The NEW RAILWAY POSTAL SISTEM. The new railway postal system between this city, New York, and Washington is now lairly in opera-tion. Yesterday three clerks were sent from the post office in this city to New York. They left New York in the 7.30 train, and during the passage of the train were engaged in assorting and distribut-ing the mells. By this means mails for all parts of the country are got ready for forwarding at the tarfiest possible moment. The mails for the West are ready by the time the first mail train leaves this city early in the morning. The cas contain every convenience which has

are ready by the time the first mail train leaves this city early in the morning. The cars contain every convenience which has been thought necessary for a thorough performance of the work. Excides the several hundred "typeon-holes," into which the mail matter is distributed— these pigeon holes covering a space equal to one en-tire side of the car—there is sufficient room for the mails, the tables required by the clerks, and for "esting and sleeping, and altogether the cars are fitted up with much tasts: In the arrangement of this postal railway the let-ters are so separated that those for the boxes of the post office, according to the "sections" into which the five or six thousand boxes are divided, can be distributed at once at this office; that the letters for the callers at the "genera, delivery" box can be made ready immediately; and that the letters for the carters and ior the "stations" in this city can be given out on the arrival of the train here. The advantages of the system in the early de-livery of mails will be seen. Letters for distant places, via this city, will be ready for further mail-ing on the instant the train arrives, and much time will thereby be saved. ILLUMINATED PROCESSION.

ILLUMINATED PROCESSION. ILLUMINATED PROCESSION. On next Saturday evening there will be an illu-inated procession of patricts, namely, the Sol-ier's Campaign Club, the Union Campaign Club, and the Republican Invincibles. On this occasion itere will be displayed about two thousand five 'undred dollars worth of fireworks. The parade 'undred dollars worth of fireworks. The parade 'undred dollars avery brilliant and imposing specta-ie. The solders are raitying in large numbers to the call of their country. The grand parade of the 'unists generally will take place on Saturday evening, the Sth of October, which will probably be the largest affair of the kind ever organized in the City of Philadelphia.

The Grand Jury cannot but feel that, while it may be necessary to contine these persons so charged, it is also requisite that some more efficient means should be adopted to protect such persons from in-justice at the hands of those perhaps equally guilty, if not more so, than themselves; the stranger and the helpless require some better guarantee against false imprisonment than the present loose mauner of making commitments.
