Read what the Editor of the Evening Bulletin says of it, after reading an advance copy. THE WIFE'S SPORET. BY MRS. ANN S. STEPHENS. Pol. THE WIFE'S EGGET. BY MRS. ANN S STEPHENS. Pub-lished by T. B. PATERSON & BROTHERS, Philadelphia. We have read the advance sheets of Mrs. Ann S. Ste-phens' new book, "The Wife's Secret." and can promise her adminers a characteristic treat. The story is one of domestic life, the scene being laid mainly in the vicinity of New York. The various persons who have their part in the narrative are strongly presented, particularly the different members of the Bently and Hart families. The character of Michael Hurst is also described with almost painful force. We will not weaken the interest of any reader by sketching the plot, but will simply state that no lever of the exciting in romance can fail to be eager t anrayel its intricacles after reading the first few pages. It is published and for sale at the Cheapest Book in the world to buy or send for a stock of books, which T. B. PETERSON & BROTHERS'.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT.

The parties in St. Louis and Cincinnati, who have been counterfeiting the Mustang Liniment, under pretence of proprietorship, have been thoroughly estopped by the courts. To guard against further imposition. I have procured from the United States Treasury a private steelplate revenue stamp, which is placed over the top of each bottle. Each stamp bears the fac simile of my significant of the counterful that the counterful the counterful that t each bottle. Each stamp bears the fac simile of my sig-nature, and without which the article is a counterfeit, dangerous, and worthless imitation. Examine every bottle. This Liniment has been in use and growing in favor for many years. There hardly exists a hamlet on the habitable globe that does not contain evidence of its wonderful effects. It is the best emollient in the world. With its present improved ingredients, its effects upon man and beast are perfectly remarkable. Sores are healed, pains relieved, lives saved, valuable animals made useful, and untold ills assuaged. For bruises, sprains, rheumatiem, swellings, bites, cuts, caked sprains, rheumatism, swellings, bites, cuts, caked breasts, strained horses, &c., it is a sovereign remedy het should never be dispensed with. It should be invery family. Soid by all druggists.
