A motion was made that Wm. H. Witta be elected permanent president. The names of Wm. L Hirst, of Philadelphia, and Gen. Sanderson, of Lancaster, were also mentioned. Several amendments were offered and gave rise to a lengthy discussion. Considerable disorder pre-valed, studi frequently a half dozen delegates were acdressing the chair at one time. The motions came so rapidly that it was almost impossible to know what question was really before the Conven-tion. A delegate described the disorder as disgrace-ful to the Democratic party. The Chairman finally stated that the vote would be taken upon a proposition to appoint a committee of thirty-three to select permanent officers for the Couvention. The yeas such anys were called, and resulted in 48 yeas to 76 nays. A motion to Lominate candidates for permanent president prevailed. Mears. W. H. Witte, W. L. Hirrst, Geo. Sander-ton, W. P. Schell, and Janes K. Kerr, were then placed in romination. Mearst. Hirst, Schell, and Kerr declined, leaving as the coubstants, W. H, Witte and George Sanderson. The vote stood-Witte, 93; Sanderson, 31. Wm. H. Witte was then declared elected, and, on motion. the election was made unanimous. Mr. Witte having delivered a speech of thanks to the numbers, and of abuse against the national authorities, the Convention adjourned till 4 o'clock. On reassembling, a long and noisy debate aroso respecing the duites of the Committee on Resolu-tions. Each member of the Convention appeared to have nore instruction. M. S. G. King, of this city, desired that the Onvention about adjourn of ad-journment then occupied much of the valuable time of the convention. M. S. G. King, of this city, desired that the Onvention aboud adjourn over till Satuday, as it would be outraging the feelings of a very large portion of the commutity to hold a pemoeratic Convention on Good Friday. A delegate arose and said that he did not know was better thing he could do then to meet on a good day to do a good thing--namely, to sit and act in a Democratio Convention. T

Police Officer Cunningham, with intent to kill. Some time since Officers Kilpatrick and Cunning-ham, in the discharge of their official duty in the southweatern part of the eity, were violently resisted by a party of disorderly men. The mace of Officer C. was taken from him, and he was beaten in a severe manner, so much so that his life was greatly jeopardized. The defendant is alleged to be the man who inflicted the blows. He field the city. On Wed-neaday he returned and surrendered to the authori-ties. ties. (Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.) Alleged Nuisance. Four men, giving the names of John Tobin, Mi-chael Keefer, John Guincine, and Patrick Cannon, were arraigned at the Central Station, yesterday afternoon, on the charge of maintaining a nuisance in the vicinity of Seventh and St. Mary streets. According to the evidence, it seems that a number of ladies and gentlemeu go to a church in that vi-cinity on every Sunday, for the purpose of teaching the colored children. The pavement is narrow. A coal-box is filled with loafers, who seem to be lost to all sense of morality. Their language is often obscene and blasphemous. and freely used when the teachers and other plously disposed people pass that way. There being no room for free passage between the house and the box, because of the nar-row space of the sidewalk, and the loaters stationed there, the religious persons are compelled to walk into the street to get around the obstruction. The nuisance, therefore, has become so intolerable that proceed ings have been commenced. The four de-fendants were charged with maintaining the nui-sance. They were required to enter bail in the sum of $2,500 each to await a further hearing. Pardoned

Pardoned. Jacob Lenaire, who was convicted in the Camdea county court of Oyer and Terminer, of New Jersey, in the year 1856, on the charge of the murder of W. J. Hatch, and sentenced to an imprisonment for the term of twenty years, was pardoned on Wedneeday. Lenaire was a boor Frenchman, and had gone from Philadelphia to New Jersey on a gunning excursion. He was a harmlers man, could not understand the English language, and was entirely ignorant of the law and customs of New Jersey. He entered on the farm of Mr. Hatch, near Cooper's creek, a short dis-tance above the city of Oamden. Mr. Hatch being an excitable man, drove Lenaire away. Hatch fol-lowed for the purpose of taking the gun away from him. Lenaire finally was divien to the edge of the tee on Cooper's creek, when he turned. He was thus in danger of being drowned. Hatch pressed on, caught hold of the gun, it went off, and Mr. Hatch fell dead. Even if he had shot Mr. Hatch in-tentionally, it was an act of self defence. Mr. Le-naire came to Philadelphia. A reward of $500 was officer for his apprehension. He was artised by Officer Samuel Johnson, of the marshal's police, but the reward vons never paid. The verdict and the se-vere sentence surprised everybody. Many efforts were made to get him pardoned, but in vain, for eight years.
