mack, were arraigned at the Central Station on Saturday on the charge of robbery. The evidence in the case developed a specimen of pretty sharp practice. It is as follows: The manufactory of Mr. Edward Cope & Son, on Hermann street, Germantown, was entered on Monday night or Tuesday morning last and robbed of seventeen dozen woolen knit nublas and balmoral hose. Most of the articles recovered were spread out on the long desk at the Central, and were identified by one of the firm.

Solomon L. Friedenberg sworn.—I am a broker, (pawnbroker); these goods were deposited with me by this woman, but I can't say exactly that she is the person, because it was in the dusk of the evening when she eame; Clay came the next day and claimed the goods, saying they had been stolen from him; I told him he must make an affidavit that he owned the goods; he went away, and on the next day he produced the affidavit, as sworn to before Ald. Plankinton; this affidavit, as forth that the goods had been deposited by Raschel Riever; on this I delivered the things to him.

Detective Levy sworn.—I went to Mr. Friedenberg's on Priday afternoon, having thus far traced some of the goods atolen from the factory of Mr. Cope & Son, and there learned that a man had been there in the morning, who claimed the goods, and received them; I went in search of the man, and told several of the police force that if they saw a onearmed man, to arrest him; Officer Frowert took Clay into custody near Eleventh and Meion streets, and conducted him to the station-house; on searching the prisoner, a dark lantern was found, and also some gunpowder in a piece of newspaper, and also an augur-bit and a pocket-handkerchief, that he was anxious to keep; then went to the house where the woman Rachel lived, in a little court running north from Meion street, above Eleventh, and in her trunk found a hand-vice and two pair of pilers.

Upon exhibiting these, Mr. Cook identified them se his property, but did not know they had been stolen from the mill.

I asked the woman, cont THE CITY. PROPOSALS. AUCTION SALES. FINANCIAE. NEW PUBLICATIONS. SHERIFF'S SALES. OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH, S. The church was crowded with the children, their parents, and others who take an interest in the Sunday-school causs. Addresses appropriate to the occasion were made by Revs. D. C. Eddy, J. Wheston Smith, J. Hyatt Smith, and W. C. van Meter, superintendent of Howard Mission, New York. The other exercises consisted in si ging by the children. The report of the school was read by Mr. John M. Evans, which stated that the school was divided into two departments, principal and primary, numbering 49 teachers and 422 scholars. The attendance during the year averaged 283. A missionary society has recently been formed in the school, which is now supporting a missionary in Sweden. Alluding to the vast Lumber of children who are in the streets on Sabbath, the report urges that to reclaim them opens a wide field of labor for those who desire the temp-ral as well as the spiritual prosperity of youth placed beyond contingency. It is a field in which all can work, and the question of personal duty assumes a serious importance, which each teacher may exert upon the future. As Christian patriots who are looking anxiously forward to that national greatness which is interestive for our country, see there no fears, no missivings, as to the moral influence which will be exerted by those who are to control the future destindes of our nation? Without regard to any higher consideration, this of itself should be sufficient to colist the energies of every true patriot and Christian. IMPOBTANT DECISION AS TO LEGAL TENDER NOTES.

Mervine vs. Sallor. This was an action to recover damages for breach of covenant. Defendant had covenanted to pay a yearly ground rent of $570, "lawful silver money of the United States, each dollar weighing seventeen penny weights and six grains at least." When the July rent became due the defendant tendered the amount in United States treasury notes, which plaintiff refused to receive, demanding silver dollars. Suit was brought, and the defendant pleaded tender as aforesaid. To this pleasthe plaintiff filed a replication, averring that the defendant pleaded tender as aforesaid. To this pleasthe plaintiff filed a replication, averring that the general filed a special demurrer averring that the promissory notes or paper money of the United States, of the nominal value of $285, but of 40 per cent. less exchangeable value. To this the defendant filed a special demurrer averring that the promissory notes so tendered were lawful money of the United States, and a legal tender in payment of all debts. This demurrer was before the court at the December term, and was reargued at the present term by G. M. Wharton for plaintiff, and by Geo. W. Harkins for defendant. Saturday, the opinion of the court was delivered by Judge Hare, rendering judgment on the demurrer for the defendant, thus deciding that the treasury notes are a legal tender, and should have been received in payment of the rent. Judge Sharswood delivered a dissenting ophion.

In the case of Koerner vs. Calhoun, which was to have been heard in the Court of Common Pleas by Judge Allison, a postponement was had until some day next week, yet to be fixed. In this case, the question is raised whether the principal of a ground rent, the interest of which as well as the principal, is coveranted to be paid in "lawful money of the United States of America," may be paid in "legal-tender notes." W. L. Hirst is for plaintiff; George M. Wharton for defendant.

In a number of instances chimneys were blown down, because the adbesive qualities of the mortan had been desiroyed by the operation of coal gas. Besides this, many of the gas lamps were extinguished because of the broken glass of the cases. The lamps, as a general thing, are very dirty, and are improperly attended to. ert K.
