A VOICE FROM REBELLION.

We had an interview yesterday afternoon with one of the rebel leaders who had returned to New York on Sunday, having left Charleston on the 10th inst. The following facts, as briefly stated by the speaker, are of interest to our readers.

On the fourth of July there were twelve hundred Union officers held as prisoners at Macon, Georgia. A vote was taken among them for President of the United States. The result was as follows: Lincoln, 100; Fremont, 100; Fremont, 100; Fremont, 100.

There are about two hundred Union officers held as prisoners at Andersonville, Ga. They are very anxious for an exchange for themselves and the entire men at Andersonville, Ga. but they are not allowed to see their families.

The ration served to the imprisoned officers at Charleston are better than those of the Union soldiers. The ration consists of rice, corn meal, and corn grist.

During the week ending Sunday morning the house of John R. McPherson, No. 123 N. 10th St. on Ridge road, was struck by lightning and considerably damaged.

There were 300 bales of cotton sold yesterday. The prices ranged from $1.20 to $1.75 per bale.
