DESIGNATED DEPOSITORY AND FINANCIAL AGENT (Before Mr. Alderman White.) (Before Mr. Alderman White.)

Thumping a Newspaper Collector.

James Sheeron was arraigned yesterday atternoon before the police magistrate of the Fifth ward, on the charge of having committed an unprovoked assault and battery upon Thomas L. Walters, a collector, employed at the office of the Daily News. It seems that on the 6th instant the complainant called at the North American Insurance Company to collect a bill of fifteen dollars for advertising. The defendant is employed there. The collector presented the bill, and defendant rather doubted it. It is alleged that he invited Mr. Walters to take a seat behind the desk, and the next moment seized him by the throat, and made several passes at him with his first, exclaiming, at the same time, that the collector was a "newspaper swinding thief." The aggressed party endeavored to fend the blows, but Sheeron aucceeded in striking him once on the mouth and chin, cutting his ipp, and displacing a tooth.

The assault and battery, it seems, ended by the prisoner sending a boy to bring a police officer to "arrest a swindier." Mr. Walter succeeded in getting out of the effice, and soon after this had a legal process issued for the arrest of Sheeron, which was required to enter ball in the sum of $600 to answer at court. A Burning Burglar Arrested.

A young colored man was arraigned at the Central Station yesterday, on the charge of burglariously entering and robbing the dwelling of William McIllwee, on Lombard atreet, above Thirteenth. The prisoner gave the name of William Green. He belongs to a class of thieves that have been operating for some time past in Philadelphia, and he ought to be eaged for a good long time. These fellows facilitate their entrance into and through the interior of houses by burning holes through the doors. Their plan is simple, and is effected by the aid of a spirit lamp and blow pipe. The commonest of these thieves may use a dip candle. The fisme is blown against a door by means of the blow-pipe, and so efficacious is the heat that's hole is made in a few moments without any noise whatever. The bolt is then removed. So much for the plan of operation known to thieves generally, but unknown to the community. The following evidence was elicited:

An Gutrage on the Highway.

A young man, named Richard Allen, aits John White, was arraigned yesterday, on the charge of committing an outrageous assault and battery upon a young woman, on Saturday evening. It seems that about seven o'clock, on Saturday evening, she was passing out Second street, near Fisher's Lane, on her way to Olney, where she resides. It is alleged that the defendant made an attack upon her; she resisted, and a desperate struggle ensued. Her cries alarmed the aggressor, and he fied. He was caught by some citizens, who had hastened to the assistance of the young woman, and she identified him. He was committed, in default of $2,000 bail, to answer. per annum IN COIN, payable semi-annually on all Bonds over $100, and on Bonds of $100 and less, an-

The Effects of Rum.

William Gallagher was arraigned before the same magistrate on the charge of selling liquor upon the Sabbath day, and with having assaulted the wife of a man to whom he had sold liquor. The defendant, it is alleged, keeps a tavern in Orthodox street, but, from all accounts, his liquors are not orthodox. It seems that on Sunday an individual imbibed pretty freely of the same, then went home, and broke the funniture and played the misshief generally. The wife went to the tavern-keeper to request him to sell no more liquor to her husband, whereupon, it is alleged, he sbused and assaulted her. The magistrate required him to enter ball in the sum of $1,000, to answer at court.

"The num"er of persons applying and received as immates was 573. These have received board, lodging, and in some destitute cases clothing and have remained in the house from four days to one week. Numbers of these were discharged invalid soldiers, many of them in too weak a condition to reach their distant he mea. All persons applying at the door of the institution are received, at once, except when intoxicated, discorderly, or recognized as having frequently received the aid of the society. Under the efficient management of the matron, the house has been kept in a state of neatness, cleanliness, and comfort that will compare favorably with any similar institution in the city. But a part of the operations of the society is represented by the 683 sersons received as inmates. monthly meeting last evening, in their room. Atheneum Building, Sixth and Auclphi streets. The donations to the society were quite numerous. A series of beautiful photographic views were preseried, among which was one of the Lieb mansion, on Frankford road, a photograph of Gen. George G. Meade, and also quite a number of views of historic buildings. Among the accient curiosities was a circular instead by the postmaster of Philiadelphia, dated December 30th, 1730, being the first regulation of the mails for the year 1731. The eastern and southern mails are provided for, but nothing said about the northern or western, from which it may be inferred no mail run in either of these directions at that period. Also, a newspaper published in 1755, containing some curious advertisements, an old life of Stephen Girard, a gavel made of the oak taken from the William Penn Brew House, at Pell's Manor, cut before there was a saw mill established in America. Also, a number of other relies of the long past. Several gentlemen were named as nembers of the society, and the committee, on obsining views of battle grounds, was increased in Lumber.

A resolution was adopted appointing a committee of six to ascertain, if possible, whether the old Pean mansion at Second sticet and Norths alley cannot be preserved, and emoved to the public park, or some other suitable place, or to purchase the site and keep the building where it is

Mr. McAllister presented a letter from Mr. Bethel, an architect, chering his services to provide the necessity means to remove the said building Mr. A.
H. Smith said that he was in the building not long since, and it recented to him that the woodwork was almost entirely some. Be thought that the imperishalle srticles might be purchased, and creeted in some monumental style commemorative of the building.
One of the numbers thought that it would bo vandalsm to have that building destroyed. ARRIVAL OF A UNITED STATES STEAMER.

—The United States supply-steamer Massachusetts, Lieutenant West commanding, arrived off the navy yard at an early hour yesterday morning, from the South Atlantic Blockading Squadron When the vessel left the mouth of the St. John's river, Florida, a fleet of ten steamers was passing over the bar.
They had no troops on board. All was quiet at Jacksonville. She left Charleston harbor om the evening of the 7th inst., when heavy firing was hered in the clir cition of Stono Inlet. A number of sick were left at Norfolk. On the arrival of the Massachusettz at Newport News, news was received of an attempt by the reisels to blow up the Minnesota with a torpedo, on Friday evening last, but the attempt was unsuccessful, as but little damage was cone to the vessel. She brought to this city the officers of the steamer Houssonie, who have received a furlough of thirty days; also, several bales of prize cotton. She experienced heavy gales on her way here, but she passed safely through them.
She will receive another cargo, and sail in about two weeks. ABRIVAL OF A UNITED STATES STEAMER. A RELIEF ASSOCIATION.—A new organization, to be known as the "Working Women's Relief Association," is about to be formed in this city, whose special object is the protection of working women. Dresamakers, milliners, arsenal hands, and all workers on army clothing, girls employed in stores and wangfactories of all kinds, are invited to make known the prices they receive for labor, the number of hours daily devoted to it, the amount it costs to live, and all other particulars which can be substantiated, which they may doem important, in order that those seeking to benefit them may have some certain data to rely upon, and thus gain for them advanced pay and redress of grievance generally. Names will not be made public, though it is necessary that the accuracy of a statement should be guaranteed by the name. This project will be worthy approval if carried out in good faith. The working women, however, should be careful lest they be drawn into a scare by those who make philanthropy a cloak for money making. RELIGIOUS — Last evening the twenty-first canniversary of the Spring Garden Female Bible Society was celebrated at the church corner of Broad and Brown streets. Addresses appropriate to the occasion were celivered by the pastor, Rev. P. S. Henson, Rev. C. P. Krauth, Rev. R. U. Matlack, and Rev. Jas. M. Crowell. The annual report of the society was read, showing that there had been distributed from avril, 1863, to March 15, 1864, the following books: English duodecimo Bibles, 49; octavo do., 4; Gelman duodecimo, 14; and French, 2; also, 4 teaths (now and avril) and from Bibles, 49; octavo do., 4; Gelman duodecimo, 14; and French, 2; also, 4 teaths (now and avril) and from bibles about the society amounted to $372,28 and the receipts to $380.69. The ground over which the society labors extends from Sixth street west to the Schupikiil, and from Vine to north of Poplar. This district is under the care of forty-six managers. The society is in quite a prosperous condition. THE GIRLS' High School..—The Board of School Centrollers will hold a stated meeting this afternoon. The principal item of business will be the consideration of the report from the special committee to investigate the manner in which the late examination was conducted. The committee at the last meeting reported that the position of principal of the Girls' High and Normal School be declared vacant from the first day of May next, and until a new principal shall be duly elected; and further, that the scaretary be directed to furnish the present principal of said school with a duly-attested copy of this resolution.

The testimony and report of the committee have been printed to pamphlet form. The principal will reply to the report in a written communication this afternoon. DISTRIBUTION OF TRACTS.—At the annual meeting of the Philadelphia Tract and Mission Society, held on Sunday evening, it was stated that there are three missionaries and nearly five hundred distributors of tracts and religious matter connected with the "ociety. They have visited nearly 50,000 families during the past month, and furnished tracts and Bibles to whomsoever they found destitute of them. LECTURE IN AID OF THE SANITARY FAIR.

-The Very Rev. Dr. Moriarty has kindly consented to deliver a lecture, at the request of the Board of Directors of the Sixth school section (Sixth ward), at Concert Hall, on Thursday evening, April 28th, in aid of the Uentral Fair of the Sanitary Commission. FAIR TO BE CONTINUED.—The fair which was held last week in aid of St. Vincent's Home, at Eighteenth and Wood atreets, will be continued until Thursday evening. This has been agreed upon in consequence of the large attendance, and at the carnest request of those who have not yet been able to visit it. DROWNED. — Yesterday afternoon the body of a man named Henry Clark, aged forty years, was found in the Delaware, below Lombard attest wharf. He was seen on the night previous, and was supposed to have fallen overboard.

ration known to thieves generally, but unknown to the community. The following evidence was elicited:

Sergeant Neft, of the Second police division, was stancing at Eighth and Shippen streets at three o'clock yesterday morning; he saw three men pass down Bedford street; he followed, they turned up Seventh, thence proceeded to South, and out South atreet. He finally came to the conclusion they were thieves and sprung his rattle. The three men ran, two of them escaped, but the third one was arrested by Officer Philip a short distance off. In their flight the fugitives dropped most of their plunder. This was secured by the officers. It consisted of shawls, coats, table-cloths, spoons, &c. These articles were identified by Mr. McIllwee as his property. He also gave a description of the style in which the house had been entered and how interior doors were burnt. The table cloth and spoons, and a small cup and razor were found on the person of the prisoner. He was committed, in default of $5,000 bail, to await a further hearing. There are other charges pending against him.

Among the goods stolen from the residence of Mr. McIllwee was a plano cover. This was recovered from a pawneroker by the police, and the person who had pawned it was taken into custody. She proved to be an old women, who looked as though she was fond of Bedford-street whisky, an article that would kill an ordinary mortal as far as a minnie rifie. She was asked how she became the possessor of the plano cover. She said that about five o'clock in the moning she was going into Bedford street to see Mrs. Maloney; she observed the article on the pavement; she picked it up, "in coorse," and a week's "rint" being due, she pawned it. There being some plausibility that she did not know the cover had be en stolen she was discharged. forward; the mate then went to the starboard side of the galley, and told him to 1sy aft again; the Spaniard said, "No, you come forward," I thought it was the Spaniard from his voice; the mate then said, "D—n you, that's your game, is $1"? the mate then came aft, and speared to go in the cabin; then he came out and went as far lowward as the cook house again; he said, "Ley aft, you d—s—, or I will blios the head off of you?" I could not see the Spaniard he said in reply, "No, you come forward; then the mach then dered out another word I sould then the mach then dered out another word I sould then made one atep forward, and came back and fired in man on the after side of the cook house; he fired just as quick as a revolver would fire; then he made one atep forward, and came back and fired the voice of the Spaniard, who ran forward, crying, in broken English, "On, I'm shot!" or something like this; the mate ran after him, and the Spaniard commerced orying again, the same as when the mate one atep forward with the mate in a sharp voice ory out "oh!" as if there was pain with it; I heard no more noise after this; the next I saw was two men go forward with a lamp; before they went forward I came down from the poop, and Mr. Annott, the second mate, asked me if I knew where the captain was; I said, "is privile of forward, aint' it?" he replied, "yes, I am afraid they have killed the made; I am afraid they have killed the made; and the wont in out he right hand side, and I got up on the poop with my broom; the captain asked me what I was doing there; I told him the mate sent me; he asked where the third made was a law; and was a sent on the right hand side, and I saw the face of the man in the hold; George we have wared to him for the captain when the captain coming up on the right hand side and in the word of the man was a silve in the first mate on deck, he told me that all hands were wared to was the check down; the one of the man who was washed overboard, asked me to help him rise the fore hatch; in doing a law is endants./
The District Attorney agreed with him, and, thereore, the whole party was discharged.

Glimore vs. Girard Lavaux et al. This was an action to recover an amount alleged to be due on a charter of the brig "Abby Elen," of Belfast, Maine, on a voyage from that port to Bordeaux, France, and also for demurrage while detained unladen in that port. By agreement of counsel, the jury rendered a verdict in favor of plaintiff for $2.590 37.

Jurors were then discharged from further attendance, and the court adjourned. District Cours—Judge Hare Brooker vs. Ritchie. Before reported. An action to recover for the purchase money of the furniture, fixtures, goodwill, &2., of a tavern known as the "Clock House," Market street. The amount claimed was about $5,500. Ritchie, the defendant, denied the purchase. The case was tried last week, and yesterday the jury rendered a verdict for plaintiff for $236 77. Tuorn and Diehl for plaintiff; D, Dougherty and Orawford for defendant.

Chas. Shenkel vs. Sarsh Prael. An action to recover on book account for goods sold and delivered.
The defence denied that the credit for the goods was given to the defendant, but to her daughrer, a married woman, against whose husband the action should have been brought. Verdict for plaintiff, $141.43. married woman, against whose husband the action should have been brought. Verdiet for plaintiff; $141.43.

Thomas P. Rhodes vs. Mary Frances Adams and Thomas L. Bailey. An action in ejectment to recover possession of the property southeast corner of Eighth and Arch street. The plaintiff claims title under a sheriff's deed, he having purchased at sheriff's sale when the property was sold as that of Joshua L. Bailey. The defendant Adams is the tenant holding under the other defendant, Thomas L. Bailey, who derives title from Joshua L. Bailey, the property having been conveyed to him by the latter before the judgment under which it was sold by the sheriff. On trial. F. C. Brewster for plaintiff; Longstreth for defendant. District Court—Judge Sharswood. A. Hunsicker vs. Geo. Merritt. An action in eject-ment. Jury out. No other case was tried. Court of Common Pleas—Judge Allison.
Jury trials were reaumed in this court yesterday,
and will be continued during the week. The feigned issue list will be taken up next Monday two weeks. Common Pleas-Judge Ludlow. Common Pleas-Judge Ludlow.

Logan vs. Logan. This was rule for alimony, pending proceedings for a divorce. A writ of habeas corpus, touching the custody of a little boy, the son of the parties, was before the court at the same time, and was heard with the rule for alimony. The boy is now with the father, the respondent, and the writ was taken by the mother, who seeks to have be boy delivered to her keeping. After hearing, the matter was held under advisement. E. S. Miller for the libellant; J. P. O'Neill and H. M. Phillips for respondent. Court of Quarter Seasions—Judge Thompson.

Jacob and Louisa Sentz, both well-known shop-lifters, were tried on three several bills for Isrceny. They were arrested, it seems, together, on suspicion of having just atolen some clothing from the store of Eldridge & Co. Market street, and the goods were found on their persons, part in the possession of each. The defence, as to the woman, (there was no defence as to the man,) was that, being married and in the company of her husband when the larcenies were committed, she was, in law, to be supposed to have acted under the indiuence and coercion of her husband, and should therefore be acquitted. The judge charged the jury that, if they believed the woman was acting under coercion, the verdict, as to her, should be one of acquittal. The jury convicted the man and acquitted the woman. Sentz, having been recognized by the Mayor as an old offender, was sentenced, altogether, to an imprisonment of two years and six months. The wife was advised by the judge to go home to New York, where she belonged, for if she came before him again it could not be set up as a defence in her behalf that she was "coerced" by her husband, he being in prison; and it might be that she would be sent to dwell, not in the same apartment, but under the same roof with him.

Geo. Styles, who pleaded guilty, last week, to a charge of bigamy; was sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment.

Amanda Hendricks, for larceny, was sentenced to an assault and battery on a comrade, named John Sloan, with intent to kill, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment. The affair occurred at a house at Sixth and South streets a week since, the weapon used being a knife, with which Sloan was stabled in the arm, but not seriously. The two youths had been riding together all day, and Sloan was much intoxicated. Sloan desired that Riley should not be punnshed at all, as he was satisfied he entertained no ill-will against him, and did not know what he was about. Court of Quarter Sessions-Judge Thomp-(Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.)

Several scenes at the Central Station, yesterday, are worthy of a passing notice, to which the moral may be applied by the reader.

An educated and wealthy man, just from sea, was arraigned on the charge of stealing a hyma-book from a church. The fact caused much excitement among his friends. His character for honesty has never been questioned. He had made a pretty heavy deposit of money in bank at an early hour in the morning, and about noon he entered the church, picked up a hymn-book from a pew, put it into his pocket, walked away, was arrested, and committed. It was subsequently sacertained that he had inhibed freely of "Brandy that won't hurt you;" and it was under the influence of his especial iduor that he took the book. His friends contend that he could not have taken the book with felonious intent. The officers of the law will probably think so, too.

An Amicable Couple.

A red-faced man, with gray hair and sharp features, appeared against his wife, a thick-set, fat woman, with one of her eyes clothed in the habiliments of mourning. He charged her with drunkenness. Both parties were from the Emerald Lise.

"My wife," said the husband, "gets drunk, yer honer, air."

"How often?"
