- The Lancaster Examiner says: "We under stand that when the committee appointed by the and that when the committee appointed by the izens of Lancaster township to collect funds for a local bounty, waited upon ex-President Buchanan, they were received very coolly and cavalierly. The 'old public functionary,' when asked to subscribe, said he did not think it right to raise volunteers in hat way ; that it was the duty of every young man that way; that it was the duty of every young man to serve his country, and he should volunteer his ser-vices; that when he was a young man he did so, and maighed to Baltimore; but that he would hold the atter under advisement, and the committee could neal again. The committee (his own immediate neighbors) left with extreme disgust at this unpatri-otic and miserly dodge of the old iraitor."

- The Boston Post says : "Henry T. Tuskerman - the Boston rost says: "Henry T. Trouterman has in press a volume upon a subject calculated to interest most people now-a-days, viz. : the ignorance shown by English writers about America, and the errors committed by the cockneys who have cantered over our country, and then set themselves to describe what they only partially saw, and to philosophize upon what they most imperfectly understood. The book will be a paintaking collation of the various foreign publications respecting the people and in stitutions of the United States, and has cost conte time and research."

- The rebel General, Prince Camille-Armand Jules de Polignac, recently reported to have left New York for Europe, is the third son of the famous And fatal minister of Charles X, by his second mar-riage with a daughter of the English Lord Ranchiffe. He is still a very young man, having been born in 1999 and is an accompliance and acting the second mar-1832, and is an accomplished and adventurous personage. There will be a barber attached to his band, and to his skillful hands every prisoner taken, who is high-er in rank than a sergeant, will be delivered, and will be shorn of moustaches, whiskers, and hair, un til his head is shaven as bare as an egg. — Mr. Wynfield, an English photographer, is said to excel all his compers in his att. He does not require immobility in the sitter, but differts him to move alightly, so that "all the lines and boundaries of his form shall be modified and softened. The ugly features of a photographic likeness are by simple modifications entirely removed."

- A letter from Rome, dated January 16th, says: "On Monday last there was the annual Academia Poligiotta, of the students of the Propaganda, and the youths who carried off the paim were two negroes, rejoicing in the name of William Samba and John Provost. Their delivery and action were wonderful, and called forth thunders of applause even in a church."

The Philadelphia Annual Conference.... Seventy-seventh Session ial Correspondence of The Press. ) FIFTH DAY, WILMINGTON, March 14, 1864, Conference opened at 8% o'clock this morning

Onference opened at 3% o'clock this morning, pursuant to adjournment. Bishop Amesi in the chair. Rev. J. D. Curtis conducted the preliminary reli-gious exercises. The journal of Saturday's proceed-ings was then read and approved. The presiding elders had their characters com-mented on by several of the ministers of their re-spective districts, and they, in turn, answered as to whether any charges sould be made against those under their charge, but no one was impeached. The districts, as represented, are in a good condi-tion, and glorious revivals among the churches have taken place during the past year. In the Wilmington district, the Rev. J. N. Magee was reported as having passed away from this life, to the manalons prepared for him in heaven. The Rev. Messre, J. Carlisle and W. Smith, of the same district, were granted a superannuated relation, at their, own request, their health having failed to a great extent. Bishop Levi Scott appeared on the platform at 9% o'clock.

FUNERAL OF LIEUT. CoL. MCALONE.— The funeral of Lieut. Colonel MisAlone, of the 27th Fegiment P. V., took place yeaterday morning from Independence Hall, where the remains had been lying in state. The body was tightly encased in the coffin, over which were nearly folded the American colors. Four of the veterans of the 27th Regiment, to which the deceased belonged, acked as a guard of honor. The body was carried from the Hall through Incependence Square to Walnut street, and there deposited in the bearse, drawn by four black horses. The pall bearers were Colonel Max Einstein. Ool. William B. Small, Colonel Frishmith, Major Kum-kel, Major Ermmingen, and Captains H. Foglebash and Ackley, besides other of the 27th Regi-ment, and numerous officers from other regiments; also, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. The inter-monies of the Catholic Church had been performed. Bibop Levi Scott appeared on the platform at 9% o'clock. Rev. J. F. Boone, of the Easton district, explained that charges against his loyalty to the Onurch and State, recently published in a local newspaper, were wholly untrue. His character was then passed. The presiding elder of the Reading district men-tioned the death of the Rev. J. R. Anderson as thaving occurred within the past year. He also stated that Rev. J. F. Reynolds desired to return to England, his maive place, and wished a location, which was granted him. From the North Philadelpita district, the Rev. J. S. Willis requested permission to withdraw from the Methodist Episcopal Church, which was granted him. IN BRHALF OF THE INDIANS, -A meeting

IN BRHALF OF THE INDIANS.—A meeting will be held this evening, at Concert Hall, in behalf of the loyal Cherokee Indians, who are said to be in a starving condition, and measures will be taken for their immediate relief. The facts of the case will be stated by Rev. P. B. Van Horne, chaplain O. Y. I., formerly principal of the Cherokee National Male Seminary. The Cherokees have formed among themselves three regiments of capable sol-diers, who are doing good service in the Union army. The wives and little ones of these brave Indians de-serve, and no doubt will receive, substantial sym-pathy. S. Willis requested permission to windulaw nour and Methodist Episcopal Church, which Was granted him. The Rev. Mr. Higgins, from the same district, was granted a superannuated relation. Hev. Dr. Castle, presiding elder of the South Phi-ladelphia district, announced the death of Rev. J. W. Mecaskey as having occurred since the last an-unal session. He was a man of excellent theologi-cal abilities, and the instrument, in God's hands, of saving hundreds of precious souls. Rev. J. W. Landreth, of the same district, wish-ing to remove to the West, was granted a location. The ballots were then cast for the remaining dele-gate to the General Conference, and the tellers re-tired to count them. Rev. G. S. Conway, on motion of Rev. Adam Wallace, his presiding elder, was continued on trial at his own request, and not, as previously reported, for having failed in his examination. He could not appear before the examination. He could not sprear before the examination and complexity of Muthod the sume attached to 18, charging Rev. J. F. Chaplain, with his name attached to 18, charging a min-ister. Several remarks were made as to the propriety or lawfulness of stating the charges before an open Conference, and at to whether he had been previous-ly notified that the oharges would be brought against him. No action was taken on the matter, but it is the Number of votes cast 162; necessary to a choice 52. As no one received the number refutired, another ballot was taken, and the tellers retired to count as before. Rev. S. Powers, on account of sickness in family, was granted leave of absence. A letter from Rev. J. T. Gracey, missionary to India, from this Conference, was then read. It was in reply to a letter from the Committee of Corres-pondence, appointed for the purpose, and contained his warmest thanks for their consideration of him, and a God speed to the Philadelphis Conference in all its deliverations. Rev. T. C. Murphy then said : I move you that it is with great pleasure we hear this letter from our fellow-broker and co-isforer, and we express our unabated confidence in and sympathy with him in the great work to which he has beer called, and that a committee of three be appointed to address him on the part of the Conference, and give some incidents which have or will take place during its session, which was so ordered. True same committee as before were confinged.

The part of the conterence, and give some incidents which have or will take place during its sension, which was so ordered. Type same committee as before were continued. A resolution was offered by Eev. Mr. Kurtz re-questing Rev. Pennell Coombe to furnish his sermon on baptism, delivered before the Philadelphis Preach-ers' Association, to the book agents at New York for publication in tract form. Rev. Mr. Coombe hoped such would not be the case, sait was not a sermon but merely the skeleton of one and besides, he had no desire to bring his name be-fore the public. A motion was made to lay the resolution on the table, which was lost. The resolution then passed. The majority of the Committee on the Division of the Philadelphia Conference then offered the fol-lowing report: The committee appointed at the last session of this Conference to obtain information on the sub-ject of dividing the Conference, log leave to report, that they have received communications from only a few charges, and these mostly from the Peninsula. No new facts have been obtained, but a majority of the charges, which have expressed a wish on the subject, give preference to a division by the Penn-sylvania State line. Eighteen Quarterly Confe-rences, or the Snow Hill district, out of nineteen which took action on the subject, sak for the Penn-sylvania line-three of the charges in Wilmington district ask that there be no division at present. In the opinion of your fcommittee, the state of the country has not so far charged since our last ses-sion as to justify a different course of action from that then taken; they, therefore, offer the following resolutions, viz:

Sate of appropriation, they take out of the hands of Oouncils what the Legislature have very expressly lodged there—the exclusive power to incur debt, to raise revenue, and to appropriate moneys. This cannot be permitted as the law now stands written. It follows from all this that the plaintiff was not entitled to recover, and the court should say so. It is no matter whether she was a teacher in the Normal School or the Girle' High School, or whether the action of the Controllers was right or wrong. She was a teacher in the service of the city, and it was the duty of the Controllers was right or wrong. She was a teacher in the service of the city, and it reference to the services of sll other teachers, so that the appropriation to teachers' salaries would be adquete to pay every teacher as well as herself. Until this was done she had no right of action against the diry. But if the Controllers neglected to perform their dutysche might perhaps, hold them liable in damages. She might certainly have the mandamus of the court to slit them into obscience of the city. The question in this case was whether the Receiver of Taxies can control the publication of then amends of delinquent taxpayers in a greater number of ines, this provised for by an ordinance of Oouncils making an appropriation to pay therefor. In 1661 Gouncils appropriated for that said advertising shall not be done in more than two papars, nor more than one time in each; and provided, further, that the nine court of said advertising shall not exceed eight cents per name. We perform the inte case was then taken to the Supreme Court of said advertising the appropriation to pay therefor. The fee of the case was then taken to the Supreme Court to recover, and the jury rendered avertising the appropriation to pay therefor. The opinion of the majority of the court by Judge Agnew was at considerable length, and concluded by reversing the judgment of the District Court, thus deciding that the solion of the Receiver of Taxes was illegal, and that the claim of Flanigen had no foundation in law.

THE POLICE.

THE POLICE. [Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.] House Robbers. Albert Wise and Charles White were arraigned at the Central Station yesterday afternoon on the charge of robbing the house of Mir. Rachel Carson, on Twelfth street, one door below Spruse, on Sun-day afternoon. The old lady who occupied the house was at church at the time of the robbery. The arrest of the parties may be attributed to James Kelly, an active, well-known, and esteemed citizan, who, under threats of being shot, secured one of the offenders. The same parties have been in custody several times recently, but there was not sufficient testimony to hardly hold them. In the police vos-bulary, they are now in that peculiar position called "dead to rights." The following evidence was elicited: PROGRESSING.—The erection of a muni-cipal hospital for contagious diseases, under the commission composed of representatives from the Board of Health; Guardians of the Poor and of the Prison, is progressing towards completion. This hospital is placed upon a property belonging to the city, upon Hart Lane, near the Lamb Tavern, in the Twenty first ward. It will be a very convenient and suitable building, and will be completed during the present year, at a cost of about fifty thousand dollars.

ARRIVAL. — The body of the late Captain Theodore Reed, of the schooner Margaret, was brought to this city yesterday. The funeral will take place on next Sunday, from the residence of his family, 108 Prime street. The fasts of his mur-der were published in The Press on Saturday. There is considerable excitement among his friends in the lower part of the city because of the atrocious tragedy which ended in the destruction of the life of a true man and a citizen entirely loyal to the fisg of his country.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL ASSOCIATION .-The Philadelphia Sabbath Schuldt Ansociation.-The Philadelphia Sabbath School Association held a monthly meeting last evening in the church cor-ner of Broad and Arch streets. An interesting dis-cussion took place on the subject of the most proper means necessary to fill up the ranks of the Sabbath-school teachers. It is affirmed that the attendance of acholars is quite large, but there appears a lack of interest on the part of the teachers.

testimony to hardly hold them. In the policy voa-bulary, they are now in that pocular position called 'dead to rights.' The following svijence was elicited: Rachel Carson, an old lady, occupant of the house, testified that she was at church on Sunday after-noon; while there, her residence was entered through a back window, the shutters of which were pried open; the sum of $700 in gold, in a bag, was stolen; also, about $36 in U. S. Treasury notes, and a smaller sum in bank notes; also a gold pencil, chain, and breast-pin were stolen. Ans. Oarson identified the property that had been recovered. A young man named Johnson, a soldier, of the 1383 Regiment, said that he was standing at astreet-corner; saw a man (Mr. Kelly) chasing another; witness fried to head fugitive off; told him to stand; fugitive parily pulled a pistol out of his pocket, and threatened to shoot; Mr. Kelly came up and ar-rested him; a big growd was running. James Kelly sworn: Major Moore and myself, while walking down Tweitth street, near Spruce, stopped for a moment to look around at the house; as the Major said he would like to get a small one for his wife to live in; we were looking at the house that was robbed, it being closed, thinking that it might be to rent; presently a colored lady came up and said two thieves were in the house; they had entered in the back way, having climbed over the fence; went round to the yard, and saw two men of the young men (Albert Wise) ran out, and I gave chase; cried stop thief; he threatenel to shood me; it arrested him and gave him into the eustody of an officer, who took him to the station-house. John Gavin (police officer) testified that he was standing at Broad and Lombard streets; heard the cry of 'Stop thief;' saw a mai (Chas. White) run down Juniper ateet, from Pine; at Lombard street and as we him knock four or five persons down; he ran to demanded to know what I arrested him for; I told him to come along; as we were welking, some of the prisoners (Wise) in custody; he was handed over to me; h A NEW PARSONAGE.-A new and beauti-A NEW PARSONAGE.—A new and Deauli-ful brown-stone cottage has just been erested ad-joining the Berean Baptist Church, West Philadel-phia, for the use of the eloquent pastor, Rev. James Cooper. The collide was erected at the private ex-pense of a distinguished offizen of the suburb, whose former noble generosity to the church itself has rendered his name synonymous with the prospe-rity of the Berean.

ColLISION — Yesterday, the ferry boat "William Champion," belonging to the South Camden Ferry Company, and a small schooner came in collision in the Jersey channel, below South Street, on the Delawäre. The Champion had a large part of her side atove in, and several ladies who were in the ladies' cabin were very seriously injured. A colored woman belonging to Camden was so badly hurt that her recovery is doubtful. INTERESTING TO RECRUITS.—Attention is requested to the notice, in our advertising columns, of Oaptain E. A. Landell, of the 119th Regiment P. V., who is general recruiting officer for any of the regiments of this State now in the service. His headquarters are in Independence Square, where all desirous of entering the service will receive every information and the largest bounties.

GENERAL NEWS.

CONFIGCATION IN NEW YORK.-In the United States District Court in New York, before Judge Betts, preliminary proceedings have been taken to confiscate the house and lot No. 144 Broadway, under the act of 1792, confiscating rehelp property. It is alleged that the premises are owned by Leroy W. Wiley, who is now in the rebet service. At the beginning of the war Mr. Wiley was a partner in the firm of Laine, Bone, & Co., and went South to his plantations in the Southwest. At the time Gen. Brogg was confronting Gen. Grant it is alleged that Wiley rears of age, and is reputed to be worth ten millions of property, three millions of which is situated at the North. A short time ago the distilet attorney liceled 1,766 shares of the Great Western Railway Company, belonging to Mr. Wiley. He put in an answer, which, on motion, was stileken from the records of the court, on the ground that the claimant, being a rebel, had no status in court.

claimant, being a rebel, had no status in court. SALE OF A WIFE.—Under an act of this State a man may sell his wife to another for a compensa-tion, provided she be exposed in a market place, with a cerd of fibrous material placed about her meck. We learn that a member of the 14th lowa, whose wife lived near Davis' livery-stable, under-took to sell her to one of Mr. Hill's subordinates for $25, and received $15 on account. The purchaser afterwards refused to pay the balance, and the case was taken before Colonel Shaw for adjustment. On pring questioned, the buyer acknowledged the trans-fietion, but said the woman was unsound, and, fur-thermore, a great soold. He finally agreed, how-ever, to pay the $10 and return the woman. The Dargain, we suppose, was not considered legal, as the terms of the law had not been complied with,... Columbus (Ky) War Eagle.

The greater number have been despatched to join the fleet under Farragut, while some few will be attached to the line destined for protection of the river commerce.

ALL slaves in Kentucky are to be enrolled, and are subject to draft into the United States armies. For each negro belonging to a "loyal" master thus drafted, the owner receives one hundred dollars as a bounty, and a compensation not exceeding three hundred dollars. This is the hardest blow yet re-ceived by slavery in Kentucky, and creates con-siderable excitement in that State.

A PAVORED GUEST at the last ball in the Thileries was a young Heutenant who had charged at the head of 70 men into an escort of 2,000 Mickinan Lancers. He received twelve wounds, and escaged death in an almost miraculous manner, after he had been over-thrown and apparently at the merey of his assailants. He is disabled for further military service, and has been appointed a collector of taxes. A PROFERANT monastery, under the rules of St. Banedict, has been established in England. The in-stitution numbers twelve monks, the leader among them being known as "Bother Ignatins." facts which have produced the thanks expressed in the preambles. He was entirely opposed to striking them out. Rev. Wesley Kenney somewhat doubted the ex-pediency of entering upon the discussion incident-ally raised upon this subject. He wanted to know if the preambles set forth facts. If they do, why want to strike them out. Did we concur in 1861 with the East Baltimore Conference. We did. It admits, then, of no controversy. He then quoted the different points, and asked if they were all facts, which was afirmatively replied to. If these are not facts, join us in this issue, and if they are let us show it by our votes. Rev. George Barton thought the words spoken by Mr. Kenrey were strange logis. He objected to the preambles, not because there were no facts expressed in them, but because they are not presented here in a legal form for actions taken by us. He held that the above were not proper reasons for action in the grading to the Church. He held that no law of the Government could change the eiternal principles of truth and righteousness. It assigns a reason for action which, in his judgment, was unworthy of the body. He wanted the resolutions already passed to stand on their own merits. He continued at length, when a motion was made by Rev. John Thompson to lay the preamble on the table, and car-ried. The tellers then reported the votes for reserve delegates to be 165; necessary to a choice 85. No one received the required number, consequently no one was elected, neither was there any further bal-loting done. The Conferences then, on motion, ad-journed. tices.
THE CITY AGAINST FLANIGER AND THE CITY VS. JOHNSON-IMPORTANT DECISIONS.
Testerday morning opinions were delivered in two cases which are of considerable importance. In the case of Johnson and the City, in which the question at issue was whether Councils or the Eboard of School Controllers, acting independent of Goun-cils, had the right to fix the scale of salaries of that the Controllers acting independent of Goun-cils, had the right to fix the scale of salaries of that the Controllers acting independent of Goun-of School Controllers, acting independent of Goun-cils, had the right to fix the scale of salaries of that the Controllers must sat in subordination to and with regard to the appropriations made by Councils for the payment of salaries of teachers. The City of Philadelphia vs. Jane Johnson. Er-ror to District Court of Philadelphia. Opinion by Woodward, J.
From an examination of the acts of Assembly, to which our attention has been directed in this case, it is apparent that everything pertaining to the pub-lie schools within the city and course. of Philadel-phia has been committed to the Board of Control-iers, excepting only the public purse, which has been kept carefully in the hands of the City Coun-cils. The Controllers have power to establish schools, to provide school-books, to make rules and regulations for the conduct of theschools, to appoint teachers, and to fix their salaries ; but they have no power to raise or appropriate revenues. They were made a body politic by an act of As-sembly in 1843, and as auch was capable of receiving and holding property, real and personal, but by the consolidation act their property and trust funds of every hind and description were transferred to and vested in the city of Philadelphia, and all sums ex-pended by or for the purposes of the Bhard were to be paid into the City Treasury ; and all sums ex-pended by or for the funds of the city was made as absolute as the separation of the Board of Coa-trollers fro ourned. After singing the doxology, the benediction was pronounced by Bishop Levi Scott. SIVAD.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA. -This association held a monthly meeting, last eve-ning, at the hall of the Athensum. There was a large attendance of members. Mr. William Dewey, of Philadelphia, presented a curious manuscript formerly owned by Mr. Anthony Benezet, and spparently all in the handwriting of that well-known and excellent citizen of ancient Philadelphia. It was a book of the Discipline of Friends, and went back to A. D. 1719. Among the queries which Friends direct to be made, in 1747, are these:

skeleton keys, and the money in gond. The prison-ers were committed in default of $2,000 ball each to anawer. A third party was arcested, but there being no evidence sgainst him he was discharged. As a prelude to the above, we may say that the prisoners were taken into the Gallery-room. Detec-tive Galanan, upon entering, remarked, "Ana," "As "prelude to the above, we may say that the it' cas," replied White doggedly, with an affected smile. Counterfeit Fifty-cent Postage Notes. George W. Stroud and George W. White, elderly men, were arraigned for a final hearing on the charge of passing, or attempting to pass, fifty-cent currency notes. According to the evidence, the parties were in company with each other on Satur-day evening. A note was passed at Schamburg's, on Coates street, above Fourth; one at George Mc-Laughin's, Sixth, above Coates ; one at Coorge Mc-Laughin's, Sixth, above Coates; i one at George Mc-Laughin's, Sixth, above Coates; i one at Stur-day night. The prisoners were committed in de-fault of $2,000 bail to answer at sourt. (Before Mr. Alderman White,]

Fault of $2,000 bail to answer at court. (Before Mr. Alderman White.) Petty Larceny. Oharles Perkins, a colored man, was arraigned before the police magistrate of the Fifth ward on the charge of the larceny of a fifty-cent note belong-ing to Mirs. S. W. Frowert, a resident on Anita-street, It seems that she and her husband were at the grocery store Sixth and Pine streets, on. Satur-day evening, where some grocories were purchased. On retiring from the store she dropped the note, and the prisoner picked it up. On being charged with doing so, he stouly denied it. The husband was aprehensive that he might be maltreated, and preferring to give some practical evidence of the power of "mind over matter," quietly walked off until meeting a police officer, to whom hereisted the circumstances. The prisoner was taken into cus-tody. He was committed to answer.

/ [Before Mr. Alderman Moore.] Assaulting an Officer.
 John Harris is the name given by a young man who appeared, on Saturday night, in the vicinity of Locust and Tenth streets, drunk and disorderly. He was told by Police Officer Worden to behave him-self, whereupon it is alleged that he struck the offi-cial on the head several blows with a heavy cane, lacerating the scalp. The prisoner was committed to answer.

[Before Mr. Alderman Massey, ]

[Before Mr. Alderman Massey, ] Disorderly House. Mary Stevenson, charged with keeping a disorder-ly house, on Potts street, above Thirkenth, Four-teenth ward, was arrested on Saturday night. After a patient investigation, the defendant was required to enter bail in the sum of $1,000 to answer.

[Before Mr. Alderman Holmer.]

Pocket Picking. A roung man, who gave the name of Daniel Lemon, was arrested at Frankford, on Saturday evening, on the charge of picking the pocket of a gentleman of the sum of $15. The accused was com-mitted to answer.
