The motion was then put to strike out the word forgery, on the ground that Hev. Jonce did not sign Bishop Naz-rey's name in the suit against Bishop Green. The mo-tion to strike out was lost. Rev. Central Station. There were no cases of general interest brought up at the Central Station since Friday. A bag of wool preity large in size awaits an owner at the station. On Satur-day evening several parties were arrested by the police for drunkenness and disorderly conduct in the stroots. It seems that several parties were travelling around, and whenever any person should happen to say any thing of a disparaging character in reference to the Go-vernment or the army, he was immediately knocked down. One person received a fracture of his jaw from a single first blow. There were several such scenes ou "Third street, between Chestant and Dock; one or two near Fourth and Chestnut, and an indefinite number further westward on that great thoroughfare. These street affairs caused more or less excitement; some ar-peat to make any charge, the parties were admitted to bail to be of future good belavior.

[Before Mr. Alderman Brazer.]

Alleged Larceny and Embezzlement. A man named Meyer was arraigned, on Friday eve-ning, on the charge of larceny and embezzlement. The complainant is a widow. Shortly after the decease of her husband, she placed the business in charge of Meyer, her brother-in-law, for settlement. It is alleged that he misappropriated the funds, etc. He was held in the sum of $1,000 to answer at court.
