EXCELLENT HOME FOR SOLDIERS.

EXCELLENT HOME FOR SOLDIERS. There is a well-organized Soldiers' Home located at the corner of Race and Crown streets, where the brave men who have been maimed for life can be made comfortable, and where they are treated with great dignity. This Soldier's Home omanated from the Cooper Shop Volunteer Refreshment Com-mittee, and it is supervised by a number of kind-hearted ladies and contlemen. There is no occasion for any soldier of the Union army, no matter how badly wounded, to become a pauper, simply dependfor any solution in the become a pauper, simply depend-badly wounded, to become a pauper, simply depend-ing on the acked-for charity of our citizens. Dread-fully wounded soldiers have been at different times at both the Volunteer Rofreshment Saloons. These places are not the right kind for the accommodation of such soldiers as have lost their arms or their legs. places it's hot the right share to the account of the hot larger share to be account of the infortunate braves, of such solviers as have lost their arms or their legs. At the present time two of the unfortunate braves, one without legs and the other without arms, are at the Union Saloon, and it seems that a direct appeal has been made through the newspaper press in their behalf. Whother this appeal was official or not wo do not know. It is to be hoped not, as such an ap-peal tends to paraperize the soldiors. They are fuelpless for life, and fluxt command and will have the attention of every loyal resident in the country. The Soldiers' Home at Face and Crown streets was organized and it is sustained by thousands of our organized and it is sustained by thousands of our citizens, for just such soldiers as those that seem to citizens, for just such soldiers who have buttled for the are asked. The soldiers who have buttled for the and other the best treatment, and they cor-country deserve the best treatment, and they cor-country deserve the best treatment, and they cor-country deserve the sumpathy of surrounding friends.

COUNTERFEIT NOTES SEIZED.

On Saturday evening Samuel White, otherwise known as "Quaker Sam," was arranged at the Central Station on the charge of dealing in, or at-tempting to pass counterfeit notes. He was com-mitted to await a hearing to take place on Wednes-

Lemith Station on the charge of double in other tempting to pass counterfeit notes. He was committed to await a hearing to take place on Wednesday afternoon.
There will be a nice question of law to be decided in this case. It seems that Messrs G. H. Smith and Taggert, of the detective force, were in Adams & Oo.'s express office on Saturday afternoon, when the prisoner entered. He stepped up to the clerk, and presenting a receipt, demanded a certain package. Just as the clerk was handing it to him the prisoner entered. He stepped up to the clerk, and presenting a receipt, demanded a certain package. Just as the clerk was handing it to him the prisoner discovered the detectives, and declined receiving the very article that only a moment before he had demanded.
"Hare's your package, sir," said the clerk.
"On, of the detectives arrested him, and the other obtained the package. Up on opening it the sum of $1,000 in counterfeit $5 notes was found. These notes are pretty well engraved in some parts, but one or two figures are badly executed. They purport to be the gennine issue of the Hingham Bank, Sinte of Massenbusetis. They were sont from New York on Saturday, and it is believed that other packages of the same kind were forwarded to Pitts burg, Baltimore, and Washington, for circulation on the Fourth of July.

This is a point that publishers of counterfeit detectors do not seem to know anything about.

[Before Mr. Alderman Dougherty.]

LARCENY. A fellow giving the name of Frank Colter was committed on Saturday to answer the charge of lar-ceny. It is alleged that he employed a drayman to load up goods in front of stores, and thus have them hauled away. The same kind of robbery was brought to the notice of another magistrate a few days since, the publication of which in The Press has pluced storekeepers generally on their guard.

[Before Mr. Alderman White.]

LARCENY CASE.

LARCENY CASE. Joseph Valentine was arraigned on Saturday evening on the charge of the larceny of two demi-johns of liquor, the property of Bridget McNatt, No, 604 South Sitth street. It seems that Bridget had moved to the house on the eleventh of May, and desiring to treat the party, said she would do so if anybody-would go for the liquor. Valentine offer-anybody-would go for the liquor. Valentine offer-ed his services, and, in company with a daughter of the mover, wont after the liquor and obtained the same; on the return he slipped away from the daughter, hid in an alley, and was not seen until Saturday ovening, He was then arrested. The ac-cused was bound over to answer at court. ROBEERY ON SULTBOARD. ROBBERY ON SUIPBOARD.

Robert Frazer, William Lowrie, and Hugh Kelly, were committed yesterday to answer the charge of stealing a hawser, the property of Capt. Ellenwood, from on board a bark in the Delaware, near Market-street wharf. The property stolen was valued at one hundred dollars.

. OWNER WANTED.

A quantity of female clothing, children and adult, underciches, &c., and a pair of new gaitors, await an owner at the Union-street station house. They were taken from a woman named Ann Thompson, who was arrested at Fourth and Pine streets at four o'clock yesterday morning.
