On our return to the Philadelphia side, on one occasion, the child became completely prea-times to ascertain whether he was still alive: Such a death-like appearance came over him. I feit the necessity of reaching home as soon as possible, and to my satisficilon (for the time being.) I saw one of the Lombard and South-streets cars approaching, when the conductor arrested my progress by informing me that I could not enter being colored. I referred him to the condition of my child; but all to no purpose; he ordered the driver to go on, regardless of our humble plea. HISCELLANEOUS. THE ENGLISH PRISON SHIP MINDEN. The following copy of a letter explains itself. The relic of English barbarly will be assigne i a proper place by the Mayor: 1628 FLIBEER SPREET, PHILADELPHIA, July 19, 1864. To His Honor Mayor Henry: DEAR SIR: The Rev. J. O. Nevin, a native of Western Fennsylvania, and a missionary for some years past from the United Presbyterian Church in this country to Canton, China, has sont me as cor-responding secretary of the Board of Foreign Mis-sions of this. Church, the accompanying parcel, which I beg leave to hand to you. In reference to it he says to me, under date, Canton, February 26, 1864. "I wish you to present from me the accompany-ing 'Minden' block to the archives of the old State House, Philadelphia. "The word 'Minden' is the name of the prison ship on which Francis Key composed the Star-Spangled Banner on the 12th of September, 1814. She was so'd here in 1862 to the Chinese, who broke her up for the wood, iron, and copper. The Ameri-can' In Canton have sought pleess of the old Eng-lish Oak as medientloss of the coaston referred to. "The design of the block was made by myself and with it is represented by a pair of manacles and chains—a prison ship. "On the other side is the Canton date, and the cha-mate anchor, showing that she is not only disabled but destroyed for fighting and saling. "On one end of the block you will observe some and anchor, showing that she is not only disabled but destroyed for fighting and saling. "On one end of the block you will observe some and place of business." Transmit this parcel to you in hope that you will be best able to carry out the wish of my friend and brother, the Rev. Mr. Nevin. With sentiments of great respect, &c., J. B. DALES. THE CHIRISTIAN COMMISSION COONING

J. B. DALES, THE CHRISTIAN COMMISSION COOKING WAGON. We were shown yesterday a novel and extremely useful and ingenious apparatus, the property of the U.S. Christian Commission. It is styled a "cook-ing wagoo," and was made by J. Dunton, the in-ventor, who obtained a patent. March 24, 1863. The running gear resembles somewhat that of an ordi-nary four-wheel wagon. Upon the front wheel rests a box containing two chests to hold the provisions, such as tea, coffee, etc. In front of this is the dri-verses. Upon the hind wheels rests the cooking apparatus, which consists of three bollers, for making tea, coffee, and soup, each boller holding fourteen gallons, and capable while on the move, with good uel, of bolling ten gallons each every twenty mi-nutes, and, while stationary, twelve gallons in the same time (twenty minutes), which would be from 90 to 106 gallons for thour. The front, or provision chest, is fitted with Japanned cans, for holding re-specifiely 100 pounds sugar, 30 pounds coffee, 12 pounds tea, 20 pounds corn stared, and 30 pounds extract of beef. Accompanying, also, are two this path tea, wording meat, and an axe-with which to cut wood for the field; two griditors, for toasting bread or brolling meat, and an axe-with which to cut wood for the field is carried. PRESENTATION TO THE PRESIDENT.—The color ed people of Baltimore, desirous of testifying their appreciation of the distinguished services of Pre-sident Lincoln in the cause of human freedom, are about to present him with a copy of the Holy Rible, which is a masterpiece of art and taste. It is the imperial quarto of the American Bible Society, bound in purple velvet, with heavy gold mountings, appropriately engraved, and enclosed in a wainut case lined with white silk. The total cost of this elegant gift is $580.75.

elegant gift is $580.75. EXTRAORDINANY TIMBER.—A Detroit paper says: "A lot of choice timber, such as we sometimes 'read of,' but seldom see, has been lying at the Michigan Central dock, Detroit, awaiting shipment. It is principally black wainnt, and was cut in the vicinity of Dowsgiae. One of the sticks is 57 inches square, and a number of others are very nearly equal in size. Owing to the formidable size of the trees, wood-choppers long hesitated about 'goin in', but 'high price of gold,' the monarchs of the forest were laid low."

Chiph price of gold, i the monarche of the forest were laid low."
A REMARKABLE LADT.—There is a widow lady living in Douglas, seventy-four years old, who sawed and split five cords of seasoned wood in the course of last winter and spring. This old lady is in good circumstances, not compelled to labor, but out said wood to benefit her health. When she first commenced her limbs were so stiff that she could not lift her feet. without assistance from her hands, but by degrees, in sawing and splitting the wood, be entirely regained the use of her limbs, and materially improved her health. The example of this lady is an evidence of what can be done by persistent efforts.—Workscher der has be done by persistent efforts.—Workscher during, will easily foot up $150,000: In many instances whole will see were dational to the law, bringing their catle and the binks of the lamba to face for while see of her limbs, and the binks of the string were destroyed, and with such has been raging in the lumber downed by the finances. A large amount of tanbark, lumber, and cordwood was destroyed.

bark, tumber, and cordwood was destroyed. STRANGE FUEL.—At the iron mines in Chantzel, Germany, where Luther was born and reared, the waste slag from the furnaces is run into moulds of about a cubic foot each, and distributed to the workmen, who wheel them home, when they still contain heat enough to cook the meal for the family. After they are cooled these rectangular blocks are an excellent material for building walls.

Goodwin for the capital of Arizona, on Granite Creek, is to be called Prescott, in honor of the historian. The Go-vernor has appointed the 18th of July the day for holding an election for a delegate to Congress and for electing a member of the Legislative Assembly for that Territory.
