Butto give a safe-maker six hours, with nullmited power and labor, to grind a hole through a Safe-door, is simply preposterous. But when the writer is disposed to have his safe fairly tested by the side of Lillie's, his success will entitte him to public confidence.  In conclusion, I wish to impress upon the reader the following points: As has already been shown, a Safe to be burglar-proof, must be drill proof; that a hole through the door into the lock is fatal. The door mush he of sufficient strength and thickness to hold the lock	FOR SALE AND EXCHANGE.—A large number of farms in the adjoining countie convenient to the city.
