New Jersey Annual Conference of the M. E. Church. wried for The Press] FIFTH DAY.

FIFTH DAY. FIFTH DAY. BRIDGETON, MARCH 7, 1864. For many years it has been customary to hold a temperance meeting on Saturday evening, at the sension of the Conference. The Mddrössed by mem-day evening last was held in Groscup's Hall, which was filled to overifowing. It was addressed by Revs. G. R. Snyder, R. V. Lawrence, J. F. Morell, and S. Parker. The good cause of temperance was ably advocated by these reverend gentlemen, and many went away not only with their convictions despended, but their purposes renewed to wage war against the giant evil of intemperance. The Sabath services were extremely interesting and ben ficial. At 8% o'clock a meeting rose very high. At 10% o'clock in the Commercestreet Church, SPORTING MATCH ENDINGIN A DISGRACK. FUL ROW.-The long-silked-of pigeon-shooting-match between John Taylor, of New York, and the Jersey Boy, of Philadelphis, commenced at the Suf-fork Park, in the southern part of the Twenty-fourth ward, yesterday fernoon, but the whole sffair ended in a disgraceful row. From a gentie-man who was prerent we learn that several hundred persons were present, many of them being deeply interested in the sport. The judges were all appointed and properly stationed, and the exciting game commenced. The shooting was exciting game commoned. The shooting was exciting game confounded "increased every moment. It was not long before the parties as-not expected. The contending parties were not in-terfered with ; but the struggle did not last long. The result was that about one hundred men had their eyes clothed in the habiliments of deep mourn-ing ; their faces lacerated; their nasal protube-races flattened and philebotomized; their heads awelide and their ribs punched. During the mutual puncelling of devoted sconces, two pistol shots aweled and their ribs punched. During the mutual puncelling of devoted sconces, two pistol shots aweled and their stow stranged for one hundred bite, the amount of money and ifty birds, and the time Measts. William Carson and John Taylor, for the same smount of money and fity birds, and the time fixed was this afternoon.

ARRIVAL OF THE 69TH REGIMENT P. V. ABRIVAL OF THE 69TH REGIMENT P. V. —The 69th Regiment P. V. Colorel Davis command-ing, arrived at the dépôt, Broad and Prime streets, about ten o'clock yesterday morning, from Braady Station. There were nearly two hundred in the re-giment, all of whom have re-enlisted for the war, and received a furlough for an indefinite period of time. They were met at the dépôt by a committee of Councils and the Henry Guards, Captain Spear, accompanied by the Liberty Cornet Band. The line was formed on Washington avenue, and then pa-raded to the Volunteer Refreshment Saloons, where a collation was set out for them, which they heardly indulged in. When this was over the line was again formed, and they marched over the following route: Up to Third street, up Third to Vine, up Vine to Sixth, down Sixth to Chestnut, down Otheat-mut to Fifth, down Fifth to Walnut, where they were dismissed. Mayor Henry reviewed them from fifth and Chestrut strets. They carried with them the regmental flags, which bors the marks of many a hard-fought battle.

had become possessed of the right to use the particu-lar trade-mark in controvery. After very full and explicit instructions by Judge Ludlow as to the law of "trade-marks" and the rights of those inventing them, the case was given to the jury, who had not rendered a verdict when the court adjourned. John Brown, a very old man, until recently em-ployed in the "gunner's department," at the navy pard, was convicted of the larceny of nine compo-sition gun tackle blocks, which he pawned at a junk shop. Brown sated that he had been in the naval service for more than forty four years. Sentence deferred. Adjourned. SPORTING MATCH ENDING IN A DISORACE.
