

The Press

SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 1864.

As the Copperheads have abandoned the campaign, and find nothing in the career of President Lincoln and Governor Lincoln...

A National Militia System.

A thorough State and national militia system has long been a standing necessity of our Republic. It has become one of the chief ideas of politicians, and is a conviction among all our public men...

We have thus endeavored to explore the subject in its broadest scope, but its present bearing is a matter of near and sheer necessity. We have had many of our soldiers...

The dangers which we have rehearsed appear to have passed away, now that Grant is at the gate of Richmond. Without disputing this point, it is very clear that the immediate necessity of a militia system...

The national bill lately proposed in Congress occurs to us as satisfactory to these requirements. Its superiority to any State bill is, that it includes State action in the immediate service of the general Government...

The gentlemen who have in hand, as it seems, the cast-off political clothing of the rebellion, and the stock and apparatus of the new political chicanery, have resolved to postpone the Chicago Convention...

The worm of miller nuisance, and the penny policy of the passenger roads, appear to be the two favorite minor problems of the hour. A correspondent, in such a spirit, responds to a brief and earnest letter, requesting the offer of a reward of one penny for the head of every miller...

Between Two Fires.

Lord Palmerston is experiencing the ill effects of having no definite policy as to Denmark. It may be safely assumed that his own sympathy is in favor of Denmark...

Mr. Johnson offered the following, which was read: That the President of the United States be authorized to call into the service of the United States any and all militia of the several States...

Mr. Johnson offered the following, which was read: That the President of the United States be authorized to call into the service of the United States any and all militia of the several States...

Mr. Johnson offered the following, which was read: That the President of the United States be authorized to call into the service of the United States any and all militia of the several States...

Mr. Johnson offered the following, which was read: That the President of the United States be authorized to call into the service of the United States any and all militia of the several States...

Mr. Johnson offered the following, which was read: That the President of the United States be authorized to call into the service of the United States any and all militia of the several States...

Mr. Johnson offered the following, which was read: That the President of the United States be authorized to call into the service of the United States any and all militia of the several States...

Mr. Johnson offered the following, which was read: That the President of the United States be authorized to call into the service of the United States any and all militia of the several States...

Mr. Johnson offered the following, which was read: That the President of the United States be authorized to call into the service of the United States any and all militia of the several States...

Mr. Johnson offered the following, which was read: That the President of the United States be authorized to call into the service of the United States any and all militia of the several States...

THE WAR.

Skirmishing on Tuesday.

A Union Battery, surprised the Rebels near Hills Corps. Wilson's Cavalry destroying the Weldon Railroad.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Major Hurl, of the 11th Massachusetts, slightly wounded in the action. It is reported that the 11th New York Battery has not yet been reformed.

A FIGHT WITH HILLS CORPS.

At 2 1/2 A.M. Wilson's division of cavalry moved off in the direction of the Weldon Railroad. When they reached the station, they were met by the Hills Corps.

POISON IN THE CAMP.

At 5 A.M. all other goods shall pay the following prices: Coffee, 150 per 100 lbs. Sugar, 100 per 100 lbs. Flour, 100 per 100 lbs.

NEW YORK CITY.

Special Correspondence of The Press. New York, June 25, 1864. A most terrific storm, characterized by a heavy rain and a strong wind, was experienced here on Tuesday.

DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF.

Arrival of Gen. Sickles at New Orleans. Gen. Canby on a visit to Admiral Farragut. The French man-of-war, the Tripartite, Commander Duport, has arrived at New Orleans.

RAILROAD AND TERRITORIAL MATTERS.

Mr. Davis offered notice of a resolution. The bill making appropriations for general purposes of the Government for the fiscal year ending on the 30th day of September next.

WASHINGTON.

Congressional Appropriations. The President has appointed John W. Foster, New York, as counsel at large, to be counsel at large, to be counsel at large.

WASHINGTON.

Congressional Appropriations. The President has appointed John W. Foster, New York, as counsel at large, to be counsel at large, to be counsel at large.

WASHINGTON.

Congressional Appropriations. The President has appointed John W. Foster, New York, as counsel at large, to be counsel at large, to be counsel at large.

VOTES AT THE SANITARY FAIR.

Vote of the Fair. The following are the names of the donors: Mrs. J. B. Smith, $100; Mrs. J. C. Jones, $50; Mrs. J. D. Brown, $25.

VOTES OF THE FAIR.

Vote of the Fair. The following are the names of the donors: Mrs. J. B. Smith, $100; Mrs. J. C. Jones, $50; Mrs. J. D. Brown, $25.

VOTES OF THE FAIR.

Vote of the Fair. The following are the names of the donors: Mrs. J. B. Smith, $100; Mrs. J. C. Jones, $50; Mrs. J. D. Brown, $25.

VOTES OF THE FAIR.

Vote of the Fair. The following are the names of the donors: Mrs. J. B. Smith, $100; Mrs. J. C. Jones, $50; Mrs. J. D. Brown, $25.

VOTES OF THE FAIR.

Vote of the Fair. The following are the names of the donors: Mrs. J. B. Smith, $100; Mrs. J. C. Jones, $50; Mrs. J. D. Brown, $25.

VOTES OF THE FAIR.

Vote of the Fair. The following are the names of the donors: Mrs. J. B. Smith, $100; Mrs. J. C. Jones, $50; Mrs. J. D. Brown, $25.

VOTES OF THE FAIR.

Vote of the Fair. The following are the names of the donors: Mrs. J. B. Smith, $100; Mrs. J. C. Jones, $50; Mrs. J. D. Brown, $25.

VOTES OF THE FAIR.

Vote of the Fair. The following are the names of the donors: Mrs. J. B. Smith, $100; Mrs. J. C. Jones, $50; Mrs. J. D. Brown, $25.

VOTES OF THE FAIR.

Vote of the Fair. The following are the names of the donors: Mrs. J. B. Smith, $100; Mrs. J. C. Jones, $50; Mrs. J. D. Brown, $25.

VOTES OF THE FAIR.

Vote of the Fair. The following are the names of the donors: Mrs. J. B. Smith, $100; Mrs. J. C. Jones, $50; Mrs. J. D. Brown, $25.

Another testimony will be found in the letter from Mrs. Waller, whose high standing as a woman and her excellent qualifications as a writer are well known.

CITY ITEMS.

The Vendor of Threadstubs. The Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine, sold at the elegant Brown-Stone Warehouse, No. 70 Chestnut street.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE SACRIFICIAL. A victim of misfortune sought in the most noble manner. The following is a list of names and addresses.

A CHEERFUL VENTURE.

FOR RENT. A large stock and best assortment of Clothing in Philadelphia, which is kept full and fresh by large daily additions.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT. A large stock and best assortment of Clothing in Philadelphia, which is kept full and fresh by large daily additions.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT. A large stock and best assortment of Clothing in Philadelphia, which is kept full and fresh by large daily additions.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT. A large stock and best assortment of Clothing in Philadelphia, which is kept full and fresh by large daily additions.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT. A large stock and best assortment of Clothing in Philadelphia, which is kept full and fresh by large daily additions.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT. A large stock and best assortment of Clothing in Philadelphia, which is kept full and fresh by large daily additions.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT. A large stock and best assortment of Clothing in Philadelphia, which is kept full and fresh by large daily additions.