CRUELTY TO A HORSE.

IBefore Mr. Alderman White.] CRUELITY TO A HORSE. A man giving the name of Emanuel Stringer was straigned on Saturday atternoon on the charge of oruel treatment to a horse. The complaint was en-tered by Mr. John Hanna. The horse, attached to a dray, was standing on Fourth street, below Chest-nut. The flies were annoying and the temperature of the weather extremely hot. The horse moved a few feet, wherenpon the defendant aprang at the animal in a furious manner, and commenced sawing his mouth with the bridle bit. Not content with this, he repeatedly thumped him on the nose and mouth. Several gentlemen who were witnesses to the trans-action appeared for the Commonwealth. The ac-used was required to enter ball in the sum of $600 to answer at court. MURAGO. Eliza Wilson and Edith Rodson were arraign-ed on Saturday afternoon on the charge of commit-ting an assault and battery upon Sarah S. Bricks, a pending, the first named defendant sprang sudden-y at the prosecutirs and a desperate sculle ensued. The noise attracted a large crowd in and about the office, it being reported that a murder had been com-mitted. Eliza was committed in default of $600 ball to answer at court. The other defendant was hald to keep the peace. KEYSTONE BATTERY. The Keystone Battery, under orders to leave for the front, broke camp at 3 o'clock on Saturday, and marched to Thirteenth and Market streets, where the guns and horses were placed on the cars for Harrieburg. The men did not get away till after 7 o'clock in the evening. Their unexpected arrival function by the time they were ready to leave quite a crowd had assemble to witness their departure. The officers are: Capitain, N. Hastings; first lieute-nat, John V. Creeley ; jublor first lieutemat, John Koberts ; senior second lieutemant, James Bincham ; junior second lieutemant, J. L. Newland. These youngsters are candidates for the penitentiary, and probably they will be elected, unless the more stringent rules of parental restraint are enforced. They pillfer everything they can conveniently lay their hands upon, and never fail to rob little boys and girls who nay be sent with small sums of money on errands. On Saturday a little girl, having in her possession a two dollar note, which had been given to her by her mother, to take to a store, was assailed by the crowd and robbed. THE COURTS. Quarter Sessions-Judge Allison. The June term was brought to a close on Satur-day, and the court had but a short session, during which two habeas corpus cases and a describio case were heard and determined. John W. Wright, arrested in Frankford on the loth of June, and carried before Alderman Con-nolly, by whom, after hearing on a charge of al-leged forgery in New Jersey, several years ago, he was committed to await a requisition from the do-vernor of New Jersey, had a hearing on habeas corpus. It being apparent from the length of time which the protecutor had permitted to elapse since the arrest and commitment of the relator that great injustice was being done by the prolonged impri-soment of the latter, and that no effort had been made to obtain a requisition, through forty-eight hours woeld have been sufficient for that purpose, Judge Allison ordered that the relator the term... The August term, beginning this morning, will be held by Judge Ludlow.
