Creater, and, as the mist disappear, we begin to test how much we had overrated our dangers. We wonder row why ary one should have entertained a doubt of our ultimate triumph, or have permitted himself to be down cast, which in fact everything was encouraging. The functal aspect of the Government is as bright as the most sanguine could have hoped for under the circumstances. To day not a single bond of the United States is below no day how a bank of our of the original to originate the original of the result of th ON. sonal property from 1840 to 1850 was sixty-four per cent. from 1850 to 1860 it was one hundred and twenty seven per cent. ply this an hundred fold The public debt can be worked off in a short period, and will be, under the blessings of a restored Union which seems not far distant. There is no change to notice in the money market, the rate on call being ten por cent., with money in mode ate supply. The stock market is very dull, but prices show no material falling off. There is less doing in the oil stocks,

Dr. Evarits, by way of illustrating the inservatability of Divine Provi- dence, related in his sermon last Sunday the follow- ing incident: The spot in our lake can be pointed out to you where a young lieutenant of the United States army was once well algh drowned. He wont down, as it was supposed, for the last time, when	dical and railroad departments, set aside such build- ines and lots of ground as will be needed for them, and have them suitably marked and set apart : he will then, in consultation with Grenerals Thomas and Skeum, set apart such as may be necessary to the proper administration of the military duties of the be-partment of the Cumberland and of the post of Atlanta, and all buildings and materials not thus embraced will be held subject to the use of the Go- vernment, as may bereafter arise, according to the just rules of the Quartermaster's department. •. No general, staff or other differ, or any soldier, will, on any pretence, occupy any house or shanty, unless it be embraced in the limits asigned as the camp of the troops to which such general or staff belongs. But the chief quartermaster may allow the troops to use boards, shingles or other materials of buildings, barra, sheds, warehouses, and shantes, not needed by the proper departments of Govern- mert, to be used in the reconstruction of quarters and barracks as the troops and officers serving with them require.
