French Art.

TWO PIOTURES BY MEISSONIER.-This painter has already made the acquaintance of the lovers of art in Philadelphia, through his little miniature o "The Trumpeter," lately on exhibition at the Art Gallery of the Sanitary Fair. It is in the stric sense of the word a gem. Although small, it is so faultless, so unique, so charming in its naturalness, that as high as $5,000 has been offered for its posses-sion. There are two pictures from his pencil now sion. There are two pictures roun its point now on exhibition in Faris-one entitled "A Retreat in 1814," and the other, "The Emperor at Solferino." He has attained the same wonderful success in these two as in "The Trumpeter," and shows more than ordinary talent. Of the "Retreat," a grand picture, the London Times says:

these two as in "The Trumpoter," and shows more than ordinary talent. Of the "Retreat," a grand picture, the Londou Times says: "Under a cold, cheeriess sky, covered with mist, pouring sleet on the earth, we see a number of hersemen riding along at a slow pace. It is the Emperor, followed by his staff, while a column of the army follows at some distance. The subject is the campaign of 1814, in which Napoleon's genius phowed itself greater than, portups, at any time during his wonderful carcer. The ground they ride over is broken up into deep ruts by the new, ritillery, or trainpled into small heaps of mud, colored, by the half-melted snow which men themselves broken down with long fight-ing, long, watching, and forced marches, We porceive than the scene; the garments of the mon are soaked through with sleet, and tho men themselves broken down with long fight-ing, long, watching, and forced marches, We porceive that no sound is heard but the horses' hooks and the monotonous staff that ride behind the Emperor but whose countenance talls a tale of exhaustion and almost of despair. The Emperor himself, mounted on a whith thor riding-whip hang-ing from a thong round the wrist thrust into the breast of his gray overceat, which reaches to his face, and is closely buttoned round him, rides a stone, betray no futyue and no consolicanses of the intenting some new plan of battle. Nothing can be more intensely resolue than the expression of hard, and not yet exhausted in resources, ho was conceiving some new plan of battle. Nothing can be more intensely resolue than the or spression of that face; but it expresses no hop of success-nothing but the fiercerisoive to struggle to the very last. He moves on wrapped up in his thoughts, and insensible to all around. The officers of his staff fol-low him, their uniforms wholey op a strong the staff of here, and the grees of the staff of the conset in ground and or conseines as thread as shorily recomized in his old brown surtout, fas-tended only by a single button, which, you ensity detect the dramatics when then alls in their back, and the shakoso it he mounted officers above the column." RosA BoxHEVE has contributed two pictures to the French exhibition which are, it is said, alone worth the journey to the Palace to see; one is a de-lightfully natural picturesque scene of Landais peasunts, returning home with their flocks of sheep and goats collected from the wide plains. The shepherds, dressed in their sheepskin jackets and lengings, are striding anongst the sheep upon short stills, which give a most singul rlook to the pictures at first sight; but this odd rulse, which makes the wild-looking fellows look ike some strange kind of being, half man half satyr, is so truly and faithfully painfed, that we soon take in the meaning off it, and find ourselves amongst the sheep so waring these stills to protect the shins, keep above the host and dust, and to see far over the flock after stragglers or accidents. This picture is amongst those which have been engraved. The other picture is one of Mille. Bonheur's Highland studies in the Highlands, londed with sheep, and two lusty "gillies" pulling stoutly at the cars. The enson parently with which this crowd of rightened, panting sheep, all cranmed together in a simal boat, have been pot in the least appearance of squeezing, flattening, and oripping, or any of the other de-formities of a less periest master of animal painting, is something astonishing. There is a life-like paint-ding the discontent.

A BIRTH-MARK.-A California paper, published A BIRTH-MARK.—A California paper, published in Amador county, gives a very curious physiologi-cal fact. In the southern portion of the county lives a man who has been in the habit of abusing his family. A few days since he seized a hammer, and threatened to kill his wife. That night she gave birth to a still-born child, and across its fore-head was the print of a hammer! It created conside-rable excitement in the neighborhood, and if a jus-tice had been there the monster would have been avreated

'The Oldizens' Volunieer Substitute Committee have matured a plan to assist in raising troops in view of the coming draft, by aiding citizens ito pro-curing substitutes, and facilitating the payment of bounties, which is as follows: Enrolled citizens who desire to furnish substitutes in advance of the draft, will pay the sum of four hundred dollars to the trensurer, J. G. Rosengarten, Esq., southeast corner of Sixth and Walnut streets, receiving his acknow-ledgment that the money will be returned if a cer-tificate of exemption is not produced, and giving him a power of attorney, duly stamped, to collect the city bounty for the benefit of the substitute. The names of applicants will be registered in the-order of their application, and certificates of ex-emption will be procured and furnished in that or-der. As soon as the certificate is obtained, the prin-cipal will be notified through the post offlose that it is ready for dolivery on return of the treasurer's receipt, when the duty of the committee will cease. The committee will receive applications at all hours of the day. RELATIVE TO THE DRAFT. $2,270,000 was raised. ONE HUNDRED DAYS' MEN. The bill from Select Council appropriating $25 bounty to one hundred days' mon was taken up. Mr. LOUGHLYN (O.) moved to make the amount $50 to each recruit, and moved an appropriation of $10,000 for that purpose Accord to 500 to each recruit, and moved an appropriation of $100,000 for that purpose. Agreed to. UNION SQUARE. Mr. GRAY (U.) called up a bill from Select Coun-cil relative to accopting and enclosing with an iron ralling the triangular lot at Fifth, Buttonwood, and York avenue, to be called Union Square. After some debate the bill was concurred in. After some debate the bill was concurred in. THE GAS LOAN. Mr. ORESSWELL (U.) called up the bill providing for the extension of the Gas Works, at a cost not ex-ceeding $1,000,000. Mr. ECHSTEIN (U.) moved to strike out $1,000,000, and insert $250,000. Mr. KERR (O.) opposed the amendment, and showed, by the report of the chief engineer of the Gas Works, that a large number of improvements and additions were necessary to keep up the supply of gas, and that the amount asked for was not ex-cessive.

f the day. of the day. GENERAL COURT MARTIAL. The following is a list of officers who constitute the general court martial now in session in this city: Colonel Jas. Gwynn, president; Captain Chas. P. Clarko, Judge advocate; also, Captains Murphy and Dunbar, and Licutenants Goebel and Woodward.

of gas, and that the amount asked for was not ex-cessive. Mr. EVANS (U.) opposed the bill, and contended that the lean was not intended for the purpose of in-creasing the Gas Works, so much as it was wanted for political purposes in the coming campaign. He also contended that the trustees of the Gas Works were not to be trusted with the expenditure of the people's money. Mr. LOUGHLIN (O.) rebuked Mr. Evans, and con-tended, as a point of order, that it was not proper for any member to reflect in Council upon the ona-ractor of the trustees of the gas works, or any other men who were not represented or present in the Chamber. Mr. STORELY (U.) said he was tired of the petty THE ONE-HUNDRED-DAYS MEN. The regiments now forming in this city for one-hundred/days service are slowly, filling up. The Councils passed a bill yesterday increasing the bounty to one-hundred-days men to $50, which will no doubt bring out a large number of recruits. Several companies of the 20th Regiment wore mus-tered in at the custom-house yesterday morning. Colonel Nichols' and Colonel Neff's regiments are being recruited. Also, various independent com-panies which have heretofore existed in the city. The Commercial Regiment of one hundred days' men, under command of Colonel A. A. Lechler, will hold a meeting at Sansom-street Hall this ovening. The Colonel has seen a large amount of active service, and the other officers are experienced inc. Chamber. MI. STOKELY (U.) said he was tired of the petty schemes and plans. used by some members of the Ohamber to retard legislation, and he would not allow it to pass without his protest. Mr. Evans (U.) If the gentleman from the Ninth does not like my action he may lump it. Mr. STOKELY (U.) I will do so, and make the matter a personal one.

THE 20TH REGIMENT P. V. M.

This regiment will go into camp this morning. The advertisement in another column, sets forth that extra inducements are offored for patriots to join at once and go forth to annihilate the daring bandlis who are now committing murder and robbery on the border of the old Keystone State.

Avint does not not not a lateral action he may fump 12.
Mr. STONELY (U.) I will do so, and make the matter a personal one.
Mr. Evans (U.) Very well, str.
The debate was continued at some length, until Mr. BLADY (U.) moyed to postpone till the 17th of September, upon which the yeas and nays were called—yeas 16, mays 19. Not agreed to.
The vote on the amendment of Mr. Eckstein, making the amount $250,000, was taken—yeas 15, mays 20. Lost.
The different sections of the bill then passed.
Mr. STOKELEY (U.) moved an additional section, that none of the loan should be expended until the trustees of the Gas Works reduced the price to $2 25 per thgusand foct.
Mr. KKEM (O.) moved a further amendment, that greenbacks be raised from forty cents on the dollar to par. The Chair Considered this amendment out of order. ARRIVAL OF WOUNDED SOLDIERS. BRIGGS (U.) said that the object of the mo-tion was to allow the advocates of the bill, who saw they had not a two-thirds you, opportunity to mus-ter all their strength at a subsequent meeting. Mir. KERE, (O.) The reason this bill will be post-poned is for the same reason that the bogus conven-tion was postponed, because there were not votes enough to pass it. MISCELLANEOUS.

THE FIFTH AND SIXTH-STREETS RAILROAD. The board of directors of this well-conducted pas-

The board of directors of this well-conductod pas-senger railway company have advanced the wages of the drivers to $2 per dism. This was entirely voluntary on the part of the directors. The wages of other employees were also raised without having been asked for. This road was not represented officially at the meeting of drivers held on Sunday last, a report of which was published in The Press of Monday. We learn that President West opposed the advance rate of fare, but as he was unsuccessful in his laudable efforts on behalf of the traveiling public, it was wisely determined that the employees should come in for a share of the income. The Fifth and Sixth-streets road was built at a very heavy expense, almost as much again as any other read, and yet in the opinion of its president five cents per passenger would yield a handsome profit. The fact is, the majority of the railroads are poor stock, and yet they have an equal vote with such model roads as the Fifth and Sixth streets. If such roads as the Green and Coates, Richmond and Schuylkill, Lombard and South, Callowhill-street, and one or, two others of the simal laffairs, are entitled to one vote each in the board of presi-dents, such a road as the Fifth and Sixth is en-titled to half a dozen votes to make a fair, square contest on any subject. THE FUNERAL OF ADAM KEEN. The motion of Mr. CRESSWELL to postpone for the present was then agreed to. THE JOINT CONVENTION. The president and members of Select Council then came into Common Council Chamber for the pur-pose of electing a Guardian of the Poor. No quorum answering to their names, the conven-tion adjourned to next Wednesday at 4 P. M. An ordinance from Select Council insking an ap-propriation to the Franklin Hose and Steam Fire Engine Company, was taken up and concurred in. MIN GRAY (U.), chairman of the concurred in. MINANCE COMMITTEE. Mr. GRAY (U.), chairman of the Committee on Finance, reported an ordinance in favor of paying Dr. R. E. Rogers and others for professional ser-vices in making a chemical analysis on the body of Thomas Hackett, and for other purposes. Agreed to.

A resolution instructing Finance Committee to dvertise from time to time for a lean of $1,000,000, or the extension of the waterworks, was referred to Committee on Water. THE FUNERAL OF ADAM KEEN.

THE FUNERAL OF ADAM KEEN. Adam Keen, who was accidentally killed on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore rallroad, on Sunday morning last, was a young man of rare-talent and financial ability. Ho was the confiden-tial clerk of the great establishment of Messrs. Rea-ney, Son; & Archbold, located at Chester, Pa., and was universally esteemed and respected by all classes in that thriving little town. His funoral, which took place on Wednesday afternoon, was one of the largest civic funerals that has ever taken place in this city. His remains were escorted to the Odd Fellows' Gemotery by a numerous concourse of friends and several societies. Nearly 1,000 persons, residents of Chester and vicinity, were present. An ordinance increasing salaries of high consta-ble, detectives, and clerks of the mayor, as follows: High constables and detectives, $1,000 per year; chief clerk, $1,400; assistant clerk; $1;200. Agreed to. residents of Ohester and vicinity, were present.

MEETING OF THE WORKING WOMEN. MEETING OF THE WORKING WOMEN. A mass meeting of the Working Women's Asso-ciation of this city was held in Sansom-street Hall last evening. The attendance was large, consider-ing the weather. The president, Mrs. Denett, occupied the chair. The preamble and constitution of the association, which was recently adopted, was then read by Mr. Van Oleve. It provides that the organization shall be a representative one, with a supervisory com-mittee of twenty-five members, a portion of whom will be males. Sub-organizations will be entitled to one representative for every fifty members. The DEMISE OF A PATRIOT PRINTER.

DEMISE OF A PATRIOT PRINTER. On Saturday afternoon last, a funeral train ac-companied to the grave the mortal remains of Sor-geant John F. Kelvey, of Company D, 68th Regi-ment P. V., who died from disease contracted in the service of his country. Sergeant Kelvey was a printer. He made his mark in the office of The Press as a most excellent workman. When the coun-try needed the services of men to sustain it against the assaults of a savage and brutal domestic foe, he, with others in The Press office, partroitently respond-ed to the call of the President of the United States. He did his duty moby and well, but fell a proy to disease, which finally ended in death. His remains were followed to the La Fayette Cometery by mem-bers of the 68th Regiment in the oily, members of the order of Odd Fellows, Typographical Union, and the Schuylkill Höse Company. The deceased was universally respected.

FIRE.

Emma Fisher was arraigned on the charge of stealing a lot of wearing apparel and a breast-pin, the property of William Little. As the case was about to be investigated, she stald it "warn't no use to go into particklars, because I stole the things, and that's all about it." She was committed. Emma seemed rather more delighted than otherwise at the prospect of a sojourn in the county prison. A closet containing clothes, in the third story of the house southwest corner Twenty-second and Race streets, occupied by Philip Ost, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The damage was small. The cause of the fire was owing to the ignition of matches which a little child was playing with.

Mr. DAVIS (U.) said he was glad to hear the gentleman's volce. It sounded differently from what, it did at the last meeting, but now had the right ring.
Mr. UHLER (U.) said that the time had arrived when we can do the best good. He was in favor of the increase and would unequivocally vote for it.
Mr. KING (O.) was opposed to the amendment. He desired to know where the money was to come from. It is a very easy matter for gentlemon to get up here and make spread-cagle speeches and vote money away. He twisted that the members would pause before taking such a step.
Mr. GINNODO (U.) favored the passage of the amendment. He introduced the original resolution, but would vote for any amount. DISORDERLY HOUSES. Alice Wilson and Emma Wormley were arraigned yesterday, at the Central Station, on the charge of keeping disorderly houses at 313 and 315 Juniper street. A number of the near residents were ex-amined, who testified as to disordely characters visit-ing the houses at all hours, particularly in the night time. The defendants were required to enter ball in the sum of $1,000 each, to answer at court.

amendmont. He introduced the original resolution, but would vote for any amount. Mr. BRIGHTLY (O.) also favored the increase, but he did not think the liberties of the nation were at stake, as had been asserted. He feared that the liberties of the North are being infringed upon every day by the Administration. Several other speeches were made favorable to the amendment, and it finally passed. The bill providing for the location of steam fire engines was postponed till next Thursday after-noon. JOINT CONVENTION.

Nr. BRIGHTLY (O.) concurred in his motion. Mr. BRIGHTLY (O.) concurred in his motion. Mr. Zane (U.) was called to the chair, and Mr. LYND (U.) made a few remarks in reference to the action of the joint convention. He conceived, under law, that it was the sworn duty of every member to meet in joint convention. If it is avoided by any connivance, the law is violated. He contended that the convention had a right to adjourn from day to day, until their object was accomplished. A mo-tion to adjourn size die would be entirely out of order.

Mr. BRIGHTLY (C) offered a resolution providing for a joint convention of Councils at six o'clock on Thursday, July 7th, to elect one member of the Board of Health and one member of the Board of Guardians of the Poor. Mr. Kine moved to postpone it for the present. Not agreed to Owen O'neete and Daniel Wilds were arraigned, resterday morning on the charge of malicious mis-chief, in forcing their way into the house of Johan-ne Hays, a respectable poor woman on Nicholson street, a small thoroughfare in the Sixth ward. The evidence adduced set forth that the defendants appeared at the front door of the house at 2 o'clock in the morning, and commenced kicking and thump-ing at the same, and vehemently demanding ad-mittance. The inmates, were terribly alarmed. The assailants entered the house, and proceeded to inspect the several apartments. A Mrs. Duncan, who occupied a room, sent her little son, a lad about 15 years old, in search of a police officer, who speedl-ly arrived, and took the two men into custody. The prisoners committed various excesses, while in the house, of an immoral character. The Alderman read the prisoners a pretty severe lecture, and told them plainly that the shooting of them down like dogs would have been justified under the law. The accused were committed to answer.
