FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

From Pottsville. Potrsville, Sepi. 20, 1864.—The Philadelphia Age of yesterulary contains an account of a charge of cavalry made on the Copperhaad meeting here on Saturday. It is manufactured out of the whole cloth. There is not a word of truth in the state-ment. The meeting was not disturbed in the least. After the meeting adjourned, a drunken Irishuman made an assault on a crippled soldier, who er-pressed his sentiments freely in regard to the false-hoods that had been uttered, and the treason that had been spoken. There were one or two other fights such as we see here every Fourth of July. ANTHRAOITE.

ACQUITTAL OF THE BOY JOHNSON.—The boy Charles Johnson, who shot a playmate, named Joseph P. Fisher, on the 2d of this month, in the town of Bristol, with an army musket, has been tried on the charge of voluntary and involuntary marslaughter. It was admitted, on the part of the Commonwealth, that Johnson did not intend to kill his comrade, but they argued that such gross care-lessness as he had been guilty of required publish-ment. The jury, however, brought in a verdict of not guilty.
