WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10, 1864.

TERMS OF THE PRESS. To City Subscribers $10 per annum, payable in advance...

Mr. W. B. RENTZ, No. 504 Fifth Street, two doors south of Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington City...

The Message of Governor Curtin. It is scarcely necessary to comment to public attention the message of the Governor...

When rocks bow down before the swelling sea, and the waves roll in upon the shore, and the billows surge against the rocks...

In this connection the Governor makes an important point, that deserves serious consideration...

On the first point, it is probable that the French would resist the accession of Napoleon IV. for the best reasons...

The fact is that the English light-draught vessels are not prepared to do a complete day's work...

This point fully discussed, the message turns to the movements of the last raid, and gives them all in detail up to the final and terrible culmination...

The concluding portion is devoted to the elaboration of a plan, the fruit of three weeks' study...

American and European Iron-Clads. Just now all the nations of Europe, big and little, are building themselves iron-clads...

Succession to the French Throne. It is stated, in a contemporary journal, that the Princess Clotilde, the wife of Prince Napoleon...

The Accident on the Baltimore and Washington Railroad. BALTIMORE, August 9.—The latest report from the Annapolis Junction station...

Reported Capture of a Vessel off Hatteras. NEWBURYPORT, August 9.—The whaling bark, the "Hatteras," which was on a cruise...

Journalists ought to be accurate, for his readers' sake and to his credit. The succession to the throne of France may be disputed for a long time yet...

There is a sovereign de facto in France known as the Emperor Napoleon III., and there are two French gentlemen, who dare not set foot on French soil...

On Monday morning, August 8, a rebel steamer, the "Hatteras," was captured by the U. S. S. "Albatross" off Hatteras Inlet...
