THE DEVOTED BRIDE. By St. George Tacker.
This is a story of several lives in the "Old Dominion."
The heroine is of that Huguenot-like cavatier blood which coursed through the veins of the noble serily settlers of Eastern Virginia. The tale is admirably narrasted, and here and there we observe historical catches which take us back to our boyhood on the Peninsula. It is a story of love among those who fed the fame with chivalric ardor, and the noblest principles. This is a novel which, in perusal, will remind us of the day of Virginia's prime, in a delightful narrative of real life, and make us forget, for a little while, at least, this civil war of ours. We heartily commend the book in every way, and hope it may be well received. nassages of the lungs. FOR SALE-WITH POSSESSION FOR SALE—WITH PUSSESSIUM AT ONCE.

THE RIVAL BELLES. By author of "Wild Western Scenes." The author has here given us an American novel of real merit, and considerable cramatic power. The scenes are laid in the National Capital, in Philadelphia, New York, and Baltimore, and the delineations of real life, manners, principles, elevating and defective morals, are drawn with a master hand in a very pleasing style. Plot and Passion are interwoven so delicately and naturally as to carry the interest of the reader through the work, and enable the true thinker to weigh and appreciate its teachings. The false pride of come of our people-receives tratiful depiction in this work, and at almost every turn seathing rebuke. The frivolities of the period-causes of some of our internecine heartburnings—are also sarcastically disposed of. This novel is well written, and is gotten up in the usual excellent style that characterizes the publishers, and we have no doubt it will meet with a very large sale. 199th REGIMENT PA. VOLS.. Dh. Wishart. Dear Sir. One fyear ago the Examining Surgeon of this district told me I had Consumption of the Lungs, and that I could not be cured; and indging from the Improved that I could not be cured; and indging from the my symptoms at that time I myself supposed that I could not have for more than one year without spitting up blood in large quantities.

For months I could not have a severe fit of coughing without spitting up blood in large quantities.

For months I could not work at anything, and was obliged to keep my bed most of the time. While in this condition I was in Mr. Rowbotham's store, in this city, and he seeing me very low, I was recommended to try your Pine Tree Tra Cordial. He said he had sold a great deel of. it, and that, as it had cured so many others, he believed it would do some good. I bought a bottle and commenced using it. In a very short time I saw that I was getting better very fast, and after taking several bottles I was entirely restored to health, so that I could work every day at my business, which is very heavy work in an iron foundry. When I commenced to use your Pine Tree Tar Cordial my weight was only one hundred and thirty-five pounds; times the use of it I have weighed on an average one hundred and fifty-five. I shall be glad to have you publish this, as I believe I should not have been living at this time if I had not used your great medicine, and I wish all who suffer to receive its benefit.

Very truly yours, Captain Samuel Harner. Lot and Buildings, 1333 Arch street. Lot 20 by 100 to a street; a splendid neighborhood for a residence.

This invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most elastic, flexible, and durable spring ever used, enabling the wearer, in consequence of its freat elasticity and flexibility, to place and fold the skirt when a use passeally and with the same convenience as a silk of muslin dress. It entirely obvites and silences the only objection to hoop skirts, viz: the cancyance to the wearer as well as the public, especially in crowded assemblies, carriages, railroad cars, church pews, or in any scowded place, from the difficulty of contracting them to occupying a small space. This entirely removes the difficulty, while giving the skirt the usual full and symmetrical form, and is the lightest and most stylish and graceful appearance for the street, opera, promenade, or house dress. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Spring Skirt for a single day, will never atterward willingly dispense with the use of them. They are the best quality in every part, and by far the lightest, most durable, comfortable, and economical skirt made. When I commenced to use your Fine Tree Cordial I was, to all appearance, near my grave. Thad been for a length of time spitting blood, and would at times vomit it. My physicians (for I employed two) pronounced me past cure; but my sister had used your Pine Tree Tar Cordial, which did her so much good that abe prevailed on me, as a last resort, to try it; and, thank God, I commenced to use it. I have taken try length at my person that is sick should call on me, and I will tell them what your cordial has done for me. All my friends and neighbors were utterly astonished at my recedy return to health, for they had seen me vomit blood in a clotted state frequently.
