which, Cincinnati, O.; Hon, J. R. Doollittle, Racine, Wis. An invitation from the Union League to the Union to visit their rooms was received. On the motion to accept, Rev. J. P. Hall opposed the acceptance of the invitation. It was the first time that he, had known a religious body to accept an invitation to visit a club room of a distinct political party. This caused considerable sensation. Mr. John Hanna, of this city, denied that the Union League was a politi-cal organization. It was a league for the purpose of as-sisting in suppressing the most causeless and wieked re-bellion that had ever existed, and ho, as member of the I cauge, felt it his duty to make this explanation. The invitation was accepted, a vote of thanks returned therefor, and 93¢ clock in the evening lixed for the time of the visit.

therefor, and 9% o'cicotk in the evening maxed for the time of the visit. REFEIT OF THE COMMITTEE ON OBITUARIES. The Committee on Obitancies reported that on looking back upon the fifty years of the history of our foreign missionary organization, they find a long succession of saintly men, who, from their labors of love in connec-tion with this society, have gone to their eternal reward. In the home sphere, among these who have gone to a better world, they noticed the weil-known names of Deacon Sunnel Sanderson, of Brooklyn, Mass.; Hou, James Linnard, of this eity; Rev. John Sisty, of the same place: Leacon Jonathan Bachelor, of Lynu, Mass ; Deacon Wm. Hilman, of New York, and Kev. Gordon Robins, of Hariford, Conn. Of Deacon Sanderson, long a member of the Excentive Committee of the Miss-sionary Union, it may be safely said that he was "ta good man," of excellent indigment, inflexible integrity, and unitring zeal in the Service of Christ. Reap-pointed a momber of the Excentive Committee at the last annual meeting of the Board, he declined to serve on account of his is own Commonwealth, and had been President of the Massachusetts Expits State Conven-tion. He died as he lived, in the aspired hope of the pospel, leaving behind him in the community where he lived, and wherever he was known, a fragrance of the lived, and wherever he was known, a fragrance of the lived, and wherever he was known, as fragrance of holi-ness and heaven. Hen, James Linnard, of Philadelphia, one of the best pospi, leaving behind him in the community where he lived, and wherever he was known, a fragrance of holi-ness and heaven. Hou, James Linnard, of Philadelphia, one of the best of men, noble-hearted and open-hauded, gave himself to the cause of Christ in mature life, and during the whole of his consistent and useful career illustrated the beauty and power of our holy religion. A man of ad-mirably balanced mind, and a heart burning with love to God and man, he devoted much of his time and at-tention to the various causes of Christian benevolence. That of foreign missions was especially doar to his heart. For years a member of the Board, occasionally presiding in our meetings, and always contributing to list funds, no man did more in proportion to his means for this noble object. Less known, perhaps, and wielding an inferior pub-lies induced of honor the name of filer. John Sisty, who was intimately associated with those great and good men who commend the missionary en-terprise, and continued to love the cause to he day of his trinds, and happy death. The others before mentioned were also fittingly enlo-gized. The report was accepted.

Affention of Session, --The Union reassembled at 3 o'clock. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Arnolù, of Humilton, N. Y. Rev. J. G. Warren, D. D., corresponding secretary of the society, read an address on THR MISSIONS IN THEIR RETROSPECTIVE AND PROS-PECTIVE ASPECTC.

The address took the ground that the missionaries abroad and the native Convrices should assume more and more of the responsibility of the details and dis Dursements in missionary administration now exercised by the Board of the Executive Committee. Rev. M. B. Anderson, LL.D., president of the Uni-versity of Rochester, offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted, viz: Resolved. That we commend the sentiments ex-pressed in the address of the corresponding secretary on the future of our missions zhroad to the extract and houghtful consideration of the missionaries of this Board, and that they be requested, so far as possible, to give practical efficiency to the principles which it con-tains.

give practical efficiency to the principles which it con-tains. Rev. B. Stow, D. D., of Boston, offered the memorial recelutions

Rev. B. Stow, D. D., of Boston, offered the memorial resolutions.
The corresponding secretary read a letter from the Mon. and Rev. Baptist W. Noel, D. D., of London.
Rev. D. C. Eddy, D. D., of Philadelphia, read a communication from the Baptist Union of England and Ireland, as follows:
BAPTIST LIBRART, LONDON, April 25, 1864.
To the Bit Contential Concention of Baptized Bitteers in the Lord Jesus, assembled in Philadelphia, readiation from the Saptist Union of Great Britain and Fredard Sector Sciences and Christian Salutations:
BELOVED AND HONORED BUETURES. We have received with sincere pleasure the total soft your approaching meetings, and are anxious to be allowed the privilege, on so anspicious an occasion, of assuring you of the deep sympathy we leel in all your holy undertakings, and are discusted to your missionary and other Evangelical labors.

sympathy we feel in all your holy undertakings, and our especial joy at the great blessing which it has pleased Almighty God to pour out on your missionary and other Evangelical labors. Alike in the origin and in the subsequent progress of your Missionary Union, we recognize with devout and reverential gratitude the manifest interposition of Di-vine Power and Goodness. It was God only who gave to Adoniram Judson so exalted a spirit of faith, who enabled him to practice such apostolic self-denial, and who crowned the toils of his faithful servant with such an abnulant measure of success. And we heartily magnify the grace of God in you, brethren biloved, in that the manife of Judson has failen on not a few of his successors, and a like copiousness of blessing has attended their labors. We note with adoring admi-ration how the way has been opened before you by the hand of Providence, and your faithful missionaries, workmen who need not to be ashamed of their work, have zealously builded the temple of the Lord, both in the East and West. Your labors in Burmah and Ghina have been provocative of our zeal, and the blessing that has rested upon fluem an encouragement to our faith. We contemplate with especial satisfaction the mission which you have so materially aided, and which, in-deed, under God, is indelted to you for for its origin in the States of Continental Europe, cherishing the highest esteem, affection, pure and unfeigned, for our beloved brother Cricken, we cannot but regard him as a greatly bonored servant of the Lord, a vessel visibly sauctified for the Master's use, and have watched with througe preached by Y him and his devoted betheren, as the as sprend through Germany, Sweden, Poland, and Russia. And as we contemplate the scene, we are led to indig the house and could duce that our gracious God has yet greater triumphs in re-serve, so that the througe the Masto's, so on ges-tablished' in Europe, and ruling the nations with a rod of four, shall be greatly shakken, perhaps eventually coverthrowm, b
