THE COURTS.

Court of Quarter Sessions-Judge Ludlow. In this court yesterday but little of interest was done. Adam Lobenstein was tried upon a charge of inciting to riot at the polls of the Third precinct. Twenty-fifth ward, at the last fail election. The evidence of the police officer making the arrest, only showed that the defendant only objected to the pre-sence of the officer inside the voting-room while the election was going on, and that he was noisy out-side. The District Attorney abandoned the case, and the jury rendered a verdict of acquittal. The Commonwealth vs. Joseph Brooks. The de-fendant is indicted for courterfeiting the trade-mark used by a manufacturer of "Barlow's indigo blue." The prodecutor is Aaron Priest. The case is on trial.
