CABINET TRAL FAIR FOR THE GHEAT CENSION—PRILADEPHA, 1307 CHESTORE OF THE GHEAT CENSION—PRILADEPHA, 1307 CHESTORE TORREN, March, 1864—The Committee on Finance and Donations of the Great Central Fair appeal for contributions in MOMEY to those of their fellow-citizens who do not propose sending to the Fair the products of their skill and industry. By farthe larger portion of the money received on the occasion of the Fairs held for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission in Cincinnati, Boston, and Brooklyn, was derived from direct donations in CASH, and not from the proceeds of the sale of articles exposed. What the Sanitary Commission needs to afford relief to the sick and wounded soldiers is money, in large amounts and from all sources. We call, then, upon all bankers, corporations, capitalists, persons living upon incomes, processional or otherwise; in about, upon all who will not be represented in the Fair by their productions, to imitate the example of those who will, and to contribute liberally in money for this great object. In New York, although their Fair is not to be held for two weeks, contributions of more than $20,000 in cash have been already received, a single department of trade, that of dry goods, having made up more than half that sum. Brooklyn and Cincinnati have each contributed as much in money, and certainly the wealth, liberality, and patrotism of Philadelphia can hardly be considered as less conspleuous than that of these communities. Contributions will be thankfully received by any of the members of the Committee.

Also, RECORD OF THE REBELLIOE. By Frank Roors. The undersigned have been appointed to represent the constituencies of the above Department in the GREAT CEMTRAL Falls at Philadelphia, which will excel all preceding Fairs in the extent of its prosperous visitors from the distributing and consuming classes.

They appeal to merchants, to manufacturers, and others, at home and abroad, to send at once, to any of the members of the Committee here asmed, such donations of MONRY or goods, as they shall deem suitable, in aid of the object of the Fair.

These need be no fear that too much can be sent, as the Trade stand ready to purchase from the Dapartment any excess of goods, while no guarantee is needed for the humane employment of all the funds entrusted to that noble Commitsion, the results of whose labors are so noisworthy, that they are carefully chronicled throughout the Christian world.

Donations through this Committee will be duly acknowledged in those leading american journals most likely to be seen by the respective donors. Due credit for the litems and the aggregate will be given in the records of the Fair, and it is expected into the send with the achievements of other interests will not be other than creditable to those represented by this Committee.

To the credit of the trade, dealers in the above lines of goods should find no difficulty in a transfer for the benefit of their own department, of any engagement site of these citizens on whose humanity they rely for these of these citizens con whose humanity they rely for the sold of the undersigned to call or send for their neighbors at home. Let contributors who are ready notify any of the undersigned to call or send for their neighbors at home. Let contributors who are ready notify any of the undersigned to call or send for their gifts.

Contributors who make individual and collective donations to this cause are themselves, in effect, good Samaritans in battle-field and hospital, retileving our prostrate fees as well as succoring the gallant defenders of our advanced civilization, who chance to suffe MILITARY.
