster; Wharton and Shippen, George Schaffer; South Eleventh street, Malcom Martin; North Second street, Wm. Weyant; Franklin and Farmers, Thomas Lawis; Girard avenue, west of Sixth street, Geo. W. Metz-ger; Girard avenue, from Sixth street, Geo. W. Metz-ger; Girard avenue, from Sixth street to Frankford road, Lewis M. Green; from Frankford road to Crown street, Richmond, and York avenue mar-kets, Wm. Esger; Eastern Market, Richard Blaney; Frankford Market, A. S. Stokes.

ADDITIONAL APPOINTMENTS .- The fol-ADDITIONAL APPOINTMENTS.—The fol-lowing additional appointments have been made in the Water Department of the city: Permit Clerks -Jesse Christopher, N. H. Purdy, A. C. Pelter, G. Newkirk, George Esher. Purveyors-E. B. Colb, George W. Shultz, Henry Johnson and William Junboro. Inspectors-J. Wyrser, H. McConnell, James Seddons, and William James. Engineers-A. Alexander, Twenty-fourth-ward works, and Wil-liam Osbourn, Fairmount. Messenger-W. W. Jambert.

DRATH OF A WELL-KNOWN CITIZEN.-We feel pained to record the death of Wm. B. Hart, Eaq., which took place on Tuesday evening, after a lingering illness, at his residence, No. 1717 Walnut atreet, in the 522 year of his age. Mr. Hart, through life was governed by the purest sense of honor; he never lost a friend nor made an enemy; he was a perfect model of the upright gentieman, the good citizen, husband; father, friend. Many deeply feel his loss.

FROM FOREIGN PORTS.—The following vessels arrived off the city yesterday from foreign ports: Batk Thos. Dallett, from Porto Cabello, with 2,268 bags of coffee, 119 bales cotton, and 1,108 hides. The ship Moro Castle, from Leghorn, with 370 bales rags, 650 packages and 10 jars of oil, 200 boxes castle soap, 104 blocks mable, and 129 packages fine arts. The brig Prince Alfred, from Turks Island, with 6,650 bushels of sait.

Turks Island, with 6,650 bushels of sail. THE WARD BOUNTIES.—The delegates from the several wards, on the subject of bounties, will meet at the Board of Trade room on next Tues-day evening. They are requested to respond to several questions, which will be found in the official proceedings published in another column of to day's Press. As this subject is of deep interest to the peo-ple, we are requested to invite the attention of the ward committees, which its importance demands.

BOHEMIAN MINING COMPANY .- A meeting of the stockholders of the Bohemian Mining Company will be held at 332 Walnut street, this (Thursday) morning, at 11 o'clock, when the super-intendent of the mine, W. E. Dickinson, Esq. who is now in this city, is expected to give an account of the present condition of the mine, its future pros-pects, &c.

THE CITY BOUNTY.—The payment of the bounty of $250 to each resrnit who is mustered into the United States service still continues regularly. An effort was made yesterday in the vicinity of re-cruiting offices to create an impression that it had been stopped. The soldiers should disregard the gratuitous counsel of would-be friends.
