MAINSTONE'S HOUSEKEEPER

Is a novel of great power and vigor, perhaps is the best as yet produced by a woman's pen.

The characters in it are numerous, and all are strongly drawn. There is life in every page.

The reroise's character is one of mingled strength and sweetness, and merits unqualified commendation.

Richard Wenlock is a model, a second "John Haifax," and commands the admiration of every reader.

The interest is wrought up to vividness, and is admirably sustained to the close.

As a whole, for beauty of style and diction, passionate earnestness, effective contrasts, distinctness of plot, unity and completeness, we think this novel unrivalled.

THE UNANIMOUS OPINION OF ALL

PLANTATION BITTERS. GANT DE SUIDE. of the habitable globe, have turned theories into facts and established a basis from which we need not err. We are not surprised at such facts as the following, although the persons who write them are. We know the persons and circumstances, hence feel at liberty to endorse their statements:

"New Bedford, Mass., Nov. 24, 1863.

"Dear Sir.: I have been afflicted many years, with severe prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system Physiciaus and medicines failed to relieve me. While visiting some friends in New York, who were using Plantation Bitters, they prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small wine-glassful after dinner. Feeling better by degrees, in a few days I was astonished to find the coldness and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I had not done for years. I feel like another being. My apetite and strength have also greatly improved by the use of the Plantation Bitters.

"Respectfully.

"Respectfully. ROMAN SCARFS. "Respectfully. JUDITH RUSSEL." THOS. W. EVANS & CO., REEDSBURY, Wis., Sept. 16, 1863. 11. they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. 818 and 820 CHESTNUT Street Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. The following is from the Manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

"HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH ST.,
NEW YORK, August 2, 1853,

"DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children, suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect.

One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well.

Respectfully, Mrs. O. M. DEVOE."
