Walking about among their habitations, seem almost to cover the ground occupied by their quiarters. But prisoners are also to be seen in various parts of the camp ; besides their work in building, digging, & , already described, and for which they are paid, many employ ments are carried on by them. such as drawing water from the wells they have made, cleaning the ground, alring blankets, and generally doing the necessary work of a camp. They have obtained some drums and fifes, and when drawn up in line for roll-call are permitted to use these instruments for their own amusement. It is perhaps, needless to add that they do not play rebeit tunes. There is, it is understood, no order agains to the secession music would not be proper; therefore, they play negro melodies. Bloomstein was arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the horrid deed. He was brought in on the train and taken before the provet marshal, who had him closely confined until the matter can be investigated.—Nashville Press, Aug. 27. SEAMES' NEW VESSEL.—A. London newspaper says the new sloop for Captain Semimes, now building on the continent, will be ready about the 1st of September. She is rated at over 4,000 tons, will be protected with solid steel plates 2½ inches thick. She is to be called the New Alabama, to be armed with Armstrong guns, will be furnished with engines of great power, and it is expected most of the officers and crew of the old Alabama will join the new. INCREASED PENSIONS.—The act of July 4, 1864, increases the invalid pensions of those who have lost both level of both hands or both eyes to twenty-five dollars per month. It also provides for disabled enlisted men, or these temporarily serving with the regularly organized military or naval force, as well as for their widows and other dependent relatives; and for cases where there is no evidence of muster in. ESCAPE OF MCCOME.—McComb, the notorious murderer of Laura J. Harvey, escaped from the jail at Ottumwa on Wednesday night last. He was under sentence of death at the time of his escape. It is almost a gifty that the mod which took him from the jail a few weeks since didn't make short work of him. He is again loose on society, ready to engage in new deeds of villainy and murder.—Des Morne. Mr. Detwiler, who had just arrived from Columbia, was also in the same car. Three of the party crowded oppressively around him, and his watch was twisted from the chain in an instant. The "swell mob" were evidently started from New York because of some emergency not generally known. At the hearing yesterday they were individually questioned as to the cause of their visit to Philadelphis. They all halled from New York isome wanted to "see their uncles," others were in "search of work," others again were "simply passing through the city," on their way to several places. The party took lodging at a hotel, on Sixth street, below Market. Most of the defendants were arrested at this place, and the remainder were taken into cutody in neighboring to Mr. Detwiler was found in a bed occupied by MicCann, Gaffney, and Harrison.
