All hail the power of Jesus' name, Let angels prostrais fall; Bring forth the royal diadem And crown him Lord of all."

"All hail the power of Jesus' name, Let angels prostrate fail:" And crown him Lord of all." These appropriate preliminaries having been gone through with, Rev. Dr. Brainerd, of the Fourth Freshyterian (old Pine-street) Church, was intro-duced to the vast assemblage. He said he endorsed with his whole heart the object which had brought the people together. He was old enough to remem-bet the Uherokee nation for many years. He well remembered the Mission called Brainerd, located, between thirty and torty years ago, near the piace now called Chattanooga. He well remembered the Cherokee nation to many years, the well remembered the Mission called Brainerd, located, between thirty and torty years ago, near the piace now called Chattanooga. He well remembered the Cherokee nation was the first to emerge from bar-bariam under the illuminating rays of civiliz-tion. He well remembered a shief of that nation called Phoenix, because the nation at thit time occupied the isnd of their fathers, zising, as it were, from their sahes. He well remembered the discussion that snose in the fogislature of the State of Georgis that this zame Oherokee nation should be rooted out, and driven to the far West, so that the aggressors might possess themselves of the rich farms, the beautiful gardens, and the homes of these God-loving Christian people. He remembered that a treaty had been made between the Usited State of Georgia set the treaty aside, violated if in every respect, and defied the power of the Su-preme Court. Notwithstanding this solemn com-pact, the Legislature of Heorgia passed laws dispo-ing of the property of the Cherokee also which the Supreme Court decided to be valid, and he did in ever yrespect, and defied the power of the Su-preme Court. SHOOTING AFFAIR-PROBABLE HOMICIDE. Last evening, a young man named Weigert, son of Dr. Beujamin Weigert, residing at No. 303 North Seventh street, was charged with being a deserter in a drikking saloon on Market-atreet, near Eighth, by Francis Kraus, a Government detective. Weigert denied having ever been in the army, and Kraus in-siated upon the identity of his prisoner. This led to an animated discussion, which finally resulted in blows. Kraus firew out a revolver, and threatened to aboot Weigert. While the pistol was in his hand, it is alleged by Kraus, that Weigert in aiming a blow at the former struck the pistol, which was instantly discharged, the contents entering the throat of Weigert. He was taken to the office of Dr. Pan-coast, who rendered all the assistance in his power. He pronounced the wound of a very dangerous character. Kraus has been placed under arrest. VERDICT OF THE CORONER'S JURY -SHOOTING AFFAIR-PROBABLE HOMICIDE. PHILADELPHIA BOARD OF TRADE. IERAEL MORRIS, JOS C. ORUBE, EDMUND A. SOUDEE,

VERDICT OF THE CORONER'S JURY .-VERDICT OF THE CORONER'S JURY.— The coroner's jury in the case of Joseph Meaney, who was run over by a car on Eighth street, near Fitzwater, have rendered the following verdict: "That the said Joseph Meaney came to his death by being run over by a red light car preceding car No. 24, Green and Coates street line, on the night of February 23th, 1864, on Eighth street, near Fitz-water." The jury were unable to decide positively the number of the car. The jury consures both roads for the careless manner in which they drive on the lower end of their routes. It is time that the people should condemn the carelesness of many of the pas-senger railroad companies by something more em-phatic than coroners' juries. lorie. AND REAL AND WINTER ABRANGE. 1863. FOR WILLIAMSPORT, SCRANTON, RLMIRA, BUP-PALO, NIAGARA PALLS, and all points in the West and Northwest.

Supreme Court at Nisi Prius-Judge Agnew. Mary R. Burton vs. James Fulton et al. This was an action to recover damages for an alleged ima-licious conspiracy on the part of defendants, who were school directors of the Fourteenth ward, to de-prive plaintiff of a position held by her as a teacher in the Monroe School, in Buttonwood street, near Eleventh. Miss Burton, while discharging her duty as a teacher, received a note from defendants, signed by James Fulton as chairman of a committee, noti-fying her that the interests of the school required a change of the principal, and requesting her to re-sigo, which she did. It is now alleged on the part of plaintiff that there was no cause for the change; that the school was well conducted, and, under plaintiff that there was no cause for the ohange; that the school was well conducted, and, under plaintiff a management, had greatly increased in the number of pupils, and that there was a marked im-provement in the average attendance of scholars. It was further alleged that the action of the de-fendants was not that of a majority of the commit-tee, which consisted of aix members, three of whom only acted upon the resolutions upon which was based the note addressed to files Burton, requesting her to resign; that her conduct as a teacher had been irreproachable, and that the action of the com-mittee was malitous, and tonded to jujure plaintiff was malidous, and tonded to jujure plaintiff cor plaintiff having been heard, detendants' counsel noved for a non suit, which was argued by F. C. Brewster for defendants, and by H. M. Phillips for plaintiff. The court held the motion under advise-ment, and adjourned until this morning. FIG. plaintiff. The court held the motion under advise-ment, and adjourned until this morning. Court of Quarter Sessions-Judge Allison. Commonwealth vs. Edvard Parker.—The defend-ant pleaded guilty, some months ago, to a charge of assult and battery on Lewis Albertson, with intent to hill. Yesterday he was called up for soutence. This affair occurred at Guy's saloon, in Seventh street, and scems to have been a deliberate attempt to take life. According to the facts, Albertson was sitting in Guy's, when Parker entered, and without provocation shot him with a pistol, and out him across the face with a knife. Much time has elapsed since the perpetration of this offence, and ples of guilty, and it is believed that many efforts have been made to lessen the punishment which ought to be imposed in a case like it. It is but just to Judge Allison to say, that if applications tending to that end were made to him, he disregarded them, and imposed a punish-ment which ought to prove an example to men who are ready at a moment's notice to use deadiy wea-pons without or upon the slightest provocation. Albertson, in detailing the facts of the ease to the judge atted that he did not desire the court to im-pose imprisonment as part of the sentence. He said, however, in addition, that he supposed that it would make no difference, as he was informed that Parker, the defendant, had his pardon now in his pocket. Judge Allison then, after reviewing the facts of the case as detalled, sentenced Parker to pay a fine of twenty dollars, and undergo an imprisonment of six months' in the county prison. In the Common Pleas, Judge Ludlow, there was nothing of interest.
