Tot Brown and White and Blue and White and split The early speeches of Mr. Lincoln speak for themselves, and form a very important and interesting portion of this blography, and ARE,NOT GIVEN IN ANY OTHER VOLUME. The History of Mr. Lincoln's Administration has been prepared from official documents and authebtic materials, and ombodies an accuments and authebtic naterials, and ombodies an accuments and authebtic outline, history of the war to the opening of the present active campaign under General Grant. A general view of the policy of President Lincoln is given, with his messages and proclamations complete; also his speeches, and numerous letters and despatches not otherwise accessible. A marked feature of interest in the work, is the history of the celebrated Peninsular Campaign of General McClellan. In prearing this chapter, it is evident THE AUTHOR HAS HAD ACCESS TO UNUSUAL SURCES OF INFORMATION. The work will be found to have a permanent value as a courribution to the political history of the present oventful times, and to be a reliable book of reference for all who are interested in Political or Military affairs.

FOR SALE.—The death of George W. Pearce, Bsq., proprietor of this paper, makes it necessary to dispose of the establishment. In the hands of a loval, earnest, and enterprising man, this long-established journal cannot fall to be profitable. Circulating, as it does, extensively in a county of seventy-four thousand inhabitants, and in a Congressional and Senatorial District of one hundred and five thousand, prominent for wealth and intelligence, and where the Union party at the last election had a majority of over four thousand votes, and with a constantly increasing popularity and harronage, it requires nothing but judicious management to make it alucrative investment.

Persons contemplating a purchase should make that fact known at once, as it is desirable to sell-at the sarliest day.
