The Trade in Petroleum.

To the Editor of The Press:

Sign: The vast trade that has sprung up in petroleum, within the last three or four years, in this and other cities, renders it an article of great commercial importance; and as a Philadelphian interested deeply in our business prosperity. I feel anxious that our city should become the great oil mart of the country. Nor is this improbable or impracticable, it our citizens evinee the activity and enterprise which ought to characterize them. I am sorry to say, however, that a city of muot a smaller population, on the Extreme western border of the Commonwealth, and with much more limited means, has thus far out stripped us completely in her efforts to secure to her people the profit; and devantages of this most increative article of trade and export. Why is this? Is it on account of the superior energy of her citizens, o because of the unaccountable and inexunsable indifference of our capitalists and business men to cur true said plapable interests? Some may attribute it to the fact that the citizens of Pittsburg were nearer the vast oil fields of the Northwey, and on that account were earlier awakend to the value and magnitude of these oil deposits, and to the probable extent of the trade growing out of their development; but it is still inexplicable to me that we have not been sooned aroused to the immense importance of this subject, and to that of securing to our people the handling and manufacture of the almost incredible quantities of petroleum that have the world for a market, and can recer be supplanted by any arriele of numan skill our production. The principal portion of the oil business of the country can easily be on the oil of the country of the subject, and to have the real interest of the rowell join in the minor of they. Mr. Entior, if proper stop are laken to secure it; and I trust to warm of the oil our surplus capital in this direction. Nearly five years ago. Prof C. H. BOLLES located himself in the city of Philadelphia, at 1220 Walnut street, and announced his great discovery in the therapentic application of Magnetiam. Galvaniam, and other modifications of Electricity for the cure of the most obstinate, acute, and chronic diseases.

In amouncing to the public a discovery so intimately connected with the well-being of our race, it may be deemed proper to make a few prefatory remarks to prepare the mind of the reader for the reception of evidences and facts too incredible for belief.

This discovery is the result of more than ten years' hard and scientific investigation. It develops not only a reliable system for the diagnosis of disease but the only efficient and reliable means of cure. Its great superiority over all other systems for the cure of disease has been practically tested for more than ten years, and for nearly aveyears in Philadelphia, where twelve thousand invalids have been treated, anfering from almost every form and condition of disease common to all sections of our country, who, after treatment by the most eminent medical men in Philadelphia, Boston, New York, and other cities, had been given up as insurable; and in rearily every case a perfect cure had been effected by Professor BOLLES.

Many of the most obstinate of the above cases treated, had been warranted by special contract, and not a failure has been made in any warranted case. As indubited evidence of the foregoing statement, Professor BOLLES has adduced in the following advertisement, teatimonials from citizens of Philadelphia, who had suffered from a compilication of diseases, for four, ten, and ever thirty year, and had availed themselves of the best medical skill in this and other cities, and were given up as incurable, but afterwards were fully restored to health by a few applications of Bicctricity. Such an array of evidence as will hereafter appear in this advertisement, is not merely to show that Professor BOLLES has made an important discover ARE NOW READY BALE OF SAXONY-WOYEN DRESS (1918)

This assertion may look like boasting, but it is true, every word of it; for who ever heard of such astonishing cues? As if by magic. COM PLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS.—FROM MEDICAL MER AND UTBERS.—At the close of a Course of Lectures of Lectures of Celtures of Professor C. H. collies, who has been developing his discovery for nearly four years, at 1220 Walnut street, in the city of Phindelphia, in the application of Galvanism, Magnetism, and other modifications of Electricity, the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Resolved. That as we have been eye witnesses for many weeks in the Institution of Prof. Bolles, and have good reason to believe that he has discovered new principles in the application of the different modific tions of Saccricity to the various diseased conditions of the human system; and that, in the treatment of different diseases, we have been convinced that, in his hand, as also his students, the application of Electricity is a reliable theory of disease and mode of cure.

Accolocal. That in our judgment, the prilosophy advanced, and so clearly demonstrated in the Gourse of Lectures, is entirely new and original with Professor Bolles, and not known to the Medical Profession, and that the great success which has attended his practice in this city is alone the result of his scientific discovery of Electrical laws hitherto anknown to man, and that the many failures of other men in this city, using this number of the tree professor of the human race in approximating particles of the professor of the human race in approximating the professor of the hu GREAT SALE OF UNCLAIMED EXPRESS COM.
