On the lawn in front of the mansion at Fairmount On the lawn in front of the mansion at Fairmount Park, a beautiful octagonal-shaped temple has been erected, and is for, the accommodation of the band of muric which has proved of so much attraction to this beautiful resort. The temple has eight ele-gantly carved and paneled sides. Its floor is about three fect above the ground, and the roof, which is about fifteen feet in height; is supported by eight Corinthian columns. When painted it will be as ornamental as it is useful. It was thought pro-bable that it would be finished to morrow, and cerebable that it would be finished to-morrow, and cerebable that it would be inished to morrow, and cere-monies of dedication were to be had; but owing to some delay the temple will not be ready for dedica-tion till probably a week hence, of which notice will be given. The ceremonies will consist almost entirely of music, and will be quite entertaining.

THE POLICE.

LARCENI OF DIAMOND JEWELRY. Frederick Blake, a fast-looking young man, was arraigned at the Central Station, yesterday after-noon, on the charge of stealing diamond jewelry, to the amount of $600, the property of Louisa Har-rison, residing on George street, above Fourteenth. The defendant proceeded to New York, and was figuring quite extensively at one of the large hotels there when arrested, through the medium of the telegraph. He was committed.

GOODS OUT ON INSPECTION. During the examination of the goods alleged to have been purloined by Mrs. Eloine Seraphina Toynsend, at the Central Station a few days since, quite a number of articles were taken away by par-ties who had no claim to them. These goods are yet eut on inspection ; in other words, it is supposed the holders do not intend to return them. One pretty, well dressed person who was overheard to zer to LARCENY OF PEACHES. LARCENY OF PEACHES. A couple of Market-street fruit hucksters, giving the names of Mary Fordham and Oaroline Harri-son, were arraigned on the charge of the larceny of twenty boxes of peaches, valued at $25, the same having been consigned to John Vogel, and by him soid to a Mirs. Snyder. She engaged Mir. Martin to take the peaches to her place of business. He de-spatched his agent to deliver the goods. This per-son in looking for the premises of Mirs. Snyder was, as is alleged, intercepted by the defendants, who said it was all right, to deliver the peaches to them. He testified at the hearing that he did so. The de-fendants denied having received the property. Several boxes, however, were found in their posses-sion, which were identified as the property of Mir. Vogel. The accused were bound over to answer at court.

APPROPRIATING BOUNTX MONEY.

APPROPRIATING BOUNTX MONEY, A man named Henry F. Druckenmiller was ar-raigned yesterday on the charge of misdemeanor to cheat and defraud Thomas Amey out of bounty mo-ney, amounting to the sum of $525. It seems that Amey and another man with one eye, were arrest-ed in Bethlehem, Pa., a short time since, on the charge of committing an assault and battery upon a citizen. They were held to bail to answer at court. In a few days after this the individual who had entred ball for their appearance surrendered them to the authorities. They were committed to prison. While thus incarcerated, the defendant and a lawyer visited them, and a proposition was made prison. While thuiss. They were committed to prison. While thuis incarcerated, the defendant and a lawyer visited them, and a proposition was made that they enlist, the defendant representing him-self as a redvulting agent. He said the assault and battery case could be settled and all expenses paid for the sum of $75. An arrangement having been made, the two men were taken to Norristown. A glass eye was added to the man bereft of half his sight, but the ruse was discovered, and he was re-jected. Amey was brought to Philadelphia, and cre-dited to the quota of Bucks county. He now belongs to Co. D, 196th Regiment P. V., at Camp Cadwala-der. The bounty money was received by Drucken-miller, on a power-of-attorney, but Amey says that np to the present time he has not seen any of it. He has not enough money to buy a gingerbread or a cigar. The facts being made known to the officer in command of the camp, the new recruit was per-mitted to come to the city to prosecute the case. The alderman, with just discrimination that reflects credit on his judgment, returned the case to the precredit on his judgment, returned the case to the pre-sent term of the court, as the prosecutor may be sent away before the next term arrives. Bail de-manded, $800.

THE COURTS.

Court of Quarter Sessions-Judge Ludlow.

Court of Quarter Sessions-Judge Lud-low. Something more than a week ago there arrived in town John O'Brien, William Mulligar, Edward Russell, John McCann, Edward Harrison, Edward Russell, John Sullivan, Geo. Gaffney, Michael Cra-ven, Henry Wilson, Lawrence O'Brien, Joseph Murphy, and William Bunghter. They are all re-cognized by the police as being thieves and bounty-jumpers, from New York city. Their object in coming here was to enlist, receive the bounty, and quit. People who live, however, by that kind of means, cannot resist temptation. Arriving at Ken-sington, the party started down Sixth street in a car. One of the passengers was a Mr. Detwiler, irom Columbia. As you cannot change the spots of a leopard so if is impossible to restrain the instincts of a thief. They saw that Mr. D. was an unsus-pecting countryman, and while one of the gang gave him a pinch on the leg from one side, thus attract-ing his attention, the pal on the other side abstracted his watch. Mr. Detwiler having ascertained his loss, imme-diately gave notice at the Central Station. The officers at once took the matter in hand, and suc-ceded in arresting ihe whole party-several of them at the Commercial Hotel and the balance at Earle's eating saloon, Sixth and Chestnut streets. After a hearing before Alderman Beiter they were com-mitted, in default of ball, to answer the charge of stealing. On Tuesday the whole party were tried. John O'Brien, William Mulligan, Edward Russell, John McCann, Edward Harrison, and Edward Relly were convicted. The three first-named were sentenced to three years in the Eastern Peniten-tiary, and the three last to the same term in the County Prison. The other eight were acquitted, the evidence tending to show that, though they were with the guilty parties, they were not acting in direct concert with them. Jadge Ludlow, however, in the discharge of his duty, and believing that these acquitted men, from their associations, were danger-ous people to be at large, required that they should each enter finto

each enter fatts $3,000 bonds to be of good behavior for one year. As an episode, it may be proper to state here that before any of these parties had been tried, and while some of them, and among the number Henry Wil-son, were at large under ball, or in the custody of Mr. Thomas Lester Smith, he being the ball, and therefore responsible for their appearance, Wilson, under a bail piece, was surrendered at the County Prison by Smith, who was accompanied by one Samuel Carson and a man named Charles S. Kane. The two former having gone away, Kane-suddenly. returned and asked Mr. Campbell, the prison keeper, to whom he presented the bail piece, to al-low the man to go with him. This Mr. O. did, and the result was that Wilson was released by Kane. Yesterday Kane marched boldly into court and was the result was that Wilson was released by Kane. Yesterday Kane marched boldly into court and was arrested. He told where Wilson was, and he was also rearrested. Wilson's case was disposed of, and although he was acquited, Judge Ludlow required that he should enter into bonds of $3,000 for good behavior for one year. Kane was held in $1,000 to answer on the charge of ciding a prisoner to escape, and in default thereof

The New York Evening Post of yesterday says:

The New York Evening Post of yesterday says: Gold opened at 227½, and after selling up to 223½ fell to 223½, reacted to 225, and closing at 224. Ex-change is dull and nominal. The loan market is active, and in some quarters is reported stringent. But there is an increasing accumulation of capital seeking investment, and the indications of increasing ease are accumulating. The rate is seven per cent, on approved securities, and in certain cases a small additional commission is paid. The stock market opened strong and closed steady. Governments are quiet, State stocks dull, railroad bonds firm, coal stocks strong, mining shares improving, and railroad shares irregular, with more activity. Before the first session Reading was quoted at 180, and Pittsburg at 110½.
