     WE HAVE LEARNED NOT TO BE astonished at anything. Years of experience, and a correspondence extending throughout all nationalities of the habitable globe, have turned theories into facts and established a basis from which we need not err. We are not surprised at such facts as the following, although the persons who write them are. We know the persons and circumstances, hence feel at likerty to endorse their statements:

"NEW BEDFOED, Mass., Nov. 24, 1863.

"DEAR SIR: I have been afflicted many years, with severe prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system Physicians and medicines faited to relieve me. While visiting some friends in New York, who were using Plantation Bitters, they prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small wine-glassful after dinner. Feeling better by degrees, in a few days I was astonished to find the coldnet, and cramps had entirely left me, and I could elsep the night through, which I had not done for years. I feel
