Sion—Philadelphia, 1307 Chesnut Street, March, 1854—The Committee on Finance and Donations of the Great Gentral Fair appeal for contributions in MONEY to those of their fellow-citizens who do not propose sending to their fellow-citizens who do not propose sending to the Fair the products of their skill and industry. By far the larger portion of the money received on the occasion of the Fairs held for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission in Cincinnati, Boston, and Brooklyn, was derived from direct donations in CASH, and not from the proceeds of the sale of articles exposed. What the Sanitary Commission needs to afford relief to the sick and wounded soldiers is money, in large amounts and from the sources.
